school curriculum. Theirs was an unexpected friendship she was in elementary school when they met and he was an aging Holocaust survivor whose memoir she had read and together they were going to change the American education system. Alter had spent decades speaking to audiences of all ages and backgrounds about the Holocaust, teaching that never forgetting could help spread tolerance and prevent such an atrocity from happening again. But Claire knew hate crimes were still being committed in her own town and even in her own school. She didn't want Alter's efforts on Holocaust education to be in vain. From strangers to friends to law-changing history makers, Claire and Alter's mission was always simple: Remember this story. This page-turning memoir is a tribute to a man who survived the worst of humanity, an ode to friendship and community, and an empowering call to activism. Praise for Remember My Story: Claire Sarnowski's memoir proves our youth have the power to make positive change happen. Remember My Story is a call to action for all of us to do what we can to promote kindness and compassion in our world. Trudy Ludwig, author of Gifts from the Enemy, Readers will long remember Weiner and his hopeful instruction to be better, not bitter. An inspiring and hopeful story. Kirkus Put this in the hands of young activists.

School Library Journal Fighter in the Woods: The True Story of a Jewish Girl who Joined the Partisans in World War II Joshua M. Greene, 2025-02-04 From award-winning author Joshua M. Greene, The Girl Who Fought Back: Signs of Survival comes this remarkable true story of a Jewish girl in Nazi-occupied Poland who escaped near death to join and fight with the Soviet partisans in the woods. Scholastic Focus is the premier home of thoroughly researched, beautifully written, and thoughtfully designed works of narrative nonfiction aimed at middle grade and young adult readers. These books help readers learn about the world in which they live and develop their critical thinking skills so that they may become dynamic citizens who are able to analyze and understand our past, participate in essential discussions about our present, and work to grow and build our future. The year was 1941 and Nazi Germany was bombing Poland. Celia Kassow, a young Jewish girl, knew she was in danger of being seized by the Nazis, so she ran to seek shelter at a Polish classmate's house. The classmate's response: "Get away from here, you dirty Jew." Celia and her family, like all the Jewish families in their town, were then imprisoned in a Nazi ghetto, facing daily starvation and torture. Most of Celia's family was murdered there, but a different Polish classmate of Celia's, a boy who had a crush on her, helped Celia escape to his family's farm and eventually into the woods to join the Soviet partisans. The partisans were resistance fighters who gathered in secret during WWII to fight back against the Axis powers by attacking German garrisons and blowing up trains. When Celia joined them, the other partisans, mostly young men, wanted to put her on kitchen duty, but Celia refused and asked to be put on patrol. She was given a horse, ammunition, and an assignment. Celia survived the war, fighting with the partisans. After the war, she would go on to get married, have children, and immigrate to the United States, where she lived out her days assisting other immigrants and raising her family. Her true story, based on first-person testimony and vetted by Celia's son, is one of incredible bravery and grit in the face of unimaginable evil.
