We Are All Suspects Now Untold Stories From Immigrant Communities After 9 Or 11:

We Are All Suspects Now Tram Nguyen,2005-09-15 In an ironic reversal of the American dream a staggering 20 000 members of the immigrant community of Midwood Brooklyn known as Little Pakistan voluntarily left the United States after 9 11 Tram Nguyen reveals the human cost of the domestic war on terror and examines the impact of post 9 11 policies on people targeted because of immigration status nationality and religion Nguyen s evocative narrative reporting about the families detainees local leaders community advocates and others living on the front lines tells the stories of people who witnessed and experienced firsthand the unjust detainment or deportation of family members friends and neighbors We meet Mohammad Butt who died in detention in New Jersey and the Saleems who flee Queens for Canada We even follow a self proclaimed citizen patroller who monitors and detains immigrants on the U S Mexico border We Are All Suspects Now in the words of Mike Davis takes us inside a dark world where the American Dream is fast turning into a nightmare and suggests proactive responses to stop our growing climate of xenophobia intimidation and discrimination Doing Democracy Nancy S. Love,Mark Mattern,2013-10-28 Doing Democracy examines the potential of the arts and popular culture to extend and deepen the experience of democracy Its contributors address the use of photography cartooning memorials monuments poetry literature music theater festivals and parades to open political spaces awaken critical consciousness engage marginalized groups in political activism and create new more democratic societies This volume demonstrates how ordinary people use the creative and visionary capacity of the arts and popular culture to shape alternative futures It is unique in its insistence that democratic theorists and activists should acknowledge and employ affective as well as rational faculties in the ongoing struggle for democracy Handbook of Race-Ethnicity and Gender in Psychology Marie L. Miville,Angela D. Ferguson,2014-02-06 Multicultural aspects of psychology have received some attention in the literature in the last decade A number of texts currently address these significant concerns for example Counseling the Culturally Different Sue Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Poterotto et l 2009 and Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Competencies Pope Davis Coleman 2005 In their most recent editions several of these books address more nuanced complexities of diversity for example the intersections of gender or social class with race ethnicity Meanwhile other texts have addressed gender issues in psychology Handbook of Counseling Women Counseling Men with some attention paid to racial ethnic and other diversity concerns Clearly the progression of scholarship in this field reflects the importance of incorporating multiple aspects of diversity within psychology However no book currently exists that fully addresses the complexities of race ethnicity and gender together Better understanding of the dual impact of race ethnicity and gender on psychological functioning may lead to more effective conceptualizations of a number of mental health issues such as domestic violence addictions health related behaviors and achievement Exploring the impact of race ethnicity and gender also may provide a broader understanding of self in community as this affects individuals families and other social groups and work and career development Topics of interest may include identity development worldviews and belief systems parenting styles interventions for promoting resilience and persistence and strategies for enhancing more accurate diagnostic and treatment modalities Today s world is comprised of multiple and intersecting communities that remain in need of psychological models and interventions that support and promote both individual and collective mental health We believe that utilizing unidimensional conceptual models e g focusing solely on race ethnicity or gender no longer adequately addresses psychological concerns that are dynamic complex and multi faceted The proposed Handbook will focus on timely topics which historically have been under addressed for a number of diverse populations

Detain and Deport Nancy Hiemstra,2019-03-15 Detention and deportation have become keystones of immigration and border enforcement policies around the world The United States has built a massive immigration enforcement system that detains and deports more people than any other country This system is grounded in the assumptions that national borders are territorially fixed and controllable and that detention and deportation bolster security and deter migration Nancy Hiemstra s multisited ethnographic research pairs investigation of enforcement practices in the United States with an exploration into conditions migrants face in one country of origin Ecuador Detain and Deport s transnational approach reveals how the U S immigration enforcement system s chaotic organization and operation distracts from the mismatch between these assumptions and actual outcomes Hiemstra draws on the experiences of detained and deported migrants as well as their families and communities in Ecuador to show convincingly that instead of deterring migrants and improving national security detention and deportation generate insecurities and forge lasting connections across territorial borders At the same time the system s chaos works to curtail rights and maintain detained migrants on a narrow path to deportation Hiemstra argues that in addition to the racialized ideas of national identity and a fluctuating dependence on immigrant labor that have long propelled U S immigration policies the contemporary emphasis on detention and deportation is fueled by the influence of people and entities that profit from them

Floodlines Jordan Flaherty,2010-08-17 Organizers activists artists and community members share their struggles in New Orleans before and after Hurricane Katrina Floodlines is a firsthand account of community culture and resistance in New Orleans The book weaves the stories of gay rappers Mardi Gras Indians Arab and Latino immigrants public housing residents and grassroots activists in the years before and after Katrina From post Katrina evacuee camps to torture testimony at Angola Prison to organizing with the family members of the Jena Six Floodlines tells the stories behind the headlines from an unforgettable time and place in history Praise for Floodlines This is the most important book I ve read about Katrina and what came after In the tradition of Howard Zinn this could be called The People s History of the Storm Jordan Flaherty was there on the front lines Eve Ensler playwright of The Vagina Monologues activist and founder of V Day Jordan Flaherty brings the sharp analysis and dedication of a seasoned organizer to his writing and insightful observation to his reporting He unfailingly has his ear to the ground in a city that continues to reveal the floodlines of structural racism in America Tram Nguyen author of Islamophobia John L. Esposito,Ibrahim Kalin,2011-03-30 Islamophobia has been on the rise since September 11 as seen in countless cases of discrimination racism hate speeches physical attacks and anti Muslim campaigns This collection of essays takes a multidisciplinary approach to the problem bringing together the expertise and experience of Muslim American and European scholars Contributors discuss and evaluate good practices already in place and offer new methods for dealing with discrimination hatred and racism

revision and update of Nevins earlier classic and is an ideal text for use with undergraduate students in a wide variety of courses on immigration transnational issues and the politics of race inclusion and exclusion Not only has the author brought his subject completely up to date but as a case of increasing economic integration and liberalization along with growing immigration control the US Mexico Border and its history is put in a wider global context of similar developments elsewhere A companion website is available at www.routledge.com/textbooks/9780415996945 The Companion Website contains key US government documents related to the boundary and immigration enforcement strategy reports from non partisan research entities and non governmental organizations that evaluate enforcement from a civil and human rights perspective and studies that investigate migrant deaths in the US Mexico borderlands There are also photo essays including one related to deportations and another to California's Border Field State Park for which the site also includes historic photos and other resources Finally the site has links to websites from US government agencies involved in boundary and immigrant policing to humanitarian and border migrant and human rights organizations health within the past decade This chapter discusses resources and strategies for conducting culturally responsive assessment and treatment with Asian Americans that highlight the theories and knowledge gained since the publication of the previous edition of this Handbook in 2000 The first section on assessment discusses race immigration and culture related factors that affect the phenomenology of distress among Asian Americans The second section on treatment discusses theories and evidence regarding factors that increase therapeutic credibility as well as the recent advances in applying evidence based treatment with Asian Americans

Muslim American City Alisa Perkins, 2020-07-07 Explores how Muslim Americans test the boundaries of American pluralism In 2004 the al Islah Islamic Center in Hamtramck Michigan set off a contentious controversy when it requested permission to use loudspeakers to broadcast the adh n or Islamic call to prayer The issue gained international notoriety when media outlets from around the world flocked to the city to report on what had become a civil battle between religious tolerance and Islamophobic sentiment The Hamtramck council voted unanimously to allow mosques to broadcast the adh n making it one of the few US cities to officially permit it through specific legislation Muslim American City explores how debates over Muslim Americans use of both public and political space have challenged and ultimately reshaped the boundaries of urban belonging Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic research in Hamtramck which boasts one of the largest concentrations of Muslim residents of any American city Alisa Perkins shows how the Muslim American population has grown and asserted itself in public life She explores for example the efforts of Muslim American women to maintain gender norms in neighborhoods mosques and schools as well as Muslim Americans efforts to organize public responses to municipal initiatives Her in depth fieldwork incorporates the perspectives of both Muslims and non Muslims including Polish Catholics African American Protestants and other city residents Drawing particular attention to Muslim American expressions of religious and cultural identity in civil life particularly in response to discrimination and stereotyping Perkins questions the popular assumption that the religiosity of Muslim minorities hinders their capacity for full citizenship in secular societies She shows how Muslims and non Muslims have through their negotiations over the issues over the use of space together invested Muslim practice with new forms of social capital and challenged nationalist and secularist notions of belonging

Casting Out Sherene Razack, 2008-01-05 Three stereotypical figures have come to represent the war on terror the dangerous Muslim man the imperilled Muslim woman and the civilized European Casting Out explores the use of these characterizations in the creation of the myth of the family of democratic Western nations obliged to use political military and legal force to defend itself against a menacing third world population It argues that this myth is promoted to justify the expulsion of Muslims from the political community a process that takes the form of stigmatization surveillance incarceration torture and bombing In this timely and controversial work Sherene H Razack looks at contemporary legal and social responses to Muslims in the West and places them in historical context She explains how race thinking a structure of thought that divides up the world between the deserving and undeserving accustoms us to the idea that the suspension of rights for racialized groups is warranted in the interests of national security She discusses many examples of the institution and implementation of exclusionary and coercive practices including the mistreatment of security detainees the regulation of Muslim populations in the name of protecting Muslim women and prisoner abuse at Abu Ghraib She explores how the denial of a common bond between European people and those of different origins has given rise to the proliferation of literal and figurative camps places or bodies where liberties are suspended and the rule of law does not apply Combining rich theoretical perspectives and extensive research Casting Out makes a major contribution to contemporary debates on race and the war on terror and their implications in areas such as law politics cultural studies feminist and gender studies and race relations Dreamland Carly Goodman,2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism Understanding and Teaching the Vietnam War John Day Tully,Matthew Masur,Brad Austin,2013-10-07 Part One Reflections on Teaching the Vietnam War Part Two Methods and Sources Part Three Understanding and Teaching Specific Content Indefensible Space Michael Sorkin,2013-05-13 Showing how the upswell of paranoia and growing demand for security in the post 9 11 world has paradoxically created widespread insecurity these varied essays examine how this anxiety laden mindset erodes spaces both architectural and personal encroaching on all aspects of everyday life Starting from the most literal level barricades and barriers in front of buildings beefed up border patrols gated communities safe rooms to more abstract levels enhanced surveillance at public spaces such as airports increasing worries about contagion the psychological predilection for fortified space the contributors cover the full gamut of securitized public life that is defining the zeitgeist of twenty first century America forum for inter-american research Vol 2 Wilfried Raussert,2023-07-20 Volume 2 of 6 of the complete premium print version of journal forum for inter american research fiar which is the official electronic journal of the International Association of Inter American Studies IAS fiar was established by the American Studies Program at Bielefeld University in 2008 We foster a dialogic and interdisciplinary approach to the study of the Americas fiar is a peer reviewed
