Weekend Warriors Alcohol In A Micronesian Culture:

Weekend Warriors Mac Marshall, 1979 In a unique blend of historical investigation cross cultural comparison and in depth analysis Weekend Warriors draws parallels between past traditions of aggression and the present day problem of drunkenness on the Pacific island of Truk Marshall demonstrates that many of our beliefs about drinking and drunkenness may be faulty and that a genuine understanding demands a social and cultural approach as well as a medical one

Alcohol, Gender and Culture Dimitra Gefou-Madianou, 2002-01-04 Europeans constitute 12 and a half per cent of the world's population but consume 50 per cent of the recorded world production alcohol and this consumption plays a significant role in the cultural religious and social identities of these countries The contributors show how different groups define the proper use of alcohol how State policies may effect drinking behaviour and highlight how beverages and comestibles must be seen in relation to each other From this is it shown how important socio cultural distinctions are made between and within communities gender relations ethnic groups and socio economic groups and within religious ideologies what one drinks how one drinks with whom and where all influence not how alcoholic substances are regarded but how social relations are experienced Alcohol Gender and Culture clearly demonstrates how the social construction of drinking may provide an analytical tool with which to approach different socio cultural groups and illustrates how any cultural group can be compared to another by its attitudes to alcohol It will be invaluable reading for students and lecturers of anthropology cultural history and gender studies Emergent Masculinities in the Pacific Aletta Biersack, Martha Macintyre, 2018-10-11 Emergent Masculinities in the Pacific focuses on the plasticity and contingent nature of Pacific Island masculinities over the course of colonial and postcolonial histories The several case histories concern the use of sports to recuperate but also refashion past masculinities in the name of contemporary masculine pride the effects of market participation on younger males how urbanisation and migration set the stage for experimenting with male gender and sexuality the impacts of military and labour histories on local masculinities masculinity and violence in war and gender violence and structural violence and disruptions in male gender identity Depicting contemporary Pacific Island societies as a space of gender invention and pluralism as indigenous gender regimes respond to the stimulations of transnational flows the book asks a key historical question Do emergent masculinities signal a rupture or some continuity with past masculinities This book was originally published as a special double issue of The Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology

American Anthropology in Micronesia Robert Kiste, Mac Marshall, 1999-03-01 This text evaluates how anthropological research in the Trust Territory has affected the Micronesian people the US colonial administration and the discipline of anthropology itself It analyzes the interplay between anthropology and history in particular how American colonialism affected anthropologists use of history and examines the research that has been conducted by American anthropologists in specific topical areas of sociocultural anthropology The text concentrates on disciplinary concerns but also considers the connections between work done in the era of applied anthropology and that completed later when anthropology was pursued mainly for its own sake

Islands at Risk? John Connell, 2013 This book provides a wide ranging comparative analysis of contemporary economic social political and environmental change in small islands island states and territories through every ocean It focuses on those island realms conventionally perceived as developing rather than developed in the Caribbean Pacific and Indian Oceans John Connell examines the decline of agriculture and the rise of tourism the problems of urbanization and the particular role of migration and remittances within a culture of migration He seeks to balance economic challenges with environmental threats notably that of climate change and social changes with the survival of culture pointing to awkward and hybrid development futures This unique study comprehensively balances environmental social and economic changes to provide a more wide ranging assessment of sustainability that will be invaluable for academics and postgraduate students on environment and international development courses

Critical Perspectives on Addiction Julie Netherland, 2012-10-26 Featuring the work of several up and coming scholars working to deepen theoretical perspectives on addiction and its relationship to social control and deviance this volume fills a gap in addiction studies by offering critical perspectives that interrogate and challenge traditional and or mainstream understandings of addiction

The Archaeology of Difference Anne Clarke, Robin Torrence, 2003-09-02 The Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint

Addiction Trajectories Eugene Raikhel, William Garriott, 2013-04-18 Drawing on medical anthropology and science and technology studies the contributors to Addiction Trajectories examine the epistemic therapeutic and experiential dimensions of contemporary addiction

Comprehending Drug Use J. Bryan Page, Merrill Singer, 2010 This book examines drug ethnography methodology that involves access to the hidden world of drug users the social spaces they frequent and the larger structural forces that help construct their worlds It explores the intersections of drug ethnography with globalization criminalization public health including the HIV AIDS epidemic hepatitis and other diseases and gender and also provide a guide to the methods and career paths of ethnographers

Navigating Everyday Life Peter J. Adams, 2018-05-07 Navigating Everyday Life explores the special moments big and small that rupture the surface of everyday life and that can help readers adjust to the disrupting effects of major life crises Peter Adams delves into the two forces finitude the aspects that constrain a person to a situation and transcendence those aspects that enable movement beyond such constraints Building on this framework Adams looks at the processes and circumstances that both facilitate and block the tensions between finitude and transcendence He then illustrates how these tensions function in the personal and existential challenges faced by five members of a modern suburban family Their stories traverse life transitions such as separation depression chronic illness injury violence addiction aging death and forgiveness This book is recommended for scholars and others interested in the intersections between psychology and philosophy To Have and to Hit Dorothy Ayers Counts, Judith K. Brown, Jacquelyn Campbell, 1999 This vitally important volume places the problem of wife beating in a broad cultural context in a search for strategies to reform societies including our own that are prone to this pernicious form of violence Based on first hand ethnographic data on more than a dozen societies including a number in Oceania this collection explores the social and cultural factors that work either to inhibit or to promote domestic violence against women The volume also includes a study of abuse among nonhuman primates and a cross cultural analysis of the legal aspects of wife beating By presenting counterexamples from other cultures contributors challenge Western assumptions about the factors leading to wife beating Through a close examination of societies where wife beating is infrequent or absent To Have and To Hit identifies the factors economic social political and cultural that must be explored and transformed in order to combat this violence and eventually eliminate it Sanctions And Sanctuary Dorothy A Counts, Judith K Brown, Jacquelyn C Campbell, 2019-05-28 Bringing together evidence from 15 Western and non Western societies ranging from hunter gatherers to urban Americans this book examines wife beating from a worldwide perspective Cross cultural comparison aims to give a more accurate picture of cultural influences on wife battering and to show the commonalities and differences of the phenomenon Gender Matters Alejandro Lugo, Bill Maurer, 2000 The first reexamination of a key theorist of anthropology Polynesian Seafaring and Navigation Richard Feinberg, 2003-03-24 After fourteen months of field research in 1972 73 and an additional four months of field work with the Anutans in the Solomon Islands capital of Honiara in 1983 Richard Feinberg here provides a thorough study of Anutan seafaring and navigation In doing so he gives rare insights into the larger picture of how Polynesians have adapted to the sea This richly illustrated book explores the theory and technique used by Anutans in construction use and handling of their craft the navigational skills still employed in interisland voyaging and their culturally patterned attitudes toward the ocean and travel on the high seas Further the discussion is set within the context of social relations values and the Anutan s own symbolic definitions of the world in which they live Under Heaven's Brow Ward Hunt Goodenough, 2002 For the people of Chuuk and for students of religion and Micronesian culture this book pulls together and makes available in English the somewhat scattered published accounts largely in German along with Goodenough s own as yet unpublished information about religious beliefs and ritual practices in pre Christian Chuuk The materials are presented in a way that seeks to document and illustrate a particular approach a functional one to understanding the kinds of human concerns that give rise to religious behavior Simply to describe traditional beliefs and rituals without the relevant social background information leaves the reader without any feeling for what were the emotional concerns engendered by life in Chuukese society that ritual practices helped people address Ward Goodenough offers a theoretical introduction the necessary background information about Chuuk and the ways in which members of Chuukese society experienced themselves and their fellows the world view and overall set of beliefs providing the intellectual framework within which ritual practices were formulated and understood and the various bodies of ritual practices He concludes the book with a summary that pulls together how the rituals described appear to related to the emotional concerns that growing up and living in Chuuk tended to create

Four Hundred Rabbits Anne Fox, Mike MacAvoy, 2011 The goal of this book is to contribute to the ongoing scholarly discussion on the very serious topic of drunkenness The phrase four hundred rabbits is one of many illustrations of the deep cultural religious and social influences on how individuals and communities view alcohol intoxication The Aztecs believed alcohol to have a divine origin with a god and goddess giving birth to 400 meaning innumerable in ancient Aztec divine children or rabbit gods each representing a varying degree and expression of alcohol intoxication and drunkenness Hence the book's subtitle which at first glance might seem light hearted but in fact represents an in depth look at a weighty topic With such rooted sociocultural factors in mind the International Center for Alcohol Policies ICAP and DrinkWise Australia collaborated to prepare a publication that advances current understanding of the individual and collective meanings purposes and functions of drunkenness As the authors explain interpretations by different disciplines of the terms intoxication and drunkenness are often inconsistent The chapters of this book discuss intoxication and drunkenness from three perspectives biological cultural and social By placing intoxication and drunkenness into these contexts the book is able to offer language and conceptual tools to help advance the ongoing discussion on how best to reduce alcohol related harm and encourage responsible enjoyment of beverage alcohol Readers in need of an in depth understanding of the varied dimensions of extreme drunkenness will add this excellent resource to their personal library

Cultural Competence in Substance Abuse Prevention Joanne Philleo, Frances Larry Brisbane, 1997 This book provides AOD professionals with the vital knowledge and strategies they need to become more culturally competent a prerequisite for success in the 21st century It demonstrates how to integrate cultural competence and an AOD curriculum and how to develop highly effective prevention messages and treatment modalities within a cultural context

The Federated States of Micronesia's Engagement with the Outside World Gonzaga Puas, 2021-09-28 This study addresses the neglected history of the people of the Federated States of Micronesia's FSM engagement with the outside world Situated in the northwest Pacific FSM's strategic location has led to four colonial rulers Histories of FSM to date have been largely written by sympathetic outsiders Indigenous perspectives of FSM history have been largely absent from the main corpus of historical literature A new generation of Micronesian scholars are starting to write their own history from Micronesian perspectives and using Micronesian forms of history This book argues that Micronesians have been dealing successfully with the outside world throughout the colonial era in ways colonial authorities were often unaware of This argument is sustained by examination of oral histories secondary sources interviews field research and the personal experience of a person raised in the Mortlock Islands of Chuuk State It reconstructs how Micronesian internal processes for social stability and mutual support endured rather than succumbing to the different waves of colonisation This study argues that colonisation did not destroy Micronesian cultures and identities but that Micronesians recontextualised the changing conditions to suit their own circumstances Their success rested on the indigenous doctrines of adaptation assimilation and accommodation deeply rooted in the kinship doctrine of eaea fengen sharing and alilis fengen assisting each other These values pervade the Constitution of the FSM which formally defines the modern identity of its indigenous peoples reasserting and perpetuating Micronesian values and future continuity

Illness in the Academy Kimberly Rena Myers, 2007 Illness in the Academy investigates the deep seated widespread belief among academics and medical professionals that lived experiences outside the workplace should not be sacrificed to the ideal of objectivity those academic and medical professions so highly value The 47 selections in this collection illuminate how academics bring their intellectual and creative tools skills and perspectives to bear on experiences of illness The selections cross genres as well as bridge disciplines and cultures medi@sia T.J.M. Holden, Timothy J. Scrase, 2006-09-27 This new inter disciplinary book is the first comparative case based analysis of media panoply in and out of Asia today Examining what the authors call the media tion equation the contributors demonstrate the multiple links between media society and culture and advance the claim that media is the key means through which Asians experience understand effect and are affected by the worlds containing them Exploring a relatively neglected principle in cultural studies that context counts medi sia highlights how the experiences of those encountering media messages differ depending on social economic political and ideational conditions Balancing social cultural and media theory with empirical research the essays in this collection provide a better understanding of the complex relationship between media and people s practices values and behaviour in contemporary Asia
