What Kind Of Liberation Women And The Occupation Of Iraq:

What Kind of Liberation? Nadje Al-Ali, Nicola Pratt, 2009 Current affairs Historical Dictionary of Iraq Beth K. Dougherty, 2019-06-15 Iraq the land of Hamurabi and Harun al Rashid has played a long and unique role in the history of human civilization The oldest civilization known to humankind evolved on the shores of its twin rivers the Tigris and the Euphrates The great cities of antiquity Uruk Ur Akkad Babylon al Basra Mawsil and Baghdad were major centers of high culture and political power for much of the course of human history This updated edition offers new and expanded coverage of a broad range of political economic security cultural and religious topics including the emergence of a sustained protest movement for reform the war against the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria and the Kurdish independence referendum This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Iraq contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Iraq

The Kurdish Question Revisited Gareth Stansfield, Mohammed Shareef, 2017-08-15 The Kurds once marginal in the study of the Middle East and secondary in its international relations have moved to centre stage in recent years The contributors to The Kurdish Question Revisited offer insights into how this once seemingly intractable immutable phenomenon is being transformed amid the new political realities of the Middle East Women and War in the Middle East Doctor Nicola Pratt, Doctor Nadje Al-Ali, 2013-07-04 Women and War in the Middle East provides a critical examination of the relationship between gender and transnationalism in the context of war peace building and post conflict reconstruction in the Middle East Critically examining the ways in which the actions of various local and transnational groups including women s movements diaspora communities national governments non governmental actors and multilateral bodies interact to both intentionally and inadvertently shape the experiences of women in conflict situations and determine the possibilities for women s participation in peace building and post conflict reconstruction as well as the longer term prospects for peace and security The volume pays particular attention to the ways in which gender roles relations and identities are constructed negotiated and employed within transnational social and political fields in the conflict and post conflict situations and their particular consequences for women Contributions focus on the two countries with the longest experiences of war and conflict in the Middle East and which have been subject to the most prominent international interventions of recent years that is Iraq and the Occupied Palestinian Territories Issues addressed by contributors include the impact of gender mainstreaming measures by international agencies and NGOs upon the ability of women to participate in peace building and post conflict resolution the consequences for gender relations and identities of the US led invasion and occupation of Iraq and how transnational feminist movements can most effectively support peace building and women s rights in the region Based entirely on original empirical research Women and War in the Middle East brings together some of the foremost scholars in the areas of feminist international relations feminist international political economy anthropology sociology history and Middle East studies

The Kurdish Women's Freedom Movement Isabel Käser, 2021-08-26 Amidst ongoing wars and insecurities female fighters politicians and activists of the Kurdish Freedom Movement are building a new political system that centres gender equality Since the Rojava Revolution the international focus has been especially on female fighters a gaze that has often been essentialising and objectifying brushing over a much more complex history of violence and resistance Going beyond Orientalist tropes of the female freedom fighter and the movement's own narrative of the free woman Isabel Käser looks at personal trajectories and everyday processes of becoming a militant in this movement Based on in depth ethnographic research in Turkey and Iraqi Kurdistan with women politicians martyr mothers and female fighters she looks at how norms around gender and sexuality have been rewritten and how new meanings and practices have been assigned to women in the quest for Kurdish self determination Her book complicates prevailing notions of gender and war and creates a more nuanced understanding of the everyday embodied epistemologies of violence conflict and resistance

Iraq's Dysfunctional Democracy David Ghanim Ph.D., 2011-09-12 This book examines Iraq since 2003 and argues that a new democratic Iraq cannot be grounded on destructive politics of victimization narrow nationalism sectarian confessionism and a consensual power sharing political arrangement This book provides an in depth analysis from an Iraqi perspective on the political development in Iraq since 2003 thereby filling a gap that currently exists in the discussion of this embattled nation Within its pages author David Ghanim scrutinizes the many contradictions of the new experience in Iraq and exposes the myth of a new democratic Iraq By providing a unflinching look at the dysfunctional nature of democracy in Iraq the centrality of violence in Iraqi society and politics and the deterioration of the rights and treatment of minorities and women in Iraq Iraq's Dysfunctional Democracy exposes how the New Iraq after the nearly decade long involvement of the United States is becoming a republic of corruption Complex issues such as ethnic federalism ethno sectarian elections politics of victimization deceptive legitimacy and the effects of de Ba'athification are covered in detail serving to illuminate the multilayered obstacles to stabilizing Iraq a country that serves as the linchpin for the security of the Middle East as well as the rest of the world

Agency and Gender in Gaza Aitemad Muhanna, 2016-04-01 Drawing on rich interview material and adopting a life history approach this book examines the agency of women living in insecure and uncertain conflict situations It explores the effects of the Israeli policy of closure against Gaza and the resulting humanitarian crisis in relation to gender relations and gender subjectivity With attention to the changing roles of men in the household and community as a result of the loss of male employment the author explores the extension of poor women's mobility particularly that of young wives with dependent children for whom the meaning of agency has shifted from being providers in the domestic sphere to becoming publicly dependent on humanitarian aid Without conflating women's agency with resistance to patriarchy Agency and Gender in Gaza extends the concept of agency to include its subjective and intersubjective elements shedding light on the recent distortion of the traditional gender order and the reasons for which women resist the masculine power that they have acquired as a result. An empirically grounded examination of the attempt to maintain the meaning of social existence through the preservation of socially constructed images of masculinity and femininity, this book will be of interest to social scientists with interests in gender studies, masculinities and the sociology of the family. International Security and Peacebuilding Abu Bakarr Bah, 2017-01-30. The end of the Cold War was to usher in an era of peace based on flourishing democracies and free market economies worldwide. Instead, new wars, including the war on terrorism, have threatened international, regional and individual security and sparked a major refugee crisis. This volume of essays on international humanitarian interventions focuses on what interests are promoted through these interventions and how efforts to build liberal democracies are carried out in failing states. Focusing on Africa, the Middle East and Europe, an international group of contributors shows that best practices of protection and international state building have not been applied uniformly. Together, the essays provide a theoretical and empirical critique of global liberal governance and, as they note, challenges to regional and international cooperation. They reveal that global liberal governance may threaten fragile governments and endanger human security at all levels. Women's Political Activism in Palestine Sophie Richter-Devroe, 2018-09-19. During the last twenty years, Palestinian women have practiced creative and often informal, everyday forms of political activism. Sophie Richter-Devroe reflects on their struggles to bring about social and political change. Richter-Devroe's ethnographic approach draws from revealing in-depth interviews and participant observation in Palestine. The result is a forceful critique of mainstream conflict resolution methods and the failed woman-to-woman peacebuilding projects so lauded around the world. The liberal faith in dialogue as core of the political and the assumption that women's nurturing nature makes them superior peacemakers collapse in the face of past and ongoing Israeli state violence. Instead, women confront Israeli settler colonialism directly and indirectly in their popular and everyday acts of resistance. Richter-Devroe's analysis zooms in on the intricate dynamics of daily life in Palestine, tracing the emergent politics that women articulate and practice there. In shedding light on contemporary gendered politics from below in the region, the book invites a rethinking of the workings, shapes and boundaries of the political.

Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, Jane E. Sloan, 2011-02-23. This work includes 1000 entries covering the spectrum of defining women in the contemporary world. Women and Genocide Elissa Bemporad, Joyce W. Warren, 2021-12-22. Essays that use gender as a critical lens for staging intersectional multidisciplinary investigations of genocide in the 20th and 21st centuries. Reading Religion. The genocides of modern history: Rwanda, Armenia, Guatemala, the Holocaust and countless others, and their effects have been well documented, but how do the experiences of female victims and perpetrators differ from those of men? In Women and Genocide, human rights advocates and scholars come together to argue that the memory of trauma is gendered and that women's voices and perspectives are key to our understanding of the dynamics that emerge in the context of genocidal violence. The contributors of this volume examine how women consistently are targets for the sexualized violence that serves as an instrument of ethnic cleansing how female perpetrators take advantage of the new power structures and how women are involved in the struggle for justice in post genocidal contexts By placing women at center stage Women and Genocide helps us to better understand the nexus existing between misogyny and violence in societies where genocide erupts It elegantly bridges the historical divide between the study of political violence and the study of gendered violence in the so called domestic sphere Women and Genocide is an immense scholarly accomplishment that has the potential to fund creative advances in each of the scholarly disciplines it engages as well as human rights peace and anti violence programs of advocacy

Reading Religion Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran's Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics Increasingly seen as a global concern human rights are at the fulcrum of the region's on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe

Politics in the Developing World Peter J. Burnell, Lise Rakner, Vicky Randall, 2017 This textbook deals with central political themes and issues in the developing world including globalisation inequality identity religion the military democracy the environment and policy development

Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East Suad Joseph, Zeina Zaatari, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East provides an overview of the key historical social economic political religious and cultural issues which have shaped the conditions and status of women in the region The book is divided into eleven thematic sections providing a comprehensive guide to understanding the current and historical contexts of women in the Middle East each giving ground breaking insights into various aspects of women's movements The importance of historical context including pre Islamic through post colonial histories The importance of politics and the state in understanding women in the ME Women's roles in political and social movements The impacts of the formal and informal economies and education on women of the region

Women's spaces and the creation of publics and counterpublics The effects of war displacement and other forms of gendered violence Women family and the state Discourses and practices of religion Women and health practices Bodies and sexualities Women and sites of cultural production A unique overview of cutting edge research in the key arenas of pre Islamic to post colonial histories this Handbook will affect the way future generations of scholars engage with and add to the vast repository of socio political studies of the Middle East It will thus be of interest to researchers in gender studies women's studies pre Islamic and post colonial studies feminist studies and socio political and socio economic studies

Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa Ghada Talhami, 2013 The overriding theme of this work is that women's struggles human rights myths and literary expression are indispensable to an understanding of the modern culture and socio political development of the Middle East region The work demonstrates that no aspect of Middle Eastern history and modern evolution was shaped in isolation of women's lives and contributions to society The dictionary covers the biographies and written work of prominent historical female figures in the Middle East and North Africa as well as 20th century feminists both male and female who advanced women's rights over many years The Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa includes a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and a dictionary section that has over 400 cross referenced entries on various aspects of Middle Eastern feminism and culture touching upon religious themes such as Sharia laws Islamic marriage divorce and inheritance practices This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the culture and history of women in the Middle East and North Africa

Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph's volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship

The Law on the Use of Force Gina Heathcote, 2013-03 This book analyses international laws on the use of force from a feminist perspective The book highlights key conceptual barriers to the enhanced application of the law of the use of force and demonstrates the capacity of feminist legal theories to enlarge our understanding of international legal dilemmas The Kurdish Women's Movement Dilar Dirik,2022-07-20 One the foremost writers and participants in the Kurdish women s movement Harsha Walia The Kurdish women s movement is at the heart of one of the most exciting revolutionary experiments in the world today Rojava Forged over decades of struggle most recently in the fight against ISIS Rojava embodies a radical commitment to ecology democracy and women s liberation But while striking images of Kurdish women in military fatigues proliferate a true understanding of the women s movement remains elusive Taking apart the superficial and Orientalist frameworks that dominate Dilar Dirik offers instead an empirically rich account of the women s movement in Kurdistan Drawing on original research and ethnographic fieldwork she surveys the movement s historical origins ideological evolution and political practice over the past forty years Going beyond abstract ideas Dirik locates the movement s culture and ideology in its concrete work for women s revolution in the here and now Taking the reader from the guerrilla camps in the mountains to radical women s academies and self organised refugee camps readers around the world can engage with the revolution in Kurdistan both theoretically and practically as a vital touchstone in the wider struggle for a militant anti fascist anti capitalist feminist internationalism Rethinking Gender in Revolutions and Resistance Professor Maha El Said,Doctor Lena Meari,Doctor Nicola Pratt,2015-05-14 Ever since the uprisings that swept the Arab world the role of Arab women in political transformations received unprecedented media attention The copious commentary however has yet to result in any serious study of the gender dynamics of political upheaval Rethinking Gender in Revolutions and Resistance is the first book to analyse the interplay between moments of sociopolitical transformation emerging subjectivities and the different modes of women s agency in forging new gender norms in the Arab world Written by scholars and activists from the countries affected including Palestine Egypt Tunisia and Libya this is an important addition to Middle Eastern gender studies Marine Corps University Journal ,
