

Pre-Season Letter to Parents

Dear Parent:

Welcome to Bonita Matrix of AYSO Region 116. Your child has tried out and has been selected to play in our soccer club in a more challenging environment. This program will allow players with similar abilities and skill development to play in more competitive games.

One of the factors critical to the success of the program is sideline behavior. Bonita Matrix has clearly defined expectations for spectators. Please read and follow the Parents Code of Conduct. This program needs the combined positive efforts of all participants to be successful. This form is to be completed and returned prior to your child attending his/her first practice or to the Parent Orientation meeting, whichever is sooner.

If you have any questions regarding this program, please contact our Director of Coaching (Anthony Johnson) at: anthony.johnson@cox.net

Sincerely,

Coach John/Jane Doe

The Cyprus Detention Camps Yitzhak Teutsch, 2019-07-23 Beginning in August 1946 stateless and visaless Jews most of them survivors of the Nazi death camps who sought to immigrate to the Land of Israel were intercepted by the Royal Navy and deported to the nearby island of Cyprus where they were detained in camps surrounded by barbed wire Despite occupying a dramatic and fateful position in modern history this saga has remained largely inaccessible due to the widespread dispersal of the primary sources and the linguistic difficulties presented by them To address these problems this book scrutinizes the scholarly literature consulting hundreds of primary sources many of them previously unknown on three continents bringing together interviews with scores of eyewitnesses and translating foreign language terms into English The result is a comprehensive meticulously footnoted guide that uses such tools as maps a detailed timeline and biographical entries to make this riveting saga accessible to a broad audience of scholars and general readers

The Passion for the Beautiful Game, Soccer Gene Ventriglia, 2022-05-23 Gene Ventriglia was a very poor fourteen year old immigrant when he arrived in New York harbor in early July 1958 Coming from the tiny village of Alife Italy he had grown up in a farm village of about three hundred inhabitants The village as well as his parents house had been leveled by bombs in the final days of World War II In 1958 the memories were still very much alive as postwar reconstruction was far from completion These were the surroundings where Gene Ventriglia grew up Gene had only known his small village and was unaware that common items such as telephones and TV sets even existed One can only imagine his reaction upon seeing the New York skyscrapers and the size and number of cars when he first walked on the New York streets He had no idea how his life would change in the very near future How would he react He wondered if he would make friends After all how would he communicate He did not know a word of English Gene soon realized that getting a good education was the key to success However he also realized that it would take great efforts and motivation on his part Was he willing to put in the necessary effort He needed to learn a new language in a community where he only heard Italian His search to find that American Dream lasted more than sixty years During this time Gene was faced with one challenge after another in his search for that dream In each case Gene used his passion for the game of soccer to fuel his inner motivation and determination not to give up every time he arrived at a dead end Gene's path to finding that dream was full of surprises In all cases he was very determined and he demonstrated outstanding motivation to achieve his goal

In Haig's Shadow Gary Sheffield, 2019-12-27 This collection of correspondence and newly discovered family papers is a good read for anyone interested in WWI or the British Army The NYMAS Review Hugo De Pree was the nephew of the better known Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig However De Pree had a distinguished military career in his own right He served in the Boer War He was sent to the Western Front as Chief of Staff of IV Corps and played a key part in planning the Battle of Cambrai in 1917 In 1918 De Pree was appointed to command 189 Brigade in 63rd Royal Naval Division His part in the March Retreat showed that he was not a chateau general In August 1918 he took the morally courageous decision to cancel his Brigade's attack

fearing heavy losses for little gain He was sacked but after appealing was appointed to command a brigade of 38th Welsh Division which he commanded with distinction in the last weeks of the war Afterward De Pree rose to Major General and was the Commandant at RMA Woolwich His son John was killed in 1942 when attempting to escape from a POW camp in Germany a story told in this book by one of the leading academics in the field which combines De Pree and Haig family papers with incisive commentary to give a multi faceted insight into both an important but obscure senior officer of the First World War and his hugely famous uncle
