What Is God Can Religion Be Modeled:

What Is God? Thomas B. Sheridan, 2014-12-24 An eminent psychologist and engineer presents a provocative analysis of the concept of God through the lens of scientific inquiry This is a study of the concept of God not from the perspective of any religious tradition but as a pervasive social phenomenon that has prevailed through the ages An expert in engineering and applied psychology author Thomas B Sheridan offers unique perspective on the subject In What Is God he asks whether the concept of God can be modeled in denotative language much as modeling in science medicine and modern professions in contrast to connotative language e g myth metaphor art and music Sheridan adopts the assumption of model based reality as currently prevalent in physics and some branches of philosophy That criterion means an entity can be called real for public discourse purposes only to the extent that a credible model can be made of what the entity is or how it works as opposed to the private reality of thoughts perceptions or dreams What follows is a truly provocative and enlightening through experiment with far reaching implications It is rare to see the ultimate question of God as prime mover examined as a problem open to rigorous scientific inquiry Thomas Sheridan has now done it with admirable clarity Edward O Wilson Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Meaning of Human Existence

The Geologic Model of Religion Andrew Clifford, 2012-07-17 Men are haunted by the vastness of eternity The opening line of the film Troy captures the tragic essence of personal mortality ones passing into oblivion and fading from all memory Since the prehistoric dawn of humanity death has shadowed everyone s footsteps Even into the current scientific era religion has long been the only defense The sole comfort against oblivion offering a promise of new life or even immortality The Geologic Model of Religion is a sympathetic study of this defense from its ancient beginnings drawing upon archaeology anthropology and comparative religion to clearly explain one of the most complex subjects known From the study a new model emerges which Decomposes religion into its distinct worldview and afterlife paradigms Categorizes evidence of belief systems held by prehistoric hunter gatherers culminating in the Temples of Rebirth such as Gobekli Tepe Concludes that spirituality began in the Fertile Crescent 11 000 years ago spreading with the Neolithic revolution throughout the world Shows why judgment in afterlife was the keystone in the emerging edifice of civilization and how it enabled hierarchies overcoming Dunbar s number which limited village sizes Overviews the interaction between science and religion and projects the ultimate fate of religion itself There might be 100 000 books written about religion but the Geologic Model of Religion is unlike any other Drawing upon evidence from anthropology archaeology and scripture religion is divided into worldviews and afterlife paradigms This new model evidences several long lost prehistoric religious belief systems and explains the origin of spirituality in settled societies

Does Religion Matter Morally? A. W. Musschenga, 1995 In the dominant view morality is more rational and universal than and therefore independent from christian religion Believers do not have exclusive moral knowledge Moral principles can be known by anyone Morality not religion is the supreme judge of human actions in the world Some contributors to this volume defend this view on theological and philosophical grounds The advantages of such a view for thinking about a common global morality are clear However according to many authors the conception of morality underlying this view is at the least impoverished if not wrong this view cannot explain the importance and the persistence of moral taboos Furthermore every morality is influenced by metaphysical and anthropological assumptions whether or not religious the so called modern rational secular morality The central moral question in the alternative narrative concept of morality is Who am I who do I want to be and not What is the right action In this approach not universal principles but tradition dependant stories constitute the core of a morality Are these concepts more adequate for understanding the relation of religion to morality Do they have room for the project of a universal morality of human rights
