Mapping British Women Writers' Urban Imaginaries Arina Cirstea, 2016-01-13 This study provides an alternative to the postmodern tradition of writing about the city by exploring spatialized constructions of gender and spiritual identity through an integrative framework based on insights from Bachelard's topoanalysis, psychogeography, feminist cultural theory, and comparative literature and religion. Writing, Reading, and Understanding in Modern Health Sciences Milos

Jenicek, 2017-07-27 Medical articles are one of the main vehicles of knowledge translation and evidence communication in the health sciences. Their correct structure and style alone are no longer enough to convey a clear understanding of the intended message. Readers must be able to understand the very essence of the article message. That is the purpose of this book. Writing, Reading, and Understanding in Modern Health Sciences: Medical Articles and Other Forms of Communication will help the authors of medical articles communicate more effectively in today's practice and health research environment. It explores the most effective practices for communicating using three main medical literature formats: through scientific articles, articles where the subject is not based on the practice of the scientific method, and business reports. Describing how to think beyond the prevailing IMRAD article format, this book focuses on the nature, content, domains of thought, and meanings of medical articles. The ideas and underlying propositions in this book are complementary to specific requirements appropriate for each type of medical journal. After reading this book, you will better understand how to write what is considered the most important type of medical article: the research-based medical article. How to write an evidence-based argumentative medical article. The challenges of clinical case reporting. The general framework of medical and research ethics. Classification of medical articles and their underlying studies from the causal standpoint. Supplying you with the understanding required to write more effective medical articles, the book includes details about essay-type articles, research-based articles, thesis as introduction sections, definitions as part of the material and methods sections, modern argumentation and critical thinking, underlying results and their discussion, and conclusions about them. Margaret Atwood: Crime

Fiction Writer Jackie Shead, 2016-05-13 Exploring how Margaret Atwood's fiction reimagines the figure of the detective and the nature of crime, Jackie Shead shows how the author radically reworks the crime fiction genre. Shead focuses on Surfacing, Bodily Harm, Alias Grace, The Blind Assassin, Oryx and Crake, and selected short fiction, showing the ways in which Atwood's protagonists are confronted by their own collusion in hegemonic assumptions and thus are motivated to investigate and expose crimes of gender, class, and colonialism. Shead begins with a discussion of how Atwood's treatment of crime fiction's generic elements, particularly those of the whodunit, clue puzzle, and spy thriller, departs from convention. Through discussion of Atwood's metafictional strategies, Shead also examines Atwood's techniques for activating her readers as investigators who are offered an educative process parallel to that experienced by some of the author's protagonists. This book also marks a significant intervention in an ongoing debate among Atwood critics that pits the author's postmodernism against her ethical and humanistic concerns      The Myth of Persephone in Girls' Fantasy Literature Holly Blackford, 2012-04-23 This book explores the myth of Persephone and Demeter as it informs the development of a long discourse about civilization the development of children child psychology and fantasy literature The pattern in the myth of girls who descend into underworlds and negotiate a partial return to the earth is a marked feature of girls literature and the cycle also reflects the change of seasons and fertility death Tracing the parallel between the myth and girls literature enables an understanding of how female development is mourned but deemed necessary for the reproduction of culture Blackford looks at the function of toys in children s literature as a representation of the myth s narcissus combining this approach with classic interpretations of the myth as expressive of female psychology mother daughter object relations hieros gamos fertility coupling rituals transition from matriarchal to patriarchal order and excursions into the creative artistic unconscious The story of Persephone s separation from her mother and abduction into the underworld is explored as an expression of ambivalence about female development in works such as Hoffmann s Nutcracker and Mouse King Alcott s Little Women Bront s Wuthering Heights Barrie s Peter and Wendy Burnett s The Secret Garden White s Charlotte s Web Rowling s Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets Meyer s Twilight and Gaiman s Coraline With this book Blackford offers a consideration of how literature for the young squares with broader canons how classics flexibly and uniquely speak through novels that enjoy broad appeal and how female traditions are embedded in novels by both men and women      Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy s Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives      Handbook of Research on Web 2.0 and Second Language Learning Thomas, Michael, 2009-01-31 This book investigates how those involved in education can respond to the opportunities offered by the Web 2 0 technology Provided by publisher      Critical Essays on Resistance in Education David M. Moss, Terry A. Osborn, 2010 It is possible to say that resistance in education has always been resisted the point of course is who is doing the resisting Why they are resisting what they are resisting and whose interests are being served by these acts of resistance David M Moss and Terry A Osborn s provocative collection of essays on educational resistance gives new scope and meaning to the term resistance in the context of today s challenges to and on behalf of social justice education It is an important contribution to the field of critical education Peter McLaren Graduate School of Education and Information Studies University of California Los Angeles Book Jacket      Confronting Visuality in Multi-Ethnic

Women's Writing A. Laflen, 2014-08-07 Considering new perspectives on writers such as Toni Morrison Margaret Atwood and Louise Erdrich Confronting Visuality in Multi ethnic Women s Writing traces a cross cultural tradition in which contemporary female writers situate images of women within larger contexts of visuality Real Life Writings in American Literary Journalism: a Narratological Study Gurpreet Kaur, 2015-07-24 This referential collection of essays is an important guide to the emergence and development of literary journalism through the centuries The book begins with the defining of genres literature and journalism which blur the lines between them It also gives an insight into the theories of narratology Some practitioners included in this book are great American writers like John Hersey Truman Capote Norman Mailer and Don DeLillo These literary journalists bring to life both major as well trivial issues of the society New journalists coalesce all the fictional techniques with the journalistic methods to present a unique and sophisticated style which requires extensive research and even more careful reporting than done in the typical news articles The book closes with the concluding thoughts followed by list of works cited Masculinity in Breaking Bad Bridget Roussell Cowlshaw, 2015-03-14 Following on author Peter Rollins motto If it isn't popular it isn't culture this collection of new essays considers Vince Gilligan's award winning television series Breaking Bad as a landmark of Western culture comparable to the works of Shakespeare and Dickens in their time that merits scholarly attention from those who would understand early the 21st century zeitgeist The essayists explore the series as a critique of American concepts of masculinity with Walter White discussed as a father archetype provider protector author of a legacy and as a Machiavellian warrior on the capitalist battleground Other topics include the mutual exclusivity of intellect and masculinity in American culture and the dramatic irony as White's rationales for his criminal life are gradually revealed as a lie In round table chapters contributors discuss the show's reception fans who root for Team Walt Skyler hating and Breaking Bad as a feminist text The Adaptation of History Laurence Raw, Defne Ersin Tutan, 2012-11-26 This collection of essays asks the question What is history and considers how history is shaped in different socioeconomic contexts The writers take a transdisciplinary approach in the belief that everyone who deals with history including professional historians novelists and poets constructs narratives of the past to make sense of the present as well as to determine their future courses of action With contributions from a variety of specialists in media studies literature history and anthropology this book breaks new ground in adaptation studies Confronting Animal Exploitation Kim Socha, Sarah Jane Blum, 2013-02-06 As animal exploitation increases animal liberation issues are of growing concern as seen through the rise of veganism academic disciplines devoted to animal issues and mainstream critiques of factory farms Yet as the dialogues debates and books continue to grow the voices of street level activists not academics journalists or vegan chefs are rarely heard This volume broadens animal liberation dialogues by offering the arguments challenges inspiration and narratives of grassroots activists The essays show what animal advocacy looks like from a collective of individuals living in and around Minnesota's Twin Cities the essayists however write of issues both personal and political that resound on a global scale This collection provides a platform for rank and file activists to explain why and how they dedicate their time and what is being done for animals on a local level that can translate to global efforts to end animal exploitation New Black and African Writing: Volume 2 Smith, Charles, Emezue, GMT, 2015-10-07 NEW BLACK AND AFRICAN WRITING Vol 2 is our concluding edition of a series that has featured many critical entries and reviews on canonical African fiction poetry drama and non fiction This second edition explores intricacies of relationships and associations the recurrent tropes for the interpretation and understanding of historical connections and the shaping of thought brought into fictional and cultural renditions that are evolving and continually reassessed although around the periphery of older canons The quest for a meaningful heuristic for approaching contemporary arts is almost totally redefined by the contributions of eminent scholars of our time whose balancing and correspondence create room for complementarity of values and toward cultural understanding and value appreciation in contemporary society Critical Essays on Barack Obama Melvin B. Rahming, 2011-12-15 This collection of critical essays explores the life and writings of President Barack Obama The individual essays written by a diverse body of scholars examine specific facets of Obama's career from personal communal national and international reactions to his presidential election to his controversial contributions to the global conversation about race his impact on popular culture and race relations his literary political and philosophical visions his attitude toward the American constitution his enactment of new legislation to the manner in which he attempts to influence American public policy and to the implications his presidency holds for Europe Africa and the Caribbean Ranging far beyond the presentation of personal opinions about the Obama Administration these essays offer scholarly perspectives on Obama's two books and on his multidimensional efforts to remove the obstacles to equality of opportunity in the United States They also explore Obama's potential for re-shaping the American social and cultural terrain and by extension for re-vitalizing the American Dream This book should be of interest to scholars of political science literature history philosophy religion and psycho-culture as well as to the general reading public Between Form and Faith Martyn Sampson, 2021-08-03 What is a Catholic novel This book analyzes the fiction of Graham Greene in a radically new manner considering in depth its form and content which rest on the oppositions between secularism and religion Sampson challenges these distinctions arguing that Greene has a dramatic contribution to add to their methodological premises Chapters on Greene's four Catholic novels and two of his post-Catholic novels are complemented by fresh insight into the critical importance of his nonfiction The study paints an image of an inviting yet beguilingly complex literary figure Monstrous Nature Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2016 Godzilla a traditional natural monster and representation of cinema's subgenre of natural attack also provides a cautionary symbol of the dangerous consequences of mistreating the natural world monstrous nature on the attack Horror films such as Godzilla invite an exploration of the complexities of a monstrous nature that humanity both creates and embodies Robin L. Murray and Joseph K. Heumann demonstrate how the horror film and its offshoots can often be understood in relation to a monstrous nature that has evolved either deliberately or by accident and that generates fear in humanity as both character and audience This connection between fear and the natural world opens up possibilities for ecocritical readings often missing from research on monstrous nature the environment and the horror film Organized in relation to four recurring environmental themes in films that construct nature as a monster anthropomorphism human ecology evolution and gendered landscapes the authors apply ecocritical perspectives to reveal the multiple ways nature is constructed as monstrous or in which the natural world itself constructs monsters This interdisciplinary approach to film studies fuses cultural theological and scientific critiques to explore when and why nature becomes monstrous Teaching Australian and New Zealand Literature Nicholas Birns, Nicole Moore, Sarah Shieff, 2017-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching Australian and New Zealand literature in college and discusses the history of the two countries Maori and Aboriginal texts colonialism gender landscapes violence indigenous aesthetics ethics and crime fiction Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Real Essays with Readings with 2009 MLA Update Susan Anker, 2009-06-23 Click here to find out more about the 2009 MLA Updates and the 2010 APA Updates Real Essays with Readings is the essay level book in Susan Anker's highly successful series of writing texts that motivate students with their message that writing is an essential skill in college and in real life and that this skill is achievable Anker's advice examples and assignments show the relevance of writing to all aspects of students lives and profiles of former students prove that success is attainable Like all the books in the Anker series Real Essays presents writing in logical manageable increments step by step writing guides and a focus on the four basics of each mode of writing keep students from becoming overwhelmed Real Essays maintains its emphasis on what really matters by focusing on the four most serious errors fragments run ons subject verb agreement problems and verb form problems Real Essays gives students what they need to succeed in college and become stronger academic writers Informational Environments Jürgen Buder, Friedrich W.
