Who's Afraid of Femininity?, 2023-10-16      Sex, Gender, and Religion Diana Neal, Josephine Elizabeth Grey Butler, 2006
Original Scholarly Monograph      Rosa Manus (1881-1942) Myriam Everard, Francisca de Haan, 2016-11-01 Rosa Manus 1881-1942 uncovers the life of Dutch feminist and peace activist Rosa Manus co-founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom vice-president of the International Alliance of Women and founding president of the International Archives for the Women's Movement IAV in Amsterdam revealing its rootedness in Manus's radical secular Jewishness Because the Nazis looted the IAV 1940 including Manus's large personal archive and subsequently arrested 1941 and murdered her 1942 Rosa Manus has been almost unknown to later generations This collective biography offers essays based on new and in-depth research on pictures and documents from her archives returned to Amsterdam in 2003 as well as other primary sources It thus restores Manus to the history from which the Nazis attempted to erase her Contributors include Margot Badran Mineke Bosch Ellen Carol DuBois Myriam Everard Karen Garner Francisca de Haan Dagmar Wernitznig and Annika Wilmers The volume touches on all of the important themes of that history the centrality of peace activism the impact of the world wars and the rise of fascism the tensions over imperialism and nationalist resistance in colonized countries the importance of resources to the persistence of the movement the vital glue of intimate relationships and brings to the fore additional ones including the role of Jewish women the centrality of Dutch feminists in transnational feminism and the struggle over preserving the history of the movement Leila J Rupp University of California Santa Barbara in Women's History Review 2018      Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Kathrin Thiele, 2009-06-02 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an introductory text for students specialising in gender studies
The truly interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach bridges the gap between humanities and the social sciences and it showcases the academic and social context in which gender studies has evolved Complex contemporary phenomena such as globalisation neo-liberalism and fundamentalism are addressed that stir up new questions relevant to the study of culture This vibrant and wide-ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible but sophisticated guide to the very latest issues and concepts within gender studies Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an indispensable introduction to third-wave feminism and contemporary gender studies It is international in scope multidisciplinary in method and transmedial in coverage It shows how far feminist theory has come since Simone de Beauvoir's Second Sex and marks out clearly how much still needs to be done Hayden White Professor of Historical Studies Emeritus University of California and Professor of Comparative Literature Stanford University US      The Rise of Caring Power Annemieke van Drenth, Francisca de Haan, 1999 This original study discusses the role of women in developing and dispersing caring power and vice versa the role of caring power in constituting women as modern social subjects processes which began around 1800 Based on the historian philosopher Foucault's concept of pastoral power caring power also takes into account the vital role played by gender Both humanitarian and religious motives fostered the ideal of serving the well being of individual others and thereby the interest of society as a whole With the rise of caring power this book argues women began to feel responsible for those of their own sex and to organize themselves in all female organizations In the process they carved out new gender identities for themselves and the women in their care The authors illustrate this profound historical change with the work of the reformers Elizabeth Fry 1780 1845 and Josephine Butler 1828 1906 and trace their impact in Britain and the Netherlands

A Bio-bibliography of Florence Nightingale Sue Goldie, 1962 Consists of a complete annotated list of Florence Nightingale's printed writings the location is given only of the copy used wherever possible in the most accessible collection extensive notes describe the background to the works explaining how and why they were written giving a brief indication of their contents and recording their reception by the world Includes a bibliography of selected writings about Florence Nightingale and her times

Remembering Social Movements Stefan Berger, Sean Scalmer, Christian Wicke, 2021-05-12 Remembering Social Movements offers a comparative historical examination of the relations between social movements and collective memory A detailed historiographical and theoretical review of the field introduces the reader to five key concepts to help guide analysis repertoires of contention historical events generations collective identities and emotions The book examines how social movements act to shape public memory as well as how memory plays an important role within social movements through 15 historical case studies spanning labour feminist peace anti nuclear and urban movements as well as specific examples of memory activism from the 19th century to the 21st century These include transnational and explicitly comparative case studies in addition to cases rooted in German Australian Indian and American history ensuring that the reader gains a real insight into the remembrance of social activism across the globe and in different contexts The book concludes with an epilogue from a prominent Memory Studies scholar Bringing together the previously disparate fields of Memory Studies and Social Movement Studies this book systematically scrutinises the two way relationship between memory and activism and uses case studies to ground students while offering analytical tools for the reader
