Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re s La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world s best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard

Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era Surrealist influences the Nazi Occupation the glories of the New Wave the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present R mi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world s most beloved films Building upon his 2004 best selling edition the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema

Ladies Or Gentlemen Jean-Louis Ginibre, 2005 From Greek drama through vaudeville and modern cinema nothing in the theatrical experience has ever guaranteed a laugh like a man in a dress This spectacular pictorial history examines the grand tradition of male cross dressing in the movies through more than 700 photos more than half of which are previously unpublished The screen s greatest stars from comedians like Buster Keaton and Peter Sellers to serious actors like Marlon Brando and Max von Sydow are pictured in everything from bustiers to ball gowns Just as in real life the cinematic motives for cross dressing are complex ranging from plot device I Was a Male War Bride and social commentary Tootsie to the simple sight gags of Laurel and Hardy The book explores these and myriad other reasons actors are coaxed out of dress suits and into dresses By turns provocative serious and silly Ladies or Gentlemen is a delightful study of a seldom explored facet of cinema history

Stars and Stardom in French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their U S counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de FunFs Jean Paul

Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve GTrard Depardieu and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema
