Welcome Speech for Students by Teacher - (Edit & Download)

Good morning, students!

I am the principal, your mathematics teacher here at Springfield Academy. It is with great enthusiasm that I welcome you to the start of another academic school year. Today marks a fresh chapter for each one of you—whether you are just beginning your journey with us or returning to build on an already impressive academic foundation.

To all our new students, I extend a heartfelt welcome. You are about to embark on an exciting path filled with new discoveries and opportunities. This is your chance to engage with new ideas, meet brilliant people, and develop skills that will set you apart. To our returning students, welcome back! Your continued passion and dedication are the heartbeat of our community. It's your spirit that helps make our school vibrant and inspiring.

It also fills me with a renewed sense of gratitude to our dedicated faculty and staff. Their hard work over the summer has prepared us for a year of shaping learning and growth. The efforts of these individuals often go unnoticed, but they are the pillars upon which our educational standards rest.

This school year, I encourage each of you to take full advantage of everything Springfield Academy has to offer. From rigorous academic programs to a wide range of extracurricular activities, there is something here for everyone. From the new student, just starting, participating in sports, and don't be afraid to explore new interests. These experiences are what shape your unique academic journey and personal growth.

As we move forward, remember that education is a journey, not a race. It's about understanding the world and finding your place in it. Ask questions, seek out new challenges, and be open to learning from both successes and setbacks. Each moment you spend here, both in and out of the classroom, is a stepping stone towards becoming thoughtful, informed, and responsible citizens.

International Student Engagement

Chris R. Glass, Rachawan Wongtrirat, Stephanie Buus, 2023-07-03 This book responds to the growing calls among international educators, activists, and students themselves to pay closer attention to the qualitative dimensions of international students' experiences at U.S. colleges and universities. This book outlines deep approaches to the academic and social integration of international students at U.S. colleges and universities. It describes concrete examples of strategies to enhance the international student experience across a wide range of institutional types and explores actions that have enabled colleges and universities to create more inclusive, connected, and purposeful campus environments for international students. It fleshes out the effects of these actions through the first-person narratives of international students themselves. It focuses on reinforcing an institution's existing strengths and capacities to help academic leaders at these institutions to develop comprehensive strategies that will enable the creation of inclusive campus climates for international students. The book combines evidence derived from the national Global Perspective Inventory dataset, the experiences of institutions at the forefront in developing effective strategies, as well as first-person narrative experiences of international students to illustrate the real-life consequences of institutional policies, practice, and programs. One of the aims of this book is to take readers on a journey from community colleges to liberal arts institutions to large public flagship research universities from rural parts of the U.S. to highly populated urban areas in order to raise questions about the impact of the surge of international students in these environments and about the corresponding challenges that confront senior administrators seeking to strengthen and deepen connections for the students. The book explores some of the actions that universities and colleges across the U.S. have taken to create more inclusive, connected, and purposeful campus environments for their international students, placing particular emphasis on the importance of tapping and reinforcing each institution's existing strengths and capacities in the development of strategies that will enable it to create more inclusive campus climates for current and incoming international students and engaging in active collaboration with all departments and offices across the campus with the larger community and most important with the international student community itself.

The Blushing MBA Feddy Pouideh, 2005-11 Enjoy a funny sneak peek at life inside an Ivy League business school from someone who's been there and lived to tell the tale. Excerpt from The Admissions Interview: I can't remember anything on my resume. Oh my God, I've gone blank. What am I doing here? My pulse is racing, my throat is tight, and I'm sweating. Move out of my way, I have to get out of here. After 20 minutes, my nerves finally begin to calm, which would have been great if the interview hadn't finished in 10. The interviewer concludes with, "How do you want to be remembered by your classmates?" Remembered. Because this program will surely be the death of me. He hands me his card when we finish. Call me if you have any questions. The interview is over. Over. I am numb as I leave his office, stunned that the moment I have worked a lifetime for is now history. Wait. When he said "It's over" was he referring to the interview or to my future in business? The Blushing MBA is a funny, candid chronicle of one woman's adventure inside an Ivy League business school. It's an inspirational tribute to college graduate school and to anyone who has ever dared to enter
