Yam In West Africa Food Money And More:

Yam in West Africa Felix I. Nweke,2016 Yam in West Africa examines a crop that has been sidelined and ignored for too long while being central to the existence of so many and consumed worldwide Though the crop can attract high prices too often its producers live in penury Nweke investigates problems of labor technology and agronomy in the West African yam industry in hopes of bettering the future of the yam and those who produce and eat it Yams Anthony Keith

Thompson,Ibok Oduro,2021-09-20 Dioscorea species commonly known as yams are tuberous plants that constitute a major staple food in many parts of Africa South East Asia Latin America and the South Pacific Yams are cultivated in about 50 mainly tropical countries and the world annual production of edible tubers is around 73 million tonnes This book evaluates the current state of knowledge about yams and how this knowledge affects practices in production cultivation and postharvest technology Dioscorea is a diverse genus in terms of its geographical origin domestication morphology chemistry and breeding Therefore besides concentrating on the dozen or so species that are used as major food crops the book examines species that have limited commercial or domestic value at present but have the potential in future to contribute to the production and utilization of this crop Food and World Culture Linda S. Watts,Kelty Clark-Mahoney,2022-08-23 This book uses food as a lens through which to explore important matters of society and culture In exploring why and how people eat around the globe the text focuses on issues of health conflict struggle contest inequality and power Whether because of its necessity pleasure or ubiquity the world of food and its lore proves endlessly fascinating to most people The story of food is a narrative filled with both human striving and human suffering However many of today s diners are only dimly aware of the human price exacted for that comforting distance from the lived world realities of food justice struggles With attention to food issues ranging from local farming practices to global supply chains this book examines how food s history and geography remain inextricably linked to sociopolitical experiences of trauma connected with globalization such as colonization conquest enslavement and oppression The main text is structured alphabetically around a set of 70 ingredients from almonds to yeast Each ingredient s story is accompanied by recipes Along with the food profiles the encyclopedia features sidebars These are short discussions of topics of interest related to food including automats diners victory gardens and food at world s fairs This project also brings a social justice perspective to its content weighing debates concerning food access equity insecurity and politics Poetry in General Keegan Cook Finberg,2025-11-04 In the second half of the twentieth century poetry leapt out of books and became an interdisciplinary public form Poetry entered bureaucratic systems of organization like index card catalogues it pushed the boundaries of privately owned public parks Keegan Cook Finberg argues that poetry became an increasingly capacious force during this period because it could speak directly to the degradation of the social democratic notion of the public Poetry in General explores how poets expanded their practice into the realms of politics work and everyday life from 1960 to the present from the apex of the welfare state to an era of privatization and austerity It considers a compelling array of figures including Yoko Ono George Brecht Frank O Hara Amiri Baraka Bernadette Mayer Eleanor Antin Adrian Piper and M NourbeSe Philip whose works draw on conceptual techniques to transform official documents and spaces Finberg shows how these public texts expose the mechanisms of the neoliberal consensus about work and leisure the state s facilitation of capitalism and enduring racial and gender inequities She also provides politically charged ways to interpret and critique racial capitalism antiabortion legislation and mass debt A new literary and institutional history of postwar poetics this book shows how poetic experiments address the privatization of collective life and rethink the category of the public Sustainable Production of Root and Tuber Crops Ravinder

Kumar,Milan Kumar Lal,Rahul Kumar Tiwari,Brajesh Singh,2025-06-25 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the latest research and developments in the field of root and tuber crops from a sustainable production and protection perspective With a focus on sustainable production methods the book offers valuable insights and perspectives on how to improve the efficiency and sustainability of root and tuber crop production This is particularly important given the increasing demand for food security and sustainable agriculture practices globally The chapters focus on a wide range of production strategies including soil nutrient dynamics nutrient management fertilizer consumption and cropping systems as well as the use of modern farming techniques and technologies With seed production and supply chains playing critical roles in cash crops like potatoes a staple food in many countries the volume also covers healthy seed planting material low cost technological intervention for quality seed production integrated weed management for local and global perspectives and enhancing the efficiency of small holder farmers in the Global South Finally this book considers the challenges posed by pests and disease management It describes management methods as well as the distribution symptoms and damage biology survival and spread of each pest and also discusses various environmentally friendly pest management strategies such as physical cultural chemical biological host resistance and integrated methods This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sustainable agriculture crop management and plant sciences Root, Tuber and Banana Food System

Innovations Graham Thiele,Michael Friedmann,Hugo Campos,Vivian Polar,Jeffery W. Bentley,2022-04-06 This open access book describes recent innovations in food systems based on root tuber and banana crops in developing countries These innovations respond to many of the challenges facing these vital crops linked to their vegetative seed and bulky and perishable produce The innovations create value food jobs and new sources of income while improving the wellbeing and quality of life of their users Women are often key players in the production processing and marketing of roots tubers and bananas so successful innovation needs to consider gender These crops and their value chains have long been neglected by research and development hence this book contributes to filling in the gap The book features many outcomes of the CGIAR Research Program in Roots Tubers and Banana RTB which operated from 2012 21 encompassing many tropical countries academic and industry partners multiple crops and major initiatives It describes the successful innovation model developed by RTB that brings together diverse partners and organizations to create value for the end users and to generate positive economic and social outcomes RTB has accelerated the scaling of innovations to reach many end users cost effectively Though most of the book s examples and insights are from Africa they can be applied worldwide The book will be useful for decision makers designing policies to scale up agricultural solutions for researchers and extension specialists seeking practical ideas and for scholars of innovation

Commercial Transitions and Abolition in West Africa 1630-1860 Angus E. Dalrymple-Smith,2019-12-09 Commercial Transitions and Abolition in West Africa 1630 1860 offers a fresh perspective on why in the nineteenth century the most important West African states and merchants who traded with Atlantic markets became exporters of commodities instead of exporters of slaves This study takes a long term comparative approach and makes of use of new quantitative data It argues that the timing and nature of the change from slave exports to so called legitimate commerce in the Gold Coast the Bight of Biafra and the Bight of Benin can be predicted by patterns of trade established in previous centuries by a range of African and European actors responding to the changing political and economic environments of the Atlantic world

Foods That Changed History Christopher Cumo, 2015-06-30 Serving students and general readers alike this encyclopedia addresses the myriad and profound ways foods have shaped the world we inhabit from prehistory to the present Written with the needs of students in mind Foods That Changed History How Foods Shaped Civilization from the Ancient World to the Present presents nearly 100 entries on foods that have shaped history fascinating topics that are rarely addressed in detail in traditional history texts In learning about foods and their importance readers will gain valuable insight into other areas such as religious movements literature economics technology and the human condition itself Readers will learn how the potato for example changed lives in drastic ways in northern Europe particularly Ireland and how the potato famine led to the foundation of the science of plant pathology which now affects how scientists and governments consider the dangers of genetic uniformity The entries document how the consumption of tea and spices fostered global exploration and how citrus fruits led to the prevention of scurvy This book helps students acquire fundamental information about the role of foods in shaping world history and it promotes critical thinking about that topic

Slave Owners of West Africa Sandra E. Greene, 2017-05-22 In this groundbreaking book Sandra E Greene explores the lives of three prominent West African slave owners during the age of abolition These first published biographies reveal personal and political accomplishments and concerns economic interests religious beliefs and responses to colonial rule in an attempt to understand why the subjects reacted to the demise of slavery as they did Greene emphasizes the notion that the decisions made by these individuals were deeply influenced by their personalities desires to protect their economic and social status and their insecurities and sympathies for wives friends and other associates Knowing why these individuals and so many others in West Africa made the decisions they did Greene contends is critical to understanding how and why the institution of indigenous slavery continues to influence social relations in West Africa to this day Yam on Export ,
