by its dreams as has America and perhaps no other dreams have been captured on camera as often and as diversely as America's The mythic American Dream has been the subject of photographic documentation since the 1840s when photographers first began traveling to the New World in search of subjects From an unknown photographer's picture of newborn George B Billings Rego scion of an immigrant Portuguese family and the first child ever born at Boston Long Wharf to Lewis Hine's wrenching image of a young cotton mill worker in Georgia to Alfred Stieglitz's awesome New York cityscapes the photographs collected here reveal the multiple facets of 100 of the most decisive years of American development Between 1840 and 1940 immigrants became homeowners untouched lands exploded in superhuman industrial growth tourists replaced pioneers and the American metropolis grew taller and shinier and the camera caught it all Popular Photography - ND ,1946-07 Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley,2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed Celebrating Two Decades in Photography Grunwald Center for the Graphic Arts,1985 U.S. News & World Report ,1968 A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford,2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience Overland Monthly and The Out West Magazine ,1928 A Century of Japanese Photography Nihon Shashinka Kyōkai,1980 Documentors of the Dream Vivienne Silver-Brody,1998 Over 225 striking black and white
