What Excellent Community Colleges Do Preparing All Students For Success:

What Excellent Community Colleges Do Joshua S. Wyner, 2019-01-02 In What Excellent Community Colleges Do Joshua S. Wyner draws on the insights and evidence gained in administering the inaugural Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence This book identifies four domains of excellence degree completion equity student learning and labor market success and describes in rich detail the policies and practices that have allowed some community colleges to succeed in these domains By starting with a holistic definition of excellence measuring success against that definition and then identifying practices and policies that align with high levels of student success the author seeks to contribute to the growing body of knowledge about improving student success in community colleges

Student Success in the Community College Terry U. O'Banion, Marguerite M. Culp, 2020-12-15 For much of the twentieth century the definition of success for most community colleges revolved around student retention and graduation This definition no longer works if it ever did In Student Success in the Community College What Really Works respected community college leaders researchers and innovators argue that student success is about redesigning community colleges in a manner that is consistent with each college's mission goals student population and resources Concluding that there is no one size fits all approach to increasing student success chapter authors analyze national state and regional efforts to increase student success identify principles institutions can use to frame student success initiatives and outline specific actions community colleges can take to increase student and institutional success Student Success in the Community College What Really Works also provides concrete examples of effective student success initiatives in a variety of community college settings

Generation X Presidents Leading Community Colleges Martha M. Ellis,Linda Garcia,2017-03-08 The American Association of Community Colleges AACC reports over 900 presidential transitions in the last five years It also estimated that nearly 50% of presidents will retire in the next 5 years The flood of imminent retirements of sitting presidents and other senior leaders from community colleges is widely known As community colleges are facing unprecedented challenges with the exodus of successful presidents Generation X leaders are stepping in to fulfill the vacant leadership positions This book is about them their views on the community college presidency new challenges facing community colleges balancing work and other obligations tapping future rock star leaders and what every president needs to know that was not taught in graduate school

Unrelenting Change, Innovation, and Risk Daniel J. Phelan,2016-04-08 Arguably the nation s community colleges have experienced more change in the last several years than they have over the prior 115 years of their existence Rapid changes in technology external pressures for accountability and student completion aggressive competition from other higher education institutions i e public for profit and private changes in enrollment demographics as well as new economic market and operational models stand to completely disrupt this relatively young enterprise Unrelenting Change provides useful practical examples for community college leaders as they seek to thoughtfully and strategically align their organization for the new dynamic in higher education Furthermore Unrelenting Change offers insights into the change process including institutional assessment and readiness consideration of cultural implications strategic intentions toward innovation as well as risk failure and success Rather than perceiving change and disruptive innovation as merely happenstance or luck the author provides discernment into the topic so as to give community college leaders solid guidance if not improved odds in undertaking this important competitive edge for the future of their intuitions and by extension their students scholars faculty leaders and practitioners in Student Affairs and Higher Education interested in achieving student success at their universities and colleges Momentum Daniel Seymour, 2015-12-07 An era of accountability has swept over the higher education landscape Everyone it seems legislatures think tanks newspapers magazines books and bloggers wants to hold colleges and universities accountable They are attaching strings to budgets producing reports that read like exposés developing clever systems to rank and sort us and writing books and articles that describe the end of college as we know it According to them we need to be reformed reimagined and rebooted Momentum changes the conversation from how others are holding higher education accountable to why colleges and universities need to embrace the need to demonstrate their own responsibility The responsibility paradigm that emerges fundamentally shifts the dialogue from fixing to preventing from reacting to creating from surviving to thriving To implement this new paradigm the dynamics of virtuous cycles are introduced and described These upward spirals build on their own successes and result in growing confidence a sense of vitality and resilience The future of these institutions isn't the result of outside pressure or reformers The future is something that can and should be created by those who take responsibility for it The Costs of Completion Robin G.

Isserles, 2021-12-07 To improve community college success we need to consider the lived realities of students Our nation's community colleges are facing a completion crisis The college going experience of too many students is interrupted lengthening their time to completing a degree or worse causing many to drop out altogether In The Costs of Completion Robin G. Isserles contextualizes this crisis by placing blame on the neoliberal policies that have shaped public community colleges over the past thirty years The disinvestment of state funding she explains has created austerity conditions leading to an overreliance on contingent labor excessive investments in advisement technologies and a push to performance outcomes like retention and graduation rates for measuring student and institutional success The prevailing theory at the root of the community college completion crisis academic momentum suggests that students need to build momentum in their first year by becoming academically integrated thereby increasing their chances of graduating in a timely fashion A host of what Isserles terms innovative disruptions have been implemented as a way to improve on community college completion but because disruptions are primarily driven by degree attainment Isserles argues that they place learning and developing as afterthoughts while ignoring the complex lives that define so many community college students Drawing on more than twenty years of teaching advising and researching largely first generation community college students as well as an analysis of five years of student enrollment patterns college experiences and life narratives Isserles takes pains to center students and their experiences She proposes initiatives created in accordance with a care ethic which strive to not only get students through college quantifying credit accumulation and the like but also enable our most precarious students to flourish in a college environment Ultimately The Costs of Completion offers a deeper more complex understanding of who community college students are why and how they enroll and what higher education institutions can do to better support them

Leading for Tomorrow Pamela L. Eddy, Elizabeth Kirby, 2020-06-19 Using an engaging case study approach Leading for Tomorrow provides new and emerging college and university administrators with real world examples that will help them reflect on their own management and communication styles It also offers practical solutions for how to deal with escalating challenges in the field of higher education from decreasing state funding to political controversies on campus

Human-Centered AI Catherine Régis, Jean-Louis Denis, Maria Luciana Axente, Atsuo Kishimoto, 2024-03-22 Artificial intelligence AI permeates our lives in a growing number of ways Relying solely on traditional technology driven approaches won't suffice to develop and deploy that technology in a way that truly enhances human experience. A new concept is desperately needed to reach that goal. That concept is Human Centered AI (HCAI). With 29 captivating chapters, this book delves deep into the realm of HCAI. In Section I, it demystifies HCAI, exploring cutting edge trends and approaches in its study, including the moral landscape of Large Language Models. Section II looks at how HCAI is viewed in different institutions like the justice system, health system, and higher education, and how it could affect them. It examines how crafting HCAI could lead to better work. Section III offers practical insights and successful strategies to transform HCAI from theory to reality, for example, studying how using regulatory sandboxes could ensure the development of age appropriate AI for kids. Finally, decision makers and practitioners provide invaluable perspectives throughout the book, showcasing the real world significance of its articles beyond academia. Authored by experts from a variety of backgrounds, sectors, disciplines, and countries, this engaging book offers a fascinating exploration of Human Centered AI. Whether you're new to the subject or not, a decision maker, a practitioner, or simply an AI user, this book will help you gain a better understanding of HCAI's impact on our societies and of why and how AI should really be developed and deployed in a human centered future. National Science Foundation Reauthorization United States. Beyond Free College Eileen L. Strempel, Stephen J. Handel, 2021-01-15. Beyond Free College outlines an audacious national agenda consistent with, but far more comprehensive than, the current free college movement that builds on the best of US higher education's populist history, such as the GI Bill and the community college transfer function. The authors align a wide constellation of higher education trends: online learning, prior learning assessment, competency based learning, high school college credit, with a rapidly shifting student transfer environment that privileges college credit as the pivotal educational catalyst to boost access and completion. The book's agenda seeks greater productive investment in postsecondary education by privileging a single metric: lower cost per degree, granted as the animating driver of a transfer pathway that will fulfill the potential of its historical progressive innovators. Beyond Free College's goal is as simple as it is urgent: To galvanize higher education advocates in an effort to reorganize, reorient, and reignite the transfer function to serve the needs of a neotraditional student population that now constitutes the majority of college goers in America, and in ways that advance completion, not just access, to higher education.

The Measure of America, 2010-2011 Kristen Lewis, Sarah Burd-Sharps, 2010-11-01. The Measure of America 2010-2011 is the definitive report on the overall well being of all Americans. How are Americans doing compared to one another and compared to the rest of the world? This important, easy to understand guide will provide all of the essential information on the current state of America. This fully illustrated report, with over 130 color images, is based on the groundbreaking American Human Development Index, which provides a single measure of the well being for all Americans, disaggregated by state and congressional district, as well as by race, gender, and ethnicity. The Index rankings of the 50 states and 435 congressional districts reveal huge disparities in the health education and living standards of different groups For example overall Connecticut ranked first among states on the 2008 2009 Index and Mississippi ranked last suggesting that there is a 30 year gap in human development between the two states Further among congressional districts New York s 14th District in Manhattan ranked first and California s 20th District near Fresno ranked last The average resident of New York s 14th District earned over three times as much as the average resident of California s 20th District lived over four years longer and was ten times as likely to have a college degree The second in the American Human Development Report series the 2010 2011 edition features a completely updated Index new findings on the well being of different racial and ethnic groups from state to state and a closer look at disparities within major metro areas It also shines a spotlight on threats to progress and opportunity for some Americans as well as highlighting tested approaches to fostering resilience among different groups Using a revelatory framework for explaining the very nature of human progress this report can be used not only as a way to measure America but also to build upon past policy successes protect the progress made over the last half century from new risks and create an infrastructure of opportunity that can serve a new generation of Americans Beautifully illustrated with stunning four color graphics that allow for a quick visual understanding of often complex but important issues The Measure of America is essential reading for all Americans especially for social scientists policy makers and pundits who want to understand where Americans stand today The Latino Student's Guide to College Success Leonard A. Valverde, 2012-07-06 This book provides Latino students with a step by step roadmap for navigating the college process from overcoming cultural barriers to attending college to selecting the right school to considering advanced degrees The Latino community is the fastest growing minority group in America and quickly becoming a major player in America s workforce Unfortunately Latinos encounter cultural and societal obstacles that can hinder academic achievement This inspirational guide gives Latino students practical skills for advancing in a college environment The Latino Student s Guide to College Success Second Edition Revised and Updated provides a blueprint for collegiate success The first eight chapters guide students through subjects such as selecting a college navigating the application process forming effective study habits accessing student support services and planning for advanced degrees The second part is comprised of eight inspirational stories by Latino graduates sharing their college experiences Lastly a third section features a listing of colleges with a record of graduating the most Latinos as well as a list of the top ten colleges with the most undergraduate Latino students The revised and updated second edition of this popular book features the latest economic and demographic changes that have emerged since the first edition was published It also includes six new chapters introducing the impact of technological advancements and changes in cultural trends Higher Education in Nepal Krishna Bista, Shyam Sharma, Rosalind Latiner Raby, 2019-08-19 This book presents a showcase of discussions and critical perspectives about Nepalese higher education Its chapters cover topics such as the impacts of local sociopolitical changes and global forces on public and private education emerging online and distance education administrative and intellectual leadership quality assessment graduate employability global mobility of students and the contributions of global diaspora of Nepalese scholars The central questions of the book are What are some of the local and global academic interactions in Nepalese higher education and what are the current challenges and pathways for advancements and improvements How can Nepalese higher education absorb twenty first century values of quality education as external forces while adapting new developments to local needs How can scholars interested in Nepalese South Asian and international higher education create opportunities for scholarship and professional collaboration around research on higher education in this region of South Asia What issues and perspectives can research and scholarship about Nepal s higher education offer to international discourse in higher education The book offers information and resources to international educators interested in the dynamics of Nepalese and by implication South Asian higher education by introducing key challenges in policy and programs innovative changes in curricula effective approaches in technology application and strategies for future integration of global reforms in education

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
