Water Come Down Day You Were Baptized:

Water, Come Down! Walter Wangerin, 1999 Sun cloud rain wind water and the whole of creation join family and friends in celebrating the baptism of a child of God Living Water, Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life's very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation

Liturgy for the Whole Church Susan K. Bock, 2008-08-01 This fresh collection of group readings and simple dramas based on stories from Scripture together with meditations story telling methodology and an instructed Eucharist will help church leaders design liturgy for children and grownups who worship together Taking the Plunge Anne E. Kitch, 2006-12-01 What does the sacrament of baptism mean in your child's life and yours In Taking the Plunge parents explore how the Baptismal Covenant helps to shape the experience of raising children What are you promising when you baptize your child Why are please and thank you theological words not simply polite things to say Anne Kitch writes with a light touch and includes plenty of real life stories Preparing for Baptism in the Episcopal Church Anne E. Kitch, 2015-07-01 A primer or refresher on the sacrament of Baptism for new parents new members and godparents This book is about preparing for Christian baptism in the Episcopal Church While we may hear people say I was baptized a Methodist or I was baptized Catholic or I was baptized Episcopalian people are not baptized into a denomination they are baptized into the Christian faith While various Christian denominations differ both their theology of baptism as it is understood and practiced in the Episcopal Church following the rite found in the Book of Common Prayer 1979 This short book is full of helpful information solid history sound theology and thoughtful reflection It is the perfect book to give to adults or to parents of young children seeking baptism through the Episcopal Church I am happy that I will be able to offer this book to my students for their future use when guiding baptismal candidates A truly welcome resource The Reverend Dr Nathan Jennings associate professor of liturgics and Anglican studies Seminary of the Southwest Saving the Ants Ruth Gilmore, 2001 Easy to use children's sermons for Year A of the Revised Common Lectionary Belonging to God Geneva Press, 2003-01-01 Belonging to God Catechism Resources for Worship is designed to bring the language and thus the teaching of the church into the worship of God's people It provides prayers calls to worship baptismal and confirmation resources and more as well as suggestions for how to incorporate the catechisms Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1904 Stories of Glory Jackie Towns, 2021-01-11 Stories of Glory An Orality Journey Through the Bible is the instructor's manual for the Metanarrative Bible course of God's grand redemptive story It is comprised of fifty compelling stories from Genesis through Revelation with supporting biblical passages to expound on the storyline The book is complete with initial questions for each story and then detailed reflective and life application questions to enrich class discussions after the story presentation The crafting of the book was designed to provide practical training for the pastors church leaders or church planters in apologetics homiletics theology and leadership with orality methods of teaching and preaching the Word of God It is my prayer that after a person complete the Stories of Glory An Orality Journey Through the Bible course they will acquire an increased knowledge and understanding of the biblical metanarrative God's covenantal love His faithful commitment to the redemption of His people and His longing for an authentic relationship with each one of us I also hope that they will gain greater confidence to embrace their significance in God's grand story with the ability to think through life situations from a biblical worldview and apply the beauty of God's unconditional love to their lives To God be the glory Amen May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all 2 Cor 13:14 NIV A Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: St. Augustin: The writings against the Manichæans, and against the Donatists ,1887
