community to encounter God's movement in fresh ways Selected Writings of Maureen O'Hara on the Art, Science, and Hope of Humanism Keith Tudor, Maureen O'Hara, 2025-06-30 This book presents the work of the eminent British American psychologist Maureen O'Hara. It explores the trajectory of humanistic psychology over the last few decades providing a link between its original proponents notably Carl Rogers and its contemporary manifestations. The text reproduces 18 of O'Hara's original papers arranged in six parts each of which reflects a significant area in which she has contributed her rigorous analysis and creative thinking: i.e. the person-centred approach, humanistic psychology, third force science, client-centred therapy, psychology, futures and education. A unique feature of the book is a series of dialogues about O'Hara's contributions in each of these areas with the book's editor Keith Tudor. The dialogues reveal not only O'Hara's reflections on and further thinking about each area of her contributions but also how prescient her analysis was and how contemporary and relevant her thinking still is. Bringing together a collection of O'Hara's works to a broader audience, this book will be of interest to humanistic psychologists and psychotherapists as well as those studying and/or training in this field. Shattered Dreams, Infinite Hope Brandon M. Terry, 2025 The romantic vision of the civil rights movement is exhausted and its inverse Afropessimism offers a self-defeating irony. To resolve this impasse, Brandon Terry transforms the standard story of America's democratic awakening through a tragic reading of the civil rights movement as an ongoing struggle still worthy of affirmation. The Sabbath Recorder, 1922
