Catalytic Leadership Patricia S. Parker, 2020-11-17 Ella Baker 1903 1986 was an influential African American civil rights and human rights activist For five decades she worked behind the scenes with people in vulnerable communities to catalyze social justice leadership Her steadfast belief in the power of ordinary people to create change continues to inspire social justice activists around the world This book describes a case study that translates Ella Baker's community engagement philosophy into a catalytic leadership praxis which others can adapt for their work Catalytic leadership is a concrete set of communication practices for social justice leadership produced in equitable partnership with instead of on communities The case centers the voices of African American teenage girls who were living in a segregated neighborhood of an affluent college town and became part of a small collective of college students parents university faculty and community activists learning leadership in the spirit of Ella Baker The Resounding Revolution Stephen Stacks, 2025-05-13 Far from being bounded by the timeframe of the 1960s freedom song continues to evolve as a tool both of historical memory and of present activism Stephen Stacks looks at how post 1968 freedom song helps us negotiate our present relationship to the era while at the same time sustaining the contemporary struggle inspired by it Stacks's analysis shifts the focus of attention from genre freedom song to process and practice freedom singing As he shows freedom singing after 1968 generates multilayered meanings It can reinforce or resist consensus memories or dominant narratives Stacks illuminates freedom singing's diversity by examining it in three contexts performance protest and within documentary sound recording film Insightful and vividly detailed The Resounding Revolution examines sixty years of Black music to challenge and reshape the entrenched story of the Civil Rights Movement Curatopia Philipp Schorch, Conal McCarthy, 2018-11-30 What is the future of curatorship Is there a vision for an ideal model a curatopia whether in the form of a utopia or dystopia Or is there a plurality of approaches amounting to a curatorial heterotopia This pioneering volume addresses these questions by considering the current state of curatorship It reviews the different models and approaches operating in museums galleries and cultural organisations around the world and discusses emerging concerns challenges and opportunities The collection explores the ways in which the mutual asymmetrical relations underpinning global scientific entanglements of the past can be transformed into more reciprocal symmetrical forms of cross cultural curatorship in the present arguing that this is the most effective way for curatorial practice to remain meaningful International in scope the volume covers three regions Europe
