Contextualized Learning

Li Jilin, 2017-08-22 This book focuses on summarizing four elements from the classic Chinese literary theory: truth, beauty, emotion, and imagination. Based on the latest findings from learning sciences and brain science, it elaborates on the reasons for creating contexts in language teaching. It also shows how the aesthetical theories can be used to nurture contextualized instruction and presents six major approaches for creating contexts: creating contexts with real objects, representing contexts with pictures, evoking contexts with music, experiencing contexts with acting, unfolding contexts with real life, and describing contexts with languages. The author is a practitioner with over 30 years of practical research experience, and all their studies are discussed in this book.

Voices of the Voiceless

K P Shaji, Voices of the Voiceless by K P Shaji is a deeply personal and courageous exposé on the hidden truths of India's self-financed English medium school system. Drawing from over 35 years of experience as a teacher, principal, and educational leader, the author sheds light on how a noble mission of shaping young minds has been quietly replaced by a profit-driven model that prioritizes branding over values and visibility over genuine learning. The book is not an academic theory but a collection of lived experiences, real stories, and unspoken struggles of students, parents, and teachers. It reveals how commercialization has turned schools into showrooms, students into customers, and education into a product while leaving teachers overworked, parents financially strained, and children burdened by pressure. Through vivid narratives, it explores systemic issues such as hidden admission costs, excessive focus on appearances, performance over learning, exploitation of teachers, and the erosion of moral values in schooling. Structured across sixteen chapters, the book moves from diagnosis to hope, offering practical reforms to humanize education, restore dignity to the teaching profession, and put the soul back into schooling. Above all, it is a call to action for educators, parents, policymakers, and society to listen to the unheard voices and reclaim the true purpose of education: shaping not just capable individuals but compassionate human beings.
