Virtual Intimacies Virtual Intimacies:

Virtual Intimacies Shaka McGlotten, 2013-12-01 Uses ethnography and cultural analysis to track scenes of intimate connection and disconnection among gay men across an array of media sites Virtual Intimacies tells the stories of gay men including the author who navigate social worlds in which the boundaries between real and virtual have been thoroughly confounded Shaka McGlotten analyzes intimate connection and disconnection across an array of media sites including mass mediated public sex scandals online spaces Do It Yourself porn and smartphone apps in order to show the ordinary ways people challenge and rework sexuality and technology The book frames virtual intimacy in terms of the mocking disapproval that looks at using technology to connect as something shameful or as a means of last resort However where many see a dead end Virtual Intimacies argues on behalf of more extensive understandings of intimacy thereby contributing to many feminist and queer approaches that seek to expand the scope of what counts as connection belonging or love The author also highlights the creative and resilient ways that queer people build social worlds using spaces and technologies in ways they were not intended This work is an original and finely crafted contribution from an important new voice Incisively reading personal political longings and laying bare aspects of the author's own lifeworlds here Shaka McGlotten offers a close and compelling auto ethnographic account of what it is we look for when we login cruise by remember and look forward Chronicling how we live lives of both virtuality and embodiment today working playing desiring losing and dying McGlotten's work is among the best of what is new in ethnographic writing Jafari S Allen author of Venceremos The Erotics of Black Self making in Cuba While the book deals with a diversity of topics from online games to black identity politics cruising grounds and avant garde porn it also weaves them together by means of a theoretical argument and a sound writer's voice Katrien Jacobs author of People's Pornography Sex and Surveillance on the Chinese Internet Virtual Intimacies is a great book breathtaking in its aesthetic ethnographic and attuned attention to the multiple mediations of an affectively attached life Bodies and play desire and violence outreach and evasion intensity and diffusion the contemporary world of virtual embodiment is all here and as a teacher and individual parsing the world I am so grateful to have read this Lauren Berlant author of Cruel Optimism and Desire Love

Virtual Intimacies Shaka McGlotten, 2013-11-12 Virtual Intimacies tells the stories of gay men including the author who navigate social worlds in which the boundaries between real and virtual have been thoroughly confounded Shaka McGlotten analyzes intimate connection and disconnection across an array of media sites including mass mediated public sex scandals online spaces Do It Yourself porn and smartphone apps in order to show the ordinary ways people challenge and rework sexuality and technology The book frames virtual intimacy in terms of the mocking disapproval that looks at using technology to connect as something shameful or as a means of last resort However where many see a dead end Virtual Intimacies argues on behalf of more extensive understandings of intimacy thereby contributing to many feminist and queer approaches that seek to expand the scope of what counts as connection belonging or love The author also highlights the creative and resilient ways that queer people build social worlds using spaces and technologies in ways they were not intended

Queer Online David J. Phillips, 2007 Textbook Mediated Intimacies Rikke Andreassen, Michael Nebeling Petersen, Katherine Harrison, Tobias Raun, 2017-10-30 Social media characterized by user generated content interactivity participation and community formation have gained much research attention in recent years At the same time intimacy affectivity and emotions are increasingly growing as fields of study While these two areas are often interwoven the actual interconnections are rarely studied in detail This anthology explores how social media construct new types of intimacies and how practices of intimacy shape the development and use of new media offering empirical knowledge theoretical insights and an international perspective on the flourishing field of digital intimacies Chapters present a range of research tools used such as interviews online ethnography visual analysis text analysis and video analysis There is also rich variation in sources for the empirical material studied including Tumblr YouTube dating sites hook up sites Facebook Snapchat Couchsurfing selfies blogs and photographs as well as smartphones tablets and computers By focusing on the intersection between social media and intimacies and their continuous co constitution this anthology offers new insights into the vast landscape of contemporary media reality It will be a valuable resource for teachers students and scholars with an interest in new media communication intimacy and affectivity

Digital Queer Cultures in India Rohit K. Dasgupta, 2017-03-16 The work argues that new media social networking sites SNS both web and mobile and related technologies do not exist in isolation rather they are critically embedded within other social spaces This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of gender studies especially men s and masculinity studies queer and LGBT studies media and cultural studies particularly new media and digital culture sexuality and identity politics sociology social anthropology and South Asian studies

Virtual Influencers Esperanza Miyake, 2024-08-01 This book identifies the converging socio cultural economic and technological conditions that have shaped informed and realised the identity of the contemporary virtual influencer situating them at the intersection of social media consumer culture Artificial Intelligence AI and digital technologies Through a critical analysis of virtual influencers and related media practices and discourses in an international context each chapter investigates different themes relating to digitality and identity virtual place and nationhood virtual emotions and intimacy im materialities of virtual everyday life the biopolitics of virtual human production the necropolitics of pandemic virtuality transmedial and mimetic virtualities and the political economy of virtual influencers The book argues that the virtual influencer represents the various ways in which contemporary identities have increasingly become naturalised with questions of virtuality mediated by digital technologies across multiple realities From practices relating to AI driven invasive data profiling needed for virtual influencer production to problematic online practices such as buying digital skin colour the author examines how the virtual influencer s aesthetic social and economic value obfuscates some of the darker aspects of their role as an extractivist technology of virtuality one which regulates oppresses and or classifies bodies and datafied bodies that serve the visual bio political and digital economies of virtual capitalism In the process the book simultaneously offers a critique of the virtual influencer as a representational figure existing across multiple digital platforms spaces and times and of how they may challenge complicate and reinforce normative ideologies surrounding gender race class sexuality age and ableism As such the book sheds light on some of the more troubling realities of the virtual influencer s existence inasmuch as it celebrates their transformational potential exploring the implications of both within an increasingly AI driven digital culture society and economy Drawing from a wide range of disciplines this book will appeal to scholars researchers and students working in the area s of Popular Culture and Media Internet Digital and Social Media Studies Data justice and Governance Japanese Media Studies Celebrity Studies Fan Studies Marketing and Consumer Studies Sociology Human Computer Studies and AI and Technology Studies The Pursuit of Happiness Bianca C. Williams,2018-02-08 In The Pursuit of Happiness Bianca C Williams traces the experiences of African American women as they travel to Jamaica where they address the perils and disappointments of American racism by looking for intimacy happiness and a connection to their racial identities Through their encounters with Jamaican online communities and their participation in trips organized by Girlfriend Tours International the women construct notions of racial sexual and emotional belonging by forming relationships with Jamaican men and other girlfriends These relationships allow the women to exercise agency and find happiness in ways that resist the damaging intersections of racism and patriarchy in the United States However while the women require a spiritual and virtual connection to Jamaica in order to live happily in the United States their notion of happiness relies on travel which requires leveraging their national privilege as American citizens Williams s theorization of emotional transnationalism and the construction of affect across diasporic distance attends to the connections between race gender and affect while highlighting how affective relationships mark nationalized and gendered power differentials within the African diaspora Caribbean Migrations Anke Birkenmaier,2020-12-18 2021 Choice Outstanding Academic Title With mass migration changing the configuration of societies worldwide we can look to the Caribbean to reflect on the long standing entangled relations between countries and areas as uneven in size and influence as the United States Cuba Hispaniola Puerto Rico and Jamaica More so than other world regions the Caribbean has been characterized as an always already colonial region It has long been a key area for empires warring over influence spheres in the new world and where migration waves from Africa Europe and Asia accompanied every political transformation over the last five centuries In Caribbean Migrations an interdisciplinary group of humanities and social science scholars study migration from a long term perspective analyzing the Caribbean s unincorporated subjects from a legal historical and cultural standpoint and exploring how despite often fractured public spheres Caribbean intellectuals artists filmmakers and writers have been resourceful at showcasing migration as the hallmark of our modern age Elgar Encyclopedia of Queer Studies Rob Cover,Christy E. Newman,2025-03-12 This ground breaking Encyclopedia presents a new take on the field of queer studies with its wide and inclusive range of entries examining pathways for research into gender sexuality and relationships It covers significant developments in digital culture globalization identity health and politics Youth Mediations and Affective Relations Susan Driver,Natalie Coulter,2018-10-01 Youth Mediations and Affective Relations explores dynamic and expansive possibilities of young people s affective lives as they engage with diverse social media in prolific and specific ways It addresses the situated embodied and emotional experiences of young people as they actively use media in order to forge communities play imaginatively protest injustice experiment with their identities make media or explore friendships Furthermore it explores the relational and contextual dimensions of their everyday interactions Against static knowledge and moral panics that abstract youth from the complex and changing worlds in which they grapple with digital media this book hones in on the layered textures of youth experiences to consider how today s youth think and feel in subtle and unexpected ways
