We Have Been Believers An African American Systematic Theology Paperback 1992:

We Have Been Believers James H. Evans, 1992 In this the first full scale black systematic theology in twenty years James Evans emerges as a major and distinctive voice in American theology Seeking to overcome the chasm between church practice and theological reflection Evans situates theology squarely in the nexus of faith with freedom There with a sure touch he uplifts revelatory aspects of black religious experience that reanimate classical areas of theology and he creates a theology with a heart a soul and a voice that speaks directly to our condition The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology Black Theology, Slavery and Contemporary Christianity Anthony G. Reddie, 2016-04-15 Black Theology Slavery and Contemporary Christianity explores the legacy of slavery in Black theological terms Challenging the dominant approaches to the history and legacy of slavery in the British Empire the contributors show that although the 1807 act abolished the slave trade it did not end racism notions of White supremacy or the demonization of Blackness Black people and Africa This interdisciplinary study draws on biblical studies history missiology and Black theological reflection exploring the strengths and limitations of faith as the framework for abolitionist rhetoric and action This Black theological approach to the phenomenon of the trans Atlantic slave trade and the institution of slavery draws on contributions from Africa the Caribbean North America and Europe Philosophy of Religion and the African American Experience John H. McClendon III, 2017-07-03 Most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white Western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large The fact remains that Howard Thurman James H Cone and William R Jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion Yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion Neglect and ignorance of African American Studies is widespread in the academy By including chapters on Thurman Cone and Jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story With Signs Following Raynard D. Smith,2015-12-01 Born to ex slaves in Reconstruction era Tennessee Bishop Charles Harrison Mason had a vision for the Church of God in Christ COGIC that thrives today in an international Pentecostal church with more than five million members With Signs Following The Life and Ministry of Charles Harrison Mason examines the social cultural and religious aspects of Bishop Mason s leadership and creative genius in establishing COGIC as a distinct Black Church tradition With Signs Following shares four decades of research from leading scholars that addresses the sociological theological psychological social ethical and historical perspectives of COGIC and Mason s ministry Contributors Christopher Brennan Ithiel Clemmons David D Daniels III Glenda Williams Goodson Robert R Owens Craig Scandrett Leatherman Raynard D Smith Frederick L Ware The God who Risks John Sanders,1998-01-01 In The God Who Risks theologian John Sanders enlightens pastors and lay persons who struggle with questions about suffering evil and human free will The Decline of African American Theology Thabiti M. Anyabwile,2007-11-14 Thabiti Anyabwile argues that contemporary African American theology has fallen far from the tree of its early American antecedents This book is a goldmine for any reader interested in the history of African American Christianity With a foreword by Mark Noll Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities Essentials of Christian Theology Stanley James Grenz,William Carl Placher,2003-01-01 This splendid introductory textbook for Christian theology presents two essays by leading scholars on each of the major theological questions William Placher provides an excellent discussion of the history and current state of each doctrine while the essays explore the key elements and contemporary issues relating to these important theological concepts Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill,2012-11 Schweitzer s goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Life Amid the Principalities Michael Root,James J. Buckley,2016-09-15 We are not contending against flesh and blood but against the principalities against the powers against the world rulers of this present darkness Eph 6 12 So Paul warns his Ephesian readers And yet Paul also says that these principalities and powers were created in and for Christ Col 1 16 and cannot separate us from the love of God Rom 8 38 What are the principalities and powers of our time How do we understand them as created fallen and disarmed How does the Christian today engage these powers These are the questions speakers and participants addressed at the 2014 Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology

African-American Who's Who, Past and Present, Greater Rochester Area Mike F. Molaire, 1998-10 Dem Dry Bones Luke A. Powery, 2012-12-01 In an age when the so called prosperity gospel holds sway in many Christian communities or the good news of Christ is reduced to feel good bromides it would seem that death has little place in contemporary preaching Embracing the vision of the valley of dry bones in Ezekiel 37 as a metaphor for preaching in the Spirit acclaimed homiletician Luke Powery asserts that death is the context for all preaching In fact the Spirit leads preachers to the context of death each Sunday in order to proclaim a word of life that ultimately breathes hope into people s lives Yet many preachers avoid death because they are at a loss of what to say about it and do not realize its vital connection to the substance of Christian hope As a result the church is too often left with sermons that are fundamentally devoid of hope Dem Dry Bones aims to remedy some of the theological and homiletical shortcomings in contemporary preaching by looking closely at the African American spirituals tradition Through this study Powery demonstrates how to preach in the Spirit so that proclaiming death becomes an avenue toward hope In short no death no hope Introducing Black Theology of Liberation Hopkins, Dwight N., 2014-04-10 A book that reviews the principles of modern Black Theology its roots and contributions to the Christian world It also discusses what challenges Black theologians face in their minister and their religious communities The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry, 2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text The Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity The Africana Bible, Second Edition Hugh R. Page, Jr., Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Valerie Bridgeman, Stacy Davis, Madipoane Masenya, Rodney S. Sadler, Jr., 2023-11-07 The second edition features an updated commentary on each book of the Hebrew Bible that is authoritative for African and African diaspora communities worldwide It highlights issues of the Black community such as globalization and the colonial legacy and the distinctive norms of interpretation in African and African diaspora settings The Blackwell Companion to Religion in America Philip Goff, 2010-03-25 This authoritative and cutting edge companion brings together a team of leading scholars to document the rich diversity and unique viewpoints that have formed the religious history of the United States A groundbreaking new volume which represents the first sustained effort to fully explain the development of American religious history and its creation within evolving political and social frameworks Spans a wide range of traditions and movements from the Baptists and Methodists to Buddhists and Mormons Explores topics ranging from religion and the media immigration and piety though to politics and social reform Considers how American religion has influenced and been interpreted in literature and popular culture Provides insights into the historiography of religion but presents the subject as a story in motion rather than a snapshot of where the field is at a given moment Black Theology: 1980-1992 James H. Cone, Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1993 Worship at a Crossroads Melinda A. Quivik, 2023-04-13 This book calls Protestant churches and the ELCA in particular to a church wide conversation about racism It is a response to the 2019 book Dear Church by Lenny Duncan a former Lutheran pastor who is Black and who among other reparations calls for changing the church's worship in order to address segregated Sundays Changes in worship affect theological foundations Informed consideration is essential Because entering into life changing conversations requires vulnerability and commitment this book includes several narratives my life as a White woman and pastor the history of the Black church as defined by Black theologians the development of the liturgical renewal movement and my experiences as a professor navigating worship conflicts as my seminary struggled with financial constraints and a changing student body The seminary conflicts offered me a window into how better to address racism inspired by the example of post WWII German truth telling and how some US Southern states have come to grips with the history of the Jim Crow South described in Susan Neiman's Learning from the Germans This book outlines a way forward for churches in responding to racism by encouraging healthy engagement with contentious relationships as a necessity for healing
