What Is Man The Oxford Mark Twain:

What is Man? Mark Twain, 2010 Collection of essays on various topics by the famous creator of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn Originally published in 1906 What is Man? Mark Twain, 1906 A Socratic dialogue between a romantic young idealist and an elderly cynic who debate such issues as whether man is a machine or a free actor whether personal merit is meaningless given how our environment shapes who we are and whether man has any impulse other than pursuing pleasure and avoiding pain Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds short story theories developed by writers print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age The handbook examines historically methodologically and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture Mark Twain and the Spiritual Crisis of His Age Harold K. Bush, 2007-01-07 Mark Twain is often pictured as a severe critic of religious piety shaking his fist at God and mocking the devout This book highlights Twain's attractions to and engagements with the variety of religious phenomena of America in his lifetime It offers a more complicated understanding of Twain and his literary output

The Author-cat Forrest Glen Robinson, 2007 Forrest G Robinson argues that a strong autobiographical impulse infuses the whole of Clemens's fiction He shows how Clemens wrote out of an enduring need to come to terms with his remembered experiences not to memorialize the past but to transform it Clemens's special curse was guilt He was unable to forgive himself for the deaths of those closest to him especially members of his family from his siblings's death in childhood to the deaths of his own children Nor could he reconcile himself to his role in the Civil War his ignominious part in the duel that prompted his departure from Virginia City in 1864 and worst of all his sense of moral complicity in the crimes of slavery Tracing the theme of bad faith in all of Clemens's major writing but with special attention to the late work Robinson sheds new light on a tormented moral life directing attention to what William Dean Howells describes as the depths of a nature whose tragical seriousness broke in the laughter which the unwise took for the whole of him Reading the American Novel 1865 - 1914 G. R. Thompson, 2011-07-28 An indispensable tool for teachers and students of American literature Reading the American Novel 1865 1914 provides a comprehensive introduction to the American novel in the post civil war period Locates American novels and stories within a specific historical and literary context Offers fresh analyses of key selected literary works Addresses a wide audience of academics and non academics in clear accessible prose Demonstrates the changing mentality of 19th century America entering the 20th century Explores the relationship between the intellectual and artistic output of the time and the turbulent socio political context

A Companion to American Fiction, 1865 - 1914 Robert Paul Lamb, G. R. Thompson, 2008-04-15 A Companion to American Fiction 1865 1914 is a groundbreaking collection of essays written by leading critics for a wide audience of scholars students and interested general readers An exceptionally broad ranging and accessible Companion to the study of American fiction of the post civil war period and the early twentieth century Brings together 29 essays by top scholars each of which presents a synthesis of the best research and offers an original perspective Divided into sections on historical traditions and genres contexts and themes and major authors Covers a mixture of canonical and the non canonical themes authors literatures and critical approaches Explores innovative topics such as ecological literature and ecocriticism children s literature and the influence of Darwin on fiction
