Weary Throats And New Songs:

Weary Throats and New Songs Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2003 Teresa Frye Brown's music ministry forms a background for her application of music as a metaphor to the preaching moment. In this book she interviews numerous preaching sisters and uses categories from her homiletics courses to structure the data that she found in the interviews. The result is a helpful Black Women's Commentary on the homiletic process. The first couple of chapters provide information on ordination and call that every male minister of the Gospel should keep in mind. It is a review of the gender barrier to ordination. Interestingly enough, this aspect of the book also demonstrated the resolve of our sisters to find ways and means to preach the gospel irregardless of these barriers. While we should never accept discrimination in any form, I did find the list of venues for women's in ministry to be a very helpful way to see other possible ways to minister apart from the pulpit in the church that all ministers male and female should look at. Our sisters have shown us the way to greater ministry. After call and ordination, Brown moves to a discussion of Biblical exegesis themes and structures for sermons by Black women. I found that this section demonstrated that while some women have a tendency towards preaching actively for liberation of women, most of the themes such as purpose, hope, and liberation of the poor hold much in common with the Black male preacher. Song in a Weary Throat Pauli Murray, 1987 Autobiography of an American woman, a pioneer civil rights activist and feminist. Granddaughter of a slave and great granddaughter of a slave owner growing up in the colored section of Durham, North Carolina in the early 20th century, she rebelled against the segregation that was an accepted fact of life in the South.

Becoming Human Luke A. Powery, 2022-11-01 Discussions of racial difference always embody a story. The dominant story told in our society about race has many components, but two stand out: 1. racial difference is an essential characteristic fully determining individual and group identity, and 2. racial difference means that some bodies are less human than others. The church knows another story, says Luke Powery, if it would remember it. That story says that the diversity of human bodies is one of the gifts of the Spirit. That story's decisive chapter comes at Pentecost when the Spirit embraces all bodies, all flesh, all tongues. In that story, different kinds of materiality and embodiment are strengths to be celebrated rather than inconvenient facts to be ignored or feared. In this book, Powery urges the church to live up to the inclusive story of Pentecost in its life of worship and ministry. He reviews ways that a theology and practice of preaching can more fully exemplify the diversity of gifts God gives to the church. He concludes by entering into a conversation with the work of Howard Thurman on doing ministry to and with humanity in the light of the work of the Spirit.

Spirit Speech Dr. Luke A. Powery, 2010-10-01 That the Holy Spirit is present in preaching is something we take for granted. How the Spirit is present is a question we seldom ask. Luke Powery suggests that we fail to ask that question to the detriment of our preaching. Drawing on the tradition of African American preaching, he locates the Spirit's activity in the sermon in two primary places. First, in celebration, the joyous acceptance of God's gifts to the church and to the world. But equally as powerful is the expression of lament, the lifting up of our sorrow grief and suffering In these two experiences the Spirit plays the decisive role enabling the preacher to lay the congregation's joys and sorrows at the feet of the living God and announcing God's presence in both our celebration and our lament

Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A. Cahalan, Gordon S. Mikoski, 2014-04-10 Opening the Field of Practical Theology introduces students to practical theology through an examination of fifteen different approaches ranging from feminist to liberationist Roman Catholic to evangelical Asian American to Latino a After an introduction to the field of practical theology and its broad range of practice today the book features chapters written by leading experts in the discipline Each chapter has an identical structure to facilitate comparison covering historical context key features and figures norms and sources of authority theory practice contexts interdisciplinary considerations areas of current and future research and suggested readings Opening the Field of Practical Theology is an ideal introduction to the field highlighting the diverse ways practical theology is engaged today

Deeper Shades of Purple Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2006-08 Womanist approaches to the study of religion and society have contributed much to our understanding of Black religious life activism and women's liberation This volume explores the achievements of this movement and evaluates some of the leading voices and different perspectives within this field

Delivering the Sermon Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2008-10-01 In Delivering the Sermon Teresa Fry Brown introduces preachers to the effective use of voice and body in the animation of the word in the preaching moment Combining the latest research in communications speech pathology and homiletics with her own experience as a speech language pathologist Fry Brown creatively empowers preachers to improve their effectiveness in proclamation Practical suggestions and exercises for enhancing voice diction and nonverbal engagement of the listener useable by groups or individuals are included in each chapter

Postcolonial Politics and Theology Kwok Pui-lan, 2021-12-07 Postcolonial Politics and Theology seeks to reform and reimagine the field of political theology uprooting it from the colonial soil using the comparative lenses of postcolonial politics and theology to bring attention to the realities of the Global South Kwok Pui lan traces the history of the political impacts of Western theological development especially developments in the U S context and the need to shift these interlocking fields toward non Western traditions in theory and practice A special focus of the book is on the changing sociopolitical realities of American Empire and Sino American competition illustrated in Donald Trump's slogan of Make America Great Again and Xi Jinping's hope for a China Dream The shifting of U S and Asian relationships highlights the need to move our theological and political categories away from a vision of strongman domination and toward a postmodern postcolonial and transnational world especially exemplified in the Asia Pacific context Throughout Kwok overturns the idea of centering one cultural framework and marginalizing others in favor of living into a multiplicity of deeply contextual theologies She explores how these theologies are being developed in global postcolonial contexts through struggles for democracy and civil disobedience in Hong Kong by efforts to reclaim selfhood and sexual identity from exploitative colonial desire through the work of interreligious solidarity and peacebuilding and in the practice of earth care in the face of ecological crisis Preaching about Racism Carolyn B. Helsel, 2018-12-04 Equipping pastors to address racism faithfully from the pulpit Of all the activities that come with being a minister sermon preparation can loom largest especially when racism is the subject You've got to address racism with your white congregation from the pulpit But truthfully you can't wrap your head around how to preach about this topic thoughtfully and sensitively In Preaching about Racism preaching professor and pastor Carolyn Helsel speaks directly to other faith leaders about how to address racism from the pulpit In her first book Anxious to Talk about It: Helping White Christians Talk Faithfully about Racism Helsel addressed the anxiety white Christians experience around conversations about race In this follow up Helsel provides strategies and a theoretical framework for crafting biblical and theological sermons that incorporate insights from social sciences and psychology gleaned from more than a decade of writing and teaching about racism Written for the busy pastor several chapters are quick reads helpful reminders as you prepare a thoughtful and sensitive sermon while others dig deeper on the theory behind the crucial work of dismantling racism From Pew to Pulpit Clifton F. Guthrie, 2010-11-01 A down to earth practical introduction to the ins and outs of preaching for lay preachers bivocational pastors and others newly arrived in the pulpit Recent years have seen a considerable increase in the amount of financial resources required to support a full time pastor in the local congregation In addition large numbers of full time seminary trained clergy are retiring without commensurate numbers of new clergy able to take their place As a result of these trends a large number of lay preachers and bivocational pastors have assumed the principal responsibility for filling the pulpit week by week in local churches Most of these individuals observes Clifton Guthrie can draw on a wealth of life experiences as well as strong intuitive skills in knowing what makes a good sermon having listened to them much of their lives What they often don't bring to the pulpit however is specific detailed instruction in the how to's of preaching That is precisely what this brief practical guide to preaching has to offer Written with the needs of those for whom preaching is not their sole or primary occupation in mind it begins by emphasizing what every preacher brings to the pulpit an idea of what makes a sermon particularly moving or memorable to them From there the book moves into short chapters on choosing an appropriate biblical text or sermon topic learning how to listen to one's first impressions of what a text means moving from text or topic to the sermon itself while keeping the listeners needs firmly in mind making thorough and engaging use of stories in the sermon and delivering with passion and conviction The book concludes with helpful suggestions for resources including Bibles commentaries other print resources and websites Can a Sistah Get a Little Help? Teresa L Fry Brown, 2008-04-01 Can a Sistah Get a Little Help Encouragement for Black Women in Ministry focuses on how Black women can faithfully continue to navigate the internal and external challenges of ministry Drawing from experiences throughout her twenty two years in ordained ministry and as a seminary professor Teresa L Fry Brown asserts she has learned that with a set of cultural coping mechanisms and values African American women can not only survive but thrive as leaders and mentors in spite of the brick ceiling These coping mechanisms and values include survival skills network and support systems a work ethic mentors and sponsors a sense of self worth and self confidence spiritual values a balance in life a leadership style and acultural identity In preparation for the book Brown spoke with approximately 200 ordained and 450 laywomen in ministry about the issues most relevant to them Here in the form of remembrances vignettes and discussions and interwoven with common concerns raised by these women she shares the lessons learned and to be learned during a journey to self empowerment in ministry Preaching Words John S. McClure,2007-01-02 John McClure s Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today s preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore,2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life Questions Preachers Ask Scott Black Johnston,Ted A. Smith,Leonora Tubbs Tisdale,2016-10-01 How do we preach in a way that affirms Christian theology while also honoring the insights of other faith traditions How do we preach about and help create genuine Christian community in a social networking culture Questions Preachers Ask examines many questions that are on the minds of preachers today questions that focus on how to preach the gospel in a culture where biblical knowledge cannot be presumed and where the Bible is often viewed as untrustworthy Well known preachers scholars and authors including Barbara Brown Taylor Gail O Day Anna Carter Florence Richard Lischer and Thomas Lynch provide the answers This book compiled to honor writer preacher teacher and scholar Thomas G Long at the end of his teaching career addresses practical questions such as How do we proclaim the good news to young adults who are on the margins of church or have left it and How do we preach to faith communities that are highly diverse Perfect for preachers at any stage of their ministry these essays offer hope and guidance for handling the difficult task of preaching in today s congregations Hear and Be Wise Alyce M. McKenzie,2010-09-01 Empowers the preacher to understand the role of wise leader to which he or she has been called and to claim that role with conviction and joy Pastors are called to an exciting ministry of proclamation and leadership That excitement however often turns to demoralization and burnout as pastors become increasingly uncertain of what their role is supposed to be Competing claims by the congregation the denomination and society about who and what the pastor is supposed to be breed confusion and disappointment Are they primarily managers Therapists Fundraisers A way out of this confusion lies in reclaiming the biblical understanding of who the pastor is One of the biblical roles within the pastoral vocation that often goes neglected is that of wise teacher or sage Scripture presents as a model of pastoral leadership those who interpret the word and will of God for daily living Especially in their preaching pastors are called to help the congregation understand their place in God's world In this book Alyce McKenzie lays out the four qualities of the wise teacher the bended knee the listening heart the cool head and the courageous voice and encourages pastors to make each of these integral to their ministry and vocation She goes on to demonstrate that the sermon is the prime opportunity to function in the role of wise teacher She offers strategies for applying biblical wisdom to all areas of everyday life The strategies include 1 Preaching that is as sensory as life is using imagery metaphor simile and story to connect with people's emotions as well as their intellect 2 Preaching that uses first person experiences without being narcissistic 3 Preaching that teaches without boring 4 Preaching on public often controversial issues that minimizes defensiveness and maximizes dialogue

Embodied Hope Veronice Miles, 2021-12-29

Embodied Hope explores implications of an embodied theology of hope for preachers' ability to nurture imaginative abundance and purposeful hope filled action in the most chaotic of times Embodied hope is grounded in a theological anthropology that foregrounds humanity's inherent identity as imago Dei and capacity to live as a nondistorting nondestructive reflection of God's presence in the earth The conceptual metaphor embodied Hope represents that which creates within each of us yearning for wholeness and well being the always speaking voice of God's Spirit assuring us of God's power faithfulness and redemptive presence and calling us toward loving just and restorative action in our world today Humans possess the capacity to imagine and live toward a qualitatively better state of existence for all creation but overwhelmed by the despairing realities of life we often feel despondent and drained of imaginative potential Preaching amplifies the voice of Hope bearing witness and inviting us to imagine the possibility and efficacy of a new reality grounded in Jesus's gospel proclamation Embodied Hope invites us to stand at the intersection of Hope and despair as we explore the contours and possibilities of living with Hope in times such as the present

Preaching that Confronts Confederate Monuments David M. Stark, 2025-10-30 Confederate monuments preach at times subtly at other times overtly about who we are who God is and how we should live together David M Stark looks at the way many Confederate monuments provided ongoing opportunities for commemorative speeches and ceremonies that would entrench racist and white supremacist ideologies in the American South Stark examines key speeches and proclamations given around monuments to the Lost Cause such as Julian Carr's Silent Sam speech 1913 and Archer Anderson's speech at the dedication of a monument to Robert E Lee 1890 reading these as theological and homiletic moments Stark then moves on to construct a homiletic that can confront such monuments and the racist preaching ideologies around them In developing this counter homiletic Stark analyzes the preaching strategies written into Confederate monuments and highlights best practices from recent counter proclamations that deconstruct the troubling rhetoric and theology of Confederate monument dedication speeches Finally Stark presents insights from naming commission reports and clergy interviews about the values mission and leadership needed to work for ongoing change

The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenyatta R.

Gilbert,2011-04-01 The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching is a constructive effort to examine the historical contributions of African American preaching the challenges it faces today and how it might become a renewed source of healing and strength for at risk communities and churches from publisher description What's Worship Got to Do with It?

Claudio Carvalhaes,2018-11-09 This book connects the living realms of the church the self the neighbor and the world It envisions our daily local and global life from liturgical spaces places where Christians worship God Through these relations we can connect worship with economy preaching with raising a village baptism with forms of citizenship ecology and the market Easter with immigration liturgical knees with colonization spirituality with minority voices all uttering prayers that name racism poverty and a liberation theology of glory In these pages Claudio Carvalhaes issues a call to the churches to move from captive and colonized spaces into where the Spirit lives among the poor the needy the forgotten With a variety of relations between the Christian faith and our cultural ways of living Carvalhaes offers new liturgical and theological imaginings to be engaged with the most vulnerable in our societies and the earth A creative liturgical theology of liberation that makes sense of God between the world and the table altar between the pulpit and local communities the worship space and our multiple lived experiences For liturgy is an endless song of liberation This book is a call to life

Introduction to the Practice of African American Preaching Frank A. Thomas,2016-11-15

The Introduction to African American Preaching is an important groundbreaking book This book acknowledges African American preaching as an academic discipline and invites all students and preachers into a scholarly dynamic and useful exploration of the topic Author Frank Thomas opens with a bus tour study of African American preaching He shows how African American preaching has gradually moved from an almost exclusively oral to an oral written tradition Readers will gain insight into the history of the study of the African American preaching tradition and catch the author's enthusiasm for it Next Thomas traces the relationship between homiletics and rhetoric in Western preaching demonstrating how African American preaching is inherently theological and rhetorical He then explores the question what is black preaching Thomas introduces the reader to methods of close reading and ideological criticism And then demonstrates how to use these methods using a sermon by Gardner Calvin Taylor as his example The next chapter considers the question what is excellence in black preaching The next chapter seeks to create bridges and dialogue within the field of homiletics and in particular the Euro American homiletic tradition The goal of this chapter is to clearly demonstrate connections between the African American preaching tradition and the field of homiletics Thomas next turns to questions about the relevancy of the church to the Millennial generation Specifically how will the African American church remain relevant to this generation which is so deeply concerned with social justice
