Zinne En Minnebeelden Van De Zeventiende Eeuw:

Zinne- en minnebeelden in de schilderkunst van de zeventiende eeuw E. de Jongh, 1967 Zinne- en minnebeelden in de schiderskunst van de zeventiende eeuw E. De Jongh, 1967 Dutch Seventeenth-century Genre Painting Wayne E. Franits, 2004-01-01 The appealing genre paintings of great seventeenth century Dutch artists Vermeer Steen de Hooch Dou and others have long enjoyed tremendous popularity This comprehensive book explores the evolution of genre painting throughout the Dutch Golden Age beginning in the early 1600s and continuing through the opening years of the next century Wayne Franits a well known scholar of Dutch genre painting offers a wealth of information about these works as well as about seventeenth century Dutch culture its predilections and its prejudices The author approaches genre paintings from a variety of perspectives examining their reception among contemporary audiences and setting the works in their political cultural and economic contexts The works emerge as distinctly conventional images Franits shows as genre artists continually replicated specific styles motifs and a surprisingly restricted number of themes over the course of several generations Luxuriously illustrated and with a full representation of the major artists and the cities where genre painting flourished this book will delight students scholars and general readers alike Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt Boudewijn Bakker, 2017-07-05 Offering a corrective to the common scholarly characterization of seventeenth century Dutch landscape painting as modern realistic and secularized Boudewijn Bakker here explores the long history and purpose of landscape in Netherlandish painting In Bakker s view early Netherlandish as well as seventeenth century Dutch painting can be understood only in the context of the intellectual climate of the day Concentrating on landscape painting as the careful depiction of the visible world Bakker s analysis takes in the thought of figures seldom consulted by traditional art historians such as the fifteenth century philosopher Dionysius the Carthusian the sixteenth century religious reformer John Calvin the geographer Abraham Ortelius and the seventeenth century poet Constantijn Huygens Probing their conception of nature as the first Book of God and art as its representation Bakker identifies a world view that has its roots in the traditional Christian perceptions of God and creation Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt imposes a new layer of interpretation on the richly varied landscapes of the great masters In so doing it adds a new dimension to the insights offered by modern art historical research Further Bakker s explorations of early modern art and literature provide essential background for any student of European intellectual history Vermeer's Wager Ivan Gaskell, 2000-10-01 Vermeer s Wager stands at the intersection of art history and criticism philosophy and museology Using a familiar and celebrated painting by Johannes Vermeer as a case study Ivan Gaskell explores what it might mean to know and use a work of art He arg Strategic Affection? Irma Thoen, 2007 Since the early days of humanity gifts as varied as valued objects hospitality and works of art have been an essential means of establishing and maintaining social ties Strategic Affection studies the exchange of gifts in order to explore the nature of seventeenth century Dutch social relations Looking at such widely divergent figures as schoolmasters artisans poets and nobles Irma Thoen compares seventeenth century Dutch gifts with contemporary gift exchanges to show that both strategy and affection are necessary elements of any social relations and that what changes most is not the system but the discourse of exchange

Tempest and Shipwreck in Dutch and Flemish Art Lawrence Otto Goedde, 1989 This innovative study is the first to analyze systematically an important category of Netherlandish seascape the storm at sea It addresses the fundamental issues of meaning and purpose that such pictures pose for students of Dutch landscape and indeed of all Dutch realism Bringing together a vast body of imagery and texts never before assembled Goedde places this imagery within historical and cultural contexts that permit us to enter into the ideas values and metaphorical associations that such pictures held for seventeenth century viewers He amplifies this iconographic study with a meticulous and subtle analysis of narrative incident and expressive form that while respecting the naturalism of the art reveals its surprisingly conventional and rhetorical character In particular Goedde links the meaning of Dutch tempest paintings with a rhetorical tradition in Dutch literature Through his analysis he is able to offer fresh insights not only into these seascapes but into the interpretation of all pre Romantic landscapes as well This book is addressed at once to specialists in Dutch art and to a broad group of art historians and scholars concerned with cultural history and the relation of literature to art It offers a survey of the tempest in art and literature from antiquity to the modern era in order to define the conventional elements of Dutch painting and writing on this theme An exceptional feature of this study is the author's analysis of the ways conventions encode meaning in both literary and pictorial representations Explicating these conventional structures and themes in terms of the cosmology of correspondences and of elemental love and strife Goedde's discussion both encourages and controls metaphorical interpretation of stormscapes This study also offers an essential historical background to anyone concerned with the picturesque sublimity and Romanticism in eighteenth and nineteenth century culture because of the importance of the themes of storm and shipwreck in the later period
