Blackwood, 2000-01-12 Webs of Power offers a fresh perspective on women in Southeast Asia Focusing on one rural Minangkabau village the book provides vital insights into the gendered processes of post coloniality The Minangkabau living in West Sumatra are the largest matrilineal group in the world They have intrigued generations of scholars because they are matrilineal and Islamic By exploring the contestations and accommodations women and men make with state and Islamic ideologies Webs of Power discloses the processes at the heart of globalization as well as the complexities of kinship and power in a rural agricultural community The book challenges conventional thinking about matrilineality showing the prominence of senior women in all aspects of village life Gender at Work in Economic Life Gracia Clark, 2003 This new volume from SEA illuminates the importance of gender as a frame of reference in the study of economic life The contributors are economic anthropologists who consider the role of gender and work in a cross cultural context examining issues of historical change the construction of globalization household authority and entitlement and entrepreneurship and autonomy The book will be a valuable resource for researchers in anthropology and in the related fields of economics sociology of work gender studies women's studies and economic development Published in cooperation with the Society for Economic Anthropology Visit their web page Strolling Players of Empire Kathleen Wilson, 2022-12 Explores the politics of theatrical and social performance in the establishment of eighteenth century British imperial rule

Muslims and Matriarchs Jeffrey Hadler, 2013-11-15 Muslims and Matriarchs is a history of an unusual probably heretical and ultimately resilient cultural system The Minangkabau culture of West Sumatra Indonesia is well known as the world's largest matrilineal culture Minangkabau people are also Muslim and famous for their piety In this book Jeffrey Hadler examines the changing ideas of home and family in Minangkabau from the late eighteenth century to the 1930s Minangkabau has experienced a sustained and sometimes violent debate between Muslim reformists and preservers of indigenous culture During a protracted and bloody civil war of the early nineteenth century neo Wahhabi reformists sought to replace the matriarchate with a society modeled on that of the Prophet Muhammad In capitulating the reformists formulated an uneasy truce that sought to find a balance between Islamic law and local custom With the incorporation of highland West Sumatra into the Dutch empire in the aftermath of this war the colonial state entered an ongoing conversation These existing tensions between colonial ideas of progress Islamic reformism and local custom ultimately strengthened the matriarchate The ferment generated by the trinity of oppositions created social conditions that account for the disproportionately large number of Minangkabau leaders in Indonesian politics across the twentieth century The endurance of the matriarchate is testimony to the fortitude of local tradition the unexpected flexibility of reformist Islam and the ultimate weakness of colonialism Muslims and Matriarchs is particularly timely in that it describes a society that experienced a neo Wahhabi jihad and an extended period of Western occupation but remained intellectually and theologically flexible and diverse

Gender, Work, and Family in a Chinese Economic Zone Nancy E Riley, 2012-11-06 This book examines the dynamics of power within the families of married women who have migrated from rural areas to China s Dalian Economic Zone Engaging the question of whether waged work gives women power in their families this ethnographic study finds that women do indeed use their new positions and urban status to negotiate their family status However women use these new resources not necessarily to promote their own individual liberation but rather to strengthen their contribution as wives and especially as mothers Thus this new modernity provides a space for the re inscribing of traditional roles even as it may work to give women new found power within their families How and why this process occurs is related to the dual inequalities these women face as rural migrants and as women

Low Fertility Regimes and Demographic and Societal Change Dudley L. Poston, Jr., 2017-10-27 This book explores how low fertility levels could fundamentally change a country s population and society It analyzes the profound effects below average birthrates have on virtually all aspects of society from the economy to religion from marriage to gender roles An introduction written by Dudley L Poston Jr provides a general overview of this relatively new phenomenon that has already impacted nearly one half of the countries of the world today Poston also discusses the broad implications of the changes that these societies are currently experiencing and the ones that they will soon confront Next each of the 12 essays collected in this volume look into how a low fertility level affects a particular demographic or societal structure or process In addition case studies offer an in depth portrait of these changes in the United States and China Coverage includes the dynamics of low and lowest low where the birthrate is well below average fertility high and increasing life expectancies in the United States the implications of native born fertility and other socio demographic changes for less skilled U S immigration ageing and age dependency in post industrial societies good mothering and gender roles in China the increasing prevalence of voluntary childlessness how low fertility and prolonged longevity could result in slow economic growth the decreasing relevance of traditional religious systems and more The emergence and persistence of population decline produced by low fertility levels has the potential to greatly alter key aspects of society as well as individual lives Containing insightful analysis from some of the top minds in demography today this book will arm readers with the knowledge they need to fully understand these transformations

Handbook of Population Dudley L. Poston Jr., 2019-04-16 The 2nd edition of the Handbook of Population covers the major topics of the discipline of demography including current substantive methodological and theoretical issues of interest as well as new and emerging topics in the field In addition to revised updated and extended chapters that were included in the 1st edition this 2nd edition of the Handbook brings to the forefront entirely new chapters covering such major themes as children adoption sexuality inequality population psychology rural demography and obesity Chapters in this Handbook will expand our knowledge of the field and will raise awareness of the causes and the consequences of demographic behavior and events in societies throughout the world This 2nd edition will also serve as a reference in the field of population studies for years to come It will generate new questions and research ideas and will positively impact the growth development and expansion of demography

A World Full of Women Martha C. Ward, Monica D. Edelstein, 2015-10-14 Takes a cross cultural approach to the study of women A World Full of Women 6 e combines descriptive ethnography gender theory and international statistics to present a comprehensive picture of the lives of women Readers will better comprehend and contextualize women s issues and experiences in today s world This title explores the diversity of women s lives from class to culture with examples ranging from women s work to marriage patterns health issues violence against women and grassroots organizing The SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology Richard Fardon, Oliva Harris, Trevor H J Marchand, Cris Shore, Veronica Strang, Richard Wilson, Mark Nuttall, 2012-07-25 In two volumes the SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology provides the definitive overview of contemporary research in the discipline It explains the what where and how of current and anticipated work in Social Anthropology With 80 authors contributing more than 60 chapters this is the most comprehensive and up to date statement of research in Social Anthropology available and the essential point of departure for future projects The Handbook is divided into four sections Part I Interfaces examines Social Anthropology s disciplinary connections from Art and Literature to Politics and Economics from Linguistics to Biomedicine from History to Media Studies Part II Places examines place region culture and history from regional area studies to a globalized world Part III Methods examines issues of method from archives to war zones from development projects to art objects and from ethics to comparison Part IV Futures anticipates anthropologies to come in the Brain Sciences in post Development in the Body and Health and in new Technologies and Materialities Edited by the leading figures in social anthropology the Handbook includes a substantive introduction by Richard Fardon a think piece by Jean and John Comaroff and a concluding last word on futures by Marilyn Strathern The authors each at the leading edge of the discipline contribute in depth chapters on both the foundational ideas and the latest research Comprehensive and detailed this magisterial Handbook overviews the last 25 years of the social anthropological imagination It will speak to scholars in Social Anthropology and its many related disciplines Women, Islam and Everyday Life Nina Nurmila, 2009-06-10 This book examines Islam and women s everyday life focusing in particular on the highly controversial issue of polygamy It discusses the competing interpretations of the Qur anic verses that are at the heart of Muslim controversies over polygamy with some groups believing that Islam enshrines polygamy as a male right others seeing it as permitted but discouraged in favour of monogamy and other groups arguing that Islam implicitly prohibits polygamy Based on detailed fieldwork conducted in Indonesia it provides an empirically based account of women s lived experiences in polygamous marriages describing the different perceptions of the practice and strategies in dealing with it It also considers the impact of changing public policy in particular Indonesia s 1974 Marriage Law which restricted the practice of polygamy

It shows that in fact this law has not resulted in widespread adherence and considers how public policy could be modified to increase its effectiveness in affecting behaviour in everyday life Overall the book argues that polygamy has been a source of injustice towards women and children that this is against Islamic teaching and that a just Islamic law would need to call for the abolition of polygamy Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker, Pam Nilan, 2013-07-18 The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people's local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies
