Landscape and Agency Ed Wall, Tim Waterman, 2017-10-16 Landscape and Agency explores how landscape as an idea a visual medium and a design practice is organized appropriated and framed in the transformation of places from the local to the global It highlights how the development of the idea of agency in landscape theory and practice can fundamentally change our engagement with future landscapes Including a wide range of international contributions each illustrated chapter investigates the many ways in which the relationship between the ideas and practices of landscape and social and subjective formations and material processes are invested with agency They critically examine the role of landscape in processes of contemporary urban development environmental debate and political agendas and explore how these relations can be analysed and rethought through a dialogue between theory and practice

Environmental Restoration and Design for Recreation and Ecotourism Robert L. France, 2016-04-19 A wetland center in London parks in downtown San Francisco a wildlife sanctuary in Arcata and a wetlands park on the outskirts of Las Vegas what do these urban and suburban locations have in common They are leading examples of a new restoration design approach that is squarely placed at the interface of nature and culture This multidisciplinary

Is Landscape... ? Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2015-10-08 Is Landscape surveys multiple and myriad definitions of landscape Rather than seeking a singular or essential understanding of the term the collection postulates that landscape might be better read in relation to its cognate terms across expanded disciplinary and professional fields The publication pursues the potential of multiple provisional working definitions of landscape to both disturb and develop received understandings of landscape architecture These definitions distinguish between landscape as

representational medium academic discipline and professional identity Beginning with an inquiry into the origins of the term itself Is Landscape features essays by a dozen leading voices shaping the contemporary reading of landscape as architecture and beyond Detailing for Landscape Architects Thomas R.
