War, Strategy and the Modern State, 1792-1914 Carl Cavanagh Hodge, 2016-11-25 This book is a comparative study of military operations conducted by modern states between the French Revolution and World War I It examines the complex relationship between political purpose and strategy on the one hand and the challenge of realizing strategic goals through military operations on the other It argues further that following the experience of the Napoleonic Wars military strength was awarded a primary status in determining the comparative modernity of all the Great Powers that military goals came progressively to distort a sober understanding of the national interest that a genuinely political and diplomatic understanding of national strategy was lost and that these developments collectively rendered the military and political catastrophe of 1914 not inevitable yet probable

Worship, Civil War and Community, 1638-1660 Chris R. Langley, 2015-10-23 This is the first study of the interaction between warfare and national religious practice during the British Civil Wars Using hundreds of neglected local documents this work explores the manner in which civil conflict invasion and military occupation affected religious practice As Churches elsewhere in Britain and Ireland were dismantled and the country was invaded by a foreign English army mid seventeenth century Scotland provides an important yet neglected point of entry in exploring the intersection between early modern warfare and religious practice The book establishes a fresh way of looking at the conflicts of the mid seventeenth century No other study has explored how soldiers were quartered or marched in close proximity to parish worship how their presence affected worship patterns and how the very idea of conflict in the mid seventeenth century impacted upon the day to day lives of worshippers Using the signing of the National Covenant in 1638 as its starting point this perspective emphasises flexibility in religious practice and the dialogue between local communities religious leaders and troops as a critical element in the experience of war

Philip Skippon and the British Civil Wars Ismini Pells, 2020-03-06 Philip Skippon was the third most senior general in parliament's New Model Army during the British Civil Wars A veteran of European Protestant armies during the period of the Thirty Years War and long serving commander of the London Trained Bands no other high ranking parliamentarian enjoyed such a long military career as Skippon He was an author of religious books an MP and a senior political figure in the republican and Cromwellian regimes This is the first book to examine Skippon's career which is used to shed new light on historical debates surrounding the Civil

Wars and understand how military events of this period impacted upon broader political social and cultural themes
