Littleton,1988 Beyond Spiritual Gifts Rick Yohn,1976 Married Without Masks Nancy Groom,1989 We Want for Our Sisters what We Want for Ourselves Patricia Dixon,2009 In We Want for Our Sisters What We Want for Ourselves Dr Patricia Dixon debunks myths about monogamy and polygyny and challenges us to rethink our approach to marriage and family This book reveals that before European domination polygyny was an accepted marriage and family practice in over eighty percent of the world s cultures Even in Western societies polygyny has always been practiced However because it is done so under a myth of monogamy this creates a peculiar form of the practice that is demoralizing to women This peculiar form of polygyny was practiced in early European history in Greece and Rome It was also practiced during slavery in the U S to the detriment of African American women and their families Even in contemporary America because closed polygyny is practiced in various forms under the guise of monogamy it continues to disempower African American women and undermine their marriages and families Dr Dixon offers many reasons to support polygyny most importantly the shortage of available African American men Through extensive interviews she offers an insider s look at polygynous marriages showing readers its benefits and disadvantages inter personal dynamics how financial sexual and parental responsibilities are determined and the legal moral and cultural challenges that must be overcome in order to make polygynous marriage possible within American society Finally she calls for African American women to move toward building marriages and families based on love truth community and ultimately a womanist ethic of care for sisters Book Jacket The Birth Control Review Margaret Sanger,1917
