Trois Yeux Maurice Leblanc Ebook:

The Three Eyes Maurice Leblanc, 2015-07-08 This early work by Maurice Leblanc was originally published in 1919 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography The Three Eyes is one of Leblanc's notable science fiction novels in which a scientist makes televisual contact with three-eyed Venusians Maurice Marie mile Leblanc was born on 11th November 1864 in Rouen Normandy France He was a novelist and writer of short stories known primarily as the creator of the fictional gentleman thief and detective Arsène Lupin From the start Leblanc wrote both short crime stories and longer novels and his lengthier tomes heavily influenced by writers such as Flaubert and Maupassant were critically admired but met with little commercial success Leblanc was largely considered little more than a writer of short stories for various French periodicals when the first Arsène Lupin story appeared It was published as a series of stories in the magazine Je Sais Trout starting on 15th July 1905 Clearly created at editorial request under the influence of and in reaction to the wildly successful Sherlock Holmes stories the roguish and glamorous Lupin was a surprise success and Leblanc's fame and fortune beckoned In total Leblanc went on to write twenty-one Lupin novels or collections of short stories On this success he later moved to a beautiful country side retreat in the Haute Normandie region in north western France which today is a museum dedicated to the Arsène Lupin books He died in Perpignan the capital of the Pyrénées Orientales department in southern France on 6th November 1941 at the age of seventy six
