Waters Of Siloe Harvest Or Hbj :

Journey Into Depth Mary Wolff-Salin, 2005 Journey into Depth is about the experience of initiation as it plays itself out in two domains the monastic and the training to become a Jungian psychoanalyst The very disparateness of these fields from an external point of view highlights the deeper level of similarity in their initiatory experiences A few major anthropological guidelines concerning initiation provide a framework of reflection as to what is really going on when a person passes through this kind of adult rite of passage Conclusions as to the human importance of such experiences follow with special emphasis on their spiritual consequences in terms of growth BOOK JACKET The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1992 National Union Catalog ,1983 Thomas Merton Marquita Breit, Robert E. Daggy, 1986 National Union Catalog ,1982 ,1983

Praying John Piippo, 2016-04-14 Every follower of Jesus is called to have a praying life But many confess that they are too busy to pray This book is a record of observations experiences reflections and biblical and theological conclusions written by a busy pastor who discovered praying as a conversation with God that has lasted for forty years It is also a challenge to pray and a call to a praying lifestyle The conviction of the author is that what the Church most needs today is to recover praying as a relationship with God and not as a duty to God This book will inspire you to experience prayer not as something we have to do but as something we cannot do without

Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation
