When Politics Comes Before Patients Shawn Whatley, MD,2020-11-18 How Successive Governments Have Weakened the Foundation of All Canadian s Social and Economic Security At some point you will find yourself lying in a hospital bed There is a good chance that your bed will be a firm rubber pad held secure between two rails and parked along a corridor in a busy emergency department Moans of Nurse will echo from the beds ahead of you in line Those pleas will fall largely on deaf ears Your hospital is underfunded and understaffed Welcome to the current reality of Medicare in the 21st century Using searing analogies and first hand accounts Dr Whatley makes the argument that the current Medicare system is unsustainable and unless critical choices and changes are made soon the publicly funded single payer system in Canada will implode Successive governments regardless of political stripe know all too well that Canada s system of health care is one of the defining characteristics of being a Canadian and any changes deemed harmful will have them thrown out of power Thus decades of cuts around the margins centralized control federal provincial infighting and government oversight has left doctors and hospitals with little input on how your health dollars are allocated and spent Citizens are being left to languish in pain for months sometimes years because the current cost and delivery system is programmed for the benefit of governments staying in power That was not what was intended Medicare should be about delivering high quality and timely healthcare value for Canadians This is not an easy fix Treatment starts with a serious look at the disease and Dr Whatley pulls no punches But what sounds like a radical new approach is neither new nor radical He is not arguing for the end of Medicare per se but is making the case to let medical professionals those providing the services become equal partners in its design implementation and delivery
