Hello!

I hope you are having a wonderful summer with your family! You are probably having fun riding your bike, swimming, or playing games. I had fun, too. Mr. Post and I did a lot of traveling together. It was a terrific summer!

Now I have been back at school getting our classroom ready! I thought I would write you a letter to tell you how excited I am for the first day of school. I can't wait to see you!

We are going to have so much fun this year in first grade.

We will be sharing many big books, stories, poems and songs! We will have fun writing, too. We will be playing some excellent math games! We will also learn new things in science and social studies. Computer time will be awesome, too! You will see some of your old friends in our class, but you will make new friends, too!

Everyone received a supply list last June. If you have your supplies, you may bring them in a little at a time the first week of school or all at once, whichever is easier for you.

If you or your family would like to write me a letter, I would love to learn about anything that you'd like me to know about you. You can mail it to me at Smith School, or bring it with you during the first week of school.

When you come to school on the first day, I will be right outside to meet you and show you where to go. We are going to have a great year! We will be meeting new people, learning new names, making new friends and helping each other.

I am looking forward to seeing you! I hope you enjoy these last days of vacation!

I will see you soon.
Bring your smile!

Your teacher,
Mrs. Post

Pennsylvania for Harvard where he composed more than 150 witty substantive letters to his parents The summer after he graduated The New Yorker began accepting his work and his exchanges with editors publishers and writers would stretch into a correspondence that Schiff notes figures not as an adjunct to but rather an integral part of his astonishing literary output The intimacy and lucidity of these letters brings to the fore all manner of subjects and situations notably the ardent feelings for his first love and wife Mary and later the heartbreaking but honestly accounted breakup of their marriage the uncensored passion for other women including his Ipswich neighbor Martha who became his second wife the concern for his children s path to adulthood and the conversations with many literary peers from Joyce Carol Oates to Philip Roth as well as his Knopf and New Yorker editors critics translators and others in the lit business Filled with comic observations opinions and personal news told in the fluid first person voice of the writer himself these missives taken together create a page turning life in letters like no other
