What Grandmas Cant Do:

What Grandmas Can't Do Douglas Wood,2005-04-01 There are lots of things regular people can do but grandmas can't. Grandmas can't bake your favorite cookies by themselves. And sometimes they can't laugh without tears coming out of their eyes. Grandmas can't let you go to bed without reading you a story or six. But of all the many things grandmas can't do, there's one thing that they can't do best of all: they can't possibly love you more than they already do. A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas,2018-06-21

Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning, readers advisory or collection development, this updated edition of the well-known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze. Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services, and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017, it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically, this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children's picture books, making it both a comprehensive and user-friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians. It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections, to find books on particular topics for young readers, to help teachers locate titles to support lessons, or to design thematic programs and story times. Title and illustrator indexes, in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name, further extend access to titles. Something Musical

Durrow,2025-05-01 The Girl Who Fell from the Sky can actually fly. The New York Times Book Review Rachel, the daughter of a Danish mother and a black G I, becomes the sole survivor of a family tragedy after a fateful morning on their Chicago rooftop. Forced to move to a new city with her strict African American grandmother as her guardian, Rachel is thrust for the first time into a mostly black community where her light brown skin, blue eyes, and beauty bring a constant stream of attention her way. It's there as she grows up and tries to swallow her grief that she comes to understand how the mystery and tragedy of her mother might be connected to her own uncertain identity. This searing and heart-wrenching portrait of a young biracial girl dealing with society's ideas of race and class is the winner of the Bellwether Prize for best fiction manuscript.
