British Theatre Between the Wars, 1918-1939 Clive Barker, Maggie B. Gale, 2000 This volume initiates a long overdue reassessment of mid twentieth century British theatre cultures

Holocaust Drama Gene A. Plunka, 2009-04-02 The Holocaust the systematic attempted destruction of European Jewry and other threats to the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945 has been portrayed in fiction film memoirs and poetry Gene Plunka's study will add to this chronicle with an examination of the theatre of the Holocaust Including thorough critical analyses of more than thirty plays this book explores the seminal twentieth century Holocaust dramas from the United States Europe and Israel Biographical information about the playwrights production histories of the plays and pertinent historical information are provided placing the plays in their historical and cultural contexts

Strategies of Political Theatre Michael Patterson, 2003-05-22 This volume provides a theoretical framework for some of the most important play writing in Britain in the second half of the twentieth century Examining representative plays by Arnold Wesker John Arden Trevor Griffiths Howard Barker Howard Brenton Edward Bond David Hare John McGrath and Caryl Churchill the author analyses their respective strategies for persuading audiences of the need for a radical restructuring of society The book begins with a discussion of the way that theatre has been used to convey a political message Each chapter is then devoted to an exploration of the engagement of individual playwrights with left wing political theatre including a detailed analysis of one of their major plays Despite political change since the 1980s political play writing continues to be a significant element in contemporary play writing but in a very changed form

Theatre and Empowerment Richard Boon, Jane Plastow, 2004-08-19 Theatre and Empowerment examines the ability of drama theatre dance and performance to empower communities of very different kinds and it does so from a multi cultural perspective The communities involved include poverty stricken children in Ethiopia and the Indian sub continent disenfranchised Native Americans in the USA and young black men in Britain victims of violence in South Africa and Northern Ireland and a threatened agricultural town in Italy The book asserts the value of performance as a vital agent of necessary social change and makes its arguments through the close examination from inside practice of the success not always complete of specific projects in their practical and cultural contexts Practitioners and commentators ask how performance in its widest sense can play a part in community activism on a scale larger than the individual one off project by helping communities find their own liberating and creative voices

Cinema, State Socialism and Society in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, 1917-1989 Sanja Bahun, John Haynes, 2014-07-25 This book presents a comprehensive re examination of the cinemas of the Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe during the communist era It argues that since the end of communism in these countries film scholars are able to view these cinemas in a different way no longer bound by an outlook relying on binary Cold War terms With the opening of archives in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union much more is known about these states and societies at the same time the field has been reinvigorated by its opening up to more contemporary concepts themes and approaches in film studies and adjacent disciplines Taking stock of these developments this book presents a rich varied tapestry relating specific films to specific national and transnational circumstances rather than viewing them as a single monolithic Cold War Communist cinema The Blackwell Companion to Major Contemporary Social Theorists
