Way Of Death Merchant Capitalism And The Angolan Slave Trade 1730 183:

Way of Death Joseph Calder Miller,1997-03-15 This acclaimed history of Portuguese and Brazilian slaving in the southern Atlantic is now available in paperback With extraordinary skill Joseph C Miller explores the complex relationships among the separate economies of Africa Europe and the South Atlantic that collectively supported the slave trade He places the grim history of the trade itself within the context of the rise of merchant capitalism in the eighteenth century Throughout Miller illuminates the experiences of the slaves themselves reconstructing what can be known of their sufferings at the hands of their buyers and sellers Way of Death Joseph Calder Miller,1988 Congoism Johnny Van Hove,2017-10-04 To justify the plundering of today s Democratic Republic of the Congo U S intellectual elites have continuously produced dismissive Congo discourses Tracing these discourses in great depth and breadth for the first time Johnny Van Hove shows how U S intellectuals and their influential European counterparts have been using the Congo in similar fashions for their own goals Analyzing intellectuals as diverse as W E B Du Bois Joseph Conrad and David Van Reybrouck the book offers a theorization of Central West Africa a case study of normalized narratives on the Other and a stirring wake up call for all contemporary writers on international history and politics Slavery and African Life Patrick Manning,1990-09-28 This book summarizes a wide range of recent literature on slavery for all of tropical Africa The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History Jeremy Black,2024-02-05 Now in its second edition The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History has been updated to include recent scholarship and an analysis of how debates have changed in light of recent key events such as the Black Lives Matter movement Primarily focused on the Atlantic Slave Trade this study places slavery within a broader world context and includes significant detailed coverage of Africa With a chronological approach it guides students through the origins of the Atlantic Slave Trade to its expansion and eventual abolition Its final chapters explore the legacy of the Atlantic Slave Trade by comparing it to other systems of slavery outside of the Atlantic region and analyze the persistence of modern day slavery As well as offering an analysis of historiography the updated bibliography and conclusion which considers the recent Black Lives Matter protests and their aftermath provide a fresh account of how slavery has shaped our understanding of the modern world Unmatched in its breadth of information chronological sweep and geographical coverage The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History is the most useful introductory resource for all students who study the Atlantic Slave Trade in a world context Slave No More Aline Helg,2019-02-07 Commanding a vast historiography of slavery and emancipation Aline Helg reveals as never before how significant numbers of enslaved Africans across the entire Western Hemisphere managed to free themselves hundreds of years before the formation of white run abolitionist movements Her sweeping view of resistance and struggle covers more than three centuries from early colonization to the American and Haitian revolutions Spanish American independence and abolition in the British Caribbean Helg not only underscores the agency of those who managed to become free people of color before abolitionism took hold but also assesses in detail the specific strategies they created and utilized

While recognizing the powerful forces supporting slavery Helg articulates four primary liberation strategies flight and marronage manumission by legal document military service for men in exchange for promised emancipation and revolt along with a willingness to exploit any weakness in the domination system Helg looks at such actions at both individual and community levels and in the context of national and international political movements Bringing together the broad currents of liberal abolitionism with an original analysis of forms of manumission and marronage Slave No More deepens our understanding of how enslaved men women and even children contributed to the slow demise of slavery The African Affairs Reader Nic Cheeseman, Lindsay Whitfield, Carl Death, 2017 This book draws together essential readings from the journal African Affairs together with a series of new essays on key themes written by the journal editors The New World History Ross E. Dunn, Laura J. Mitchell, Kerry Ward, 2016-08-23 The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field The forty four articles in this book take stock of the history evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history These essays together with the editors introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts approaches and insights valuable to their own work The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement the seminal ideas of founding thinkers and today s practitioners changing concepts of world historical space and time comparative methods environmental history the big history movement globalization debates over the meaning of Western power and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field Africa and the Americas José C. Curto, Renée Soulodre-LaFrance, 2005 A collection of essays reflecting an important structural feature of the slave trade its circularity Starting with the removal from Africa the collection then carries into discussions of ethnic identity religion and creolisation Comparative essays develop the theme of root experience in Africa against the facts of life for disenfranchised slaves painting a picture of a cohesive worldview shaped by the slave voyage and African beliefs The collection returns to Africa with analyses of the impact on Africa of formerly slaveholding nations New Studies in the History of American Slavery Edward E. Baptist, Stephanie M. H. Camp, 2006-01-01 These essays by some of the most prominent young historians writing about slavery fill gaps in our understanding of such subjects as enslaved women the Atlantic and internal slave trades the relationships between Indians and enslaved people and enslavement in Latin America Inventive and stimulating the essays model the blending of methods and styles that characterizes the new cultural history of slavery s social political and economic systems Several common themes emerge from the volume among them the correlation between race and identity the meanings contained in family and community relationships gender and life s commonplaces and the literary and legal representations that legitimated and codified enslavement and difference Such themes signal methodological and pedagogical shifts in the field away from master slave or white black race relations models toward perspectives that give us deeper access to the mental universe of slavery

Topics of the essays range widely including European ideas about the reproductive capacities of African women and the process of making race in the Atlantic world the contradictions of the assimilation of enslaved African American runaways into Creek communities the consequences and meanings of death to Jamaican slaves and slave owners and the tensions between midwifery as a black cultural and spiritual institution and slave midwives as health workers in a plantation economy Opening our eyes to the personal the contentious and even the intimate these essays call for a history in which both enslaved and enslavers acted in a vast human drama of bondage and freedom salvation and damnation wealth and exploitation
