Bloesch, 1974 Theological Interpretation of Scripture as Spiritual Formation, 2022-12-19 Academic expertise is essential But have you ever wondered how it itself is spiritually formative This book coming from an interdisciplinary assortment of scholars shows how the exegetical methods of Theological Interpretation of Scripture TIS are themselves spiritually formative This book provides a diverse collection of essays that focus on theological interpretative methods that result in a unique transformational experience not achieved through historical critical or grammatical historical approaches alone Renowned thinkers such as biblical scholar Ben Witherington III historical theologian Mark Elliott and theologian Arthur Sutherland offer new works that explore how reading theologically can transform theology cultures and individuals These new studies focus on the theological exegesis of such thinkers as Mother Teresa Thomas Aquinas Ignatius of Antioch and Clement of Alexandria The collection also includes several important and timely pieces that show how theological interpretation leads to moral formation within diverse cultural groups including African American and Latinx communities Scripture in the Theologies of W. Pannenberg and D.G. Bloesch Frank M. Hasel, 2004-03-01 Scripture has always played an important role in Christian theology This study provides an issue oriented overview of the concepts of Scripture in Protestant theology from the 16th century Reformation onward It then sets forth the concepts of Scripture in the theologies of two contemporary systematic theologians W Pannenberg and D G Bloesch It analyzes compares and evaluates the theological and anthropological presuppositions that have influenced their concept of Scripture Despite fundamentally different starting points and other significant distinctions Pannenberg and Bloesch reveal surprising similarities This seems to suggest that for both the concept of Scripture is determined ultimately by presuppositions that are derived and shaped extra scripturam The Community of the King Howard A. central organization these new secular monastics are attempting in their own ways to carry on the tradition and practices of Christian monasticism As well there is a movement within historical Christian monasteries to pour new wine into old wineskins Traditional forms of monasticism are also generally flourishing in developing nations breathing new life into monasticism This volume looks at the current monastic landscape to assess where monasticism stands and to imagine ways in which it will grow in the future leading not only to a renewed Christian monasticism but to new monasticisms
