Wet Op De Justitiele Documentatie En Op De Verklaringen Omtrent Het Gedrag:

Fundamental Rights and Legal Consequences of Criminal Conviction Sonja Meijer, Harry Annison, Ailbhe O'Loughlin, 2019-06-27 The legal position of convicted offenders is complex as are the social consequences that can result from a criminal conviction After they have served their sentences custodial or not convicted offenders often continue to be subject to numerous restrictions in many cases indefinitely due to their criminal conviction In short criminal convictions can have adverse legal consequences that may affect convicted offenders in several aspects of their lives In turn these legal consequences can have broader social consequences Legal consequences are often not formally part of the criminal law but are regulated by different areas of law such as administrative law constitutional law labour law civil law and immigration law For this reason they are often obscured from judges as well as from defendants and their legal representatives in the courtroom The breadth severity and longevity and often hidden nature of these restrictions raises the question of whether offenders fundamental rights are sufficiently protected This book explores the nature and extent of the legal consequences of criminal convictions in Europe Australia and the USA It addresses the following questions What legal consequences can a criminal conviction have How do these consequences affect convicted offenders And how can and should these consequences be limited by law

Towards a European Criminal Record Constantin Stefanou, Helen Xanthaki, 2008-05-22 The success of the four core freedoms of the EU has created fertile ground for transnational organised crime Innovative transnational legal weapons are therefore required by national authorities The availability of data on criminal convictions is at the forefront of the debate But which mechanism for availability can be used effectively while at the same time respecting an increasingly higher level of data protection at national level In the fluid post Reform Treaty environment the EU is moving towards the creation of a European Criminal Record which will ultimately secure availability of criminal data beyond the weaknesses of Mutual Legal Assistance mechanisms Examining the concept of a European Criminal Record in its legal political and data protection dimensions this multidisciplinary study is an indispensable exploration of a major initiative in European Criminal Law which is set to monopolise the debate on EU judicial co operation and enforcement
