West Indies Mission Journal 2008:

West Indies Mission Journal Elder David Cottam, 2015-12-16 This journal contains personal and sensitive information and will only be available on a limited basis to a limited amount of people. If you would like a copy please contact the author directly. If I don't know you, you probably will not be allowed to purchase a copy. Follow a Volunteer Missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in his two-year mission to the West Indies serving in the countries of Guyana, Trinidad, St Maarten, St Vincent, Guadeloupe, and Grenada. Experience the emotions a Missionary of Christ feels as individuals are baptized unto repentance or when he is rejected. This account has been typed by the author from his personal journals as a Missionary with additions to the experiences based on memory. As these journals are personal, please show the utmost respect to the sacred experiences within. Early Capitalism in Colonial Missions Christina Petterson, 2023-12-28 Drawing on unpublished archival material, this volume compares Moravian economic practice in three different mission settings to demonstrate how Moravian practices evolved during the 18th century as part of a globalizing world and economy. Delivering in-depth analysis of the far-reaching and deep-seated effects of missionary activity on indigenous communities and social relations, it explores how different economic contexts had an impact on the missionaries' relations with indigenous and slave populations in empire. Petterson provides an insight into how the missionaries worked, lived among various non-European peoples, and how they organised themselves and their surroundings at a time of changing identities and socio-economic change. Analysing how missionary practice developed over this period, it also demonstrates how the Moravian leadership's priorities and how this affected attitudes to non-European peoples on the ground. Standing outside of national and imperial boundaries and ambivalent about the political notion of imperialism, as well as colonisation itself, Moravian missionaries nonetheless functioned in parallel with colonial structures and were part of a broadly culturally colonial mission. So even on the outskirts of imperial organisation, they were often a crucial part of colonial practice and took part in normalising capitalist relations in many, but not all, settings, as this book demonstrates. Historical Dictionary of The Gambia David Perfect, 2024-09-23 A former British colony, The Gambia became independent in 1965 and has had only three presidents since then. While The Gambia remained a very poor country under its first prime minister and then president from 1970, Sir Dawda Jawara, democratic institutions survived. Multi-party elections were free and fair, and the country's human rights record was excellent. In contrast, there were seriously flawed elections and extensive human rights abuses under first the Armed Forces Provisional Ruling Council and then President Yahya Jammeh. Since Adama Barrow became president in 2017, democratic rule and fair elections have been restored, although many challenges remain. For example, the 2020 Constitution has still not been implemented. This book examines all aspects of recorded Gambian history from the 15th century, when the first European expeditions arrived, to the present. Historical Dictionary of The Gambia Sixth Edition contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 1,000 cross-referenced entries on important personalities.

as well as aspects of the country's politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about The Gambia. The Europa World Year Book 2008 Joanne Maher, 2008-06-24. First published in 2008. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company.

Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History Volume 19. Sub-Saharan Africa and Latin America (1800-1914), 2022-06-20. Christian-Muslim Relations: A Bibliographical History 19, CMR 19, covering Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean in the period 1800-1914, is a further volume in a general history of relations between the two faiths from the 7th century to the early 20th century. It comprises a series of introductory essays and the main body of detailed entries. These treat all the works surviving or lost that have been recorded. They provide biographical details of the authors, descriptions and assessments of the works themselves, and complete accounts of manuscripts, editions, translations, and studies. The result of collaboration between numerous new and leading scholars, CMR 19, along with the other volumes in this series, is intended as a basic tool for research in Christian-Muslim relations. Section Editors: Ines Aeri, Todd Clinton Bennett, Luis F. Bernabé Pons, Jaco Beyers, Emanuele Colombo, Lejla Demiri, Martha Frederiks, David D. Grafton, Stanisław Grodzki, Alan Guenther, Vincenzo Lavenia, Arely Medina, Diego Melo Carrasco, Alain Messaoudi, Gordon Nickel, Claire Norton, Reza Pourjavady, Douglas Pratt, Charles Ramsey, Peter Riddell, Umar Ryad, Cornelia Soldat, Charles Tieszen, Carsten Walbinder, Catherina Wenzel. Walker's Mammals of the World Ronald M. Nowak, 2018-06-15. Walker's vision: the text smoothly combines in-depth scholarship with a popular, readable style to preserve and enhance what the Washington Post called a landmark of zoological literature. Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16. Volume 1A and B covers international organizations throughout the world, comprising their aims, activities, and events. Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T., 2019-01-15. Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella, with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible. In higher education, there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects, especially on the role of music in the political arena. Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences, especially during political campaigns. The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory, national identity, and ethnic politics, and is designed for politicians, campaign managers, political communication scholars, researchers, and students. The Indian Textile Journal, 2009-10. Indian Journal of Marine Sciences, 2009. Roots of Power Michael Sheridan, 2023-04-21. Roots of Power tells five stories of plants, people, property, politics, peace, and protection in tropical societies. In Cameroon, French Polynesia, Papua New Guinea, St. Vincent, and Tanzania, dracaena and cordyline plants are simultaneously property rights institutions, markers of social organization, and expressions of life force and vitality. In addition to their localized roles in forming landscapes and societies, these plants mark multiple boundaries and demonstrate deep historical connections across much of the planet's tropics. These plants' deep roots in society and culture have made them the routes through which postcolonial agrarian societies have negotiated both social and cultural continuity and change. This book is a multi-sited ethnographic political ecology of ethnobotanical institutions. It uses five parallel case studies to investigate the central phenomenon of boundary plants and establish the linkages among the case studies via both ancient and relatively recent demographic transformations such as the Bantu expansion across tropical Africa, the Austronesian expansion into the Pacific, and the colonial system of plantation slavery in the Black Atlantic. Each case study is a social ecological system with distinctive characteristics stemming from the ways that power is organized by kinship and gender, social ranking, or racialized capitalism. This book contributes to the literature on property rights, institutions, and land management by arguing that tropical boundary plants, social entanglements, and cultural legitimacy make them effective foundations for development policy. Formal recognition of these institutions could reduce contradiction, conflict, and ambiguity between resource managers and states in postcolonial societies and contribute to sustainable livelihoods and landscapes. This book will appeal to scholars and students of environmental anthropology, political ecology, ethnobotany, landscape studies, colonial history, and development studies, and readers will benefit from its demonstration of the comparative method.
