Function-Based Spatiality and the Development of Korean Communities in Japan David Rands, 2014-05-21 Function Based Spatiality and the Development of Korean Communities in Japan utilizes the theoretical model of complex adaptive systems and introduces the concept of function based spatiality to investigate the roles of the urban environments of

Tokyo and Osaka in the development of Korean communities in Japan Analysis of distinct Korean communities allows for the examination of urban factors of each city which contributed to the patterns of Korean immigration and community formation By utilizing a comparative narrative of the two cities distinctions between the organic growth of Osaka and the planned city of Tokyo are illuminated Additionally the discussion utilizes the concept of function based spatiality to show how each city interacted with its surrounding regional national and global spheres The functions of Tokyo as a gateway to Western modernization and center of the Japanese state shaped the interactions with Korean immigrants Likewise Osaka s functions as a center of mercantilism and second city played a large role in how Koreans were incorporated into the urban ethnoscares Taken together these two examples provide insight to the dynamics of urban systems on the development of immigrant communities

The Korean Diaspora in Post War Japan Myung Ja Kim, 2017-05-30 The indistinct status of the Zainichi has meant that since the late 1940s two ethnic Korean associations the Chongryun pro North and the Mindan pro South have been vying for political loyalty from the Zainichi with both groups initially opposing their assimilation in Japan Unlike the Korean diasporas living in Russia China or the US the Zainichi have become sharply divided along political lines as a result Myung Ja Kim examines Japan's changing national policies towards the Zainichi in order to understand why this group has not been fully integrated into Japan Through the prism of this ethnically Korean community the book reveals the dynamics of alliances and alignments in East Asia including the rise of China as an economic superpower the security threat posed by North Korea and the diminishing alliance between Japan and the US Taking a post war historical perspective the research reveals why the Zainichi are vital to Japan's state policy revisionist aims to increase its power internationally and how they were used to increase the country's geopolitical leverage With a focus on International Relations this book provides an important analysis of the mechanisms that lie behind nation building policy showing the conditions controlling a host state's treatment of diasporic groups

Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia Michael Weiner, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook of Race and Ethnicity in Asia introduces theoretical approaches to the study of race ethnicity and indigeneity in Asia beyond those commonly grounded in the Western experience The volume's twenty eight chapters consider not only the relationship between ethnic or racial minorities and the state but social relations within and between individual and transnational communities These shape not only the contours of governance but also the means by which knowledge of national identity self and other have been constructed and reconstructed over time Divided into four sections it provides holistic and comparative coverage of South South East and East Asia as well as Australasia and Oceania an area that extends from Pakistan in the West to Hawai'i in the East Contributors to this handbook offer a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives opening a domain of scholarship wherein the relationship between phenotype and racism is less pronounced than European and North American approaches which have often privileged the so called colour stigmata leading to further exclusions of particular ethnic racial and indigenous communities This volume seeks to overcome racism and white ideologies embedded in theories of race and ethnicity in Asia proving a valuable resource to both students and scholars of comparative racial and ethnic studies international relations and human rights those travellers and business people wishing to gain an understanding of the Japanese people

Contested Embrace Jaeun Kim, 2016-07-20 Scholars have long examined the relationship between nation states and their internal others such as immigrants and ethnoracial minorities Contested Embrace shifts the analytic focus to explore how a state relates to people it views as external members such as emigrants and diasporas Specifically Jaeun Kim analyzes disputes over the belonging of Koreans in Japan and China focusing on their contested relationship with the colonial and postcolonial states in the Korean peninsula Extending the constructivist approach to nationalisms and the culturalist view of the modern state to a transnational context Contested Embrace illuminates the political and bureaucratic construction of ethno national populations beyond the territorial boundary of the state Through a comparative analysis of transborder membership politics in the colonial Cold War and post Cold War periods the book shows how the configuration of geopolitics bureaucratic techniques and actors agency shapes the making unmaking and remaking of transborder ties Kim demonstrates that being a homeland state or a member of the transborder nation is a precarious arduous and revocable political achievement

Hokkaido Dairy Farm Paul Hansen, 2024-02-01 Hokkaido Dairy Farm offers a historical and ethnographic examination of the rapid industrialization of the dairy industry in Tokachi Hokkaido It begins with a history of dairy farming and consumption in Hokkaido from a macro perspective mapping the transition from survival to subsistence and then from mixed family farms to monoculture and mega industrial operations It then narrows the focus to examine concrete changes in a Tokachi area dairying community that has undergone rapid sociocultural upheaval over the last three decades with shifts in human relationships alongside changes in human and cow connections through new technologies In the final chapters the scope is further narrowed to a detailed history and ethnography of a single industrializing dairy farm and the morphing cast of individuals attached to it centering on their idiosyncratic searches for economic social and even ontological security in what is popularly considered a peripheral region and industry The culmination of over fifteen years of ethnographic policy and historical research Hokkaido Dairy Farm argues that the dairy industry in Japan has always been entwined with notions of Otherness and security seeking notably in terms of frontiers

Routledge Handbook of Sexuality Studies in East Asia Mark McLelland, Vera Mackie, 2014-09-15 This collection brings together cutting edge work by established and emerging scholars focusing on key societies in the East Asian region China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan North and South Korea Mongolia and Vietnam This scope enables the collection to reflect on the nature of the transformations in constructions of sexuality in highly developed developing and emerging societies and economies Both Japan and China have established traditions of sexuality studies reflecting longstanding indigenous understandings of sex as well as more recent developments which interface with Euro American medical and psychological understandings Authors reflect upon the complex colonial and economic interactions and cultural flows which have affected the East Asian region over the last two centuries They trace local flows of ideas instead of defaulting to Euro American paradigms for sexuality studies Through looking at regional and global exchanges of ideas about sexuality this volume adds considerably to our understanding of the East Asian region and contributes to wider discussions of social transformation modernisation and globalisation It will be essential reading in undergraduate and graduate programs in sexuality studies gender studies women s studies and masculinity studies as well as in anthropology sociology history cultural studies area studies and health sciences Dogs and Cats in South Korea Julien Dugnoille, 2021-12-15 Dogs and Cats in South Korea Itinerant Commodities shows that though dogs and cats are consumed in the millions each year they are recipients of both cruelty and care in a very unique way compared to other animal species in South Korean society The anti imperialist and postcolonial stances associated with the consumption of dogs and cats in South Korea are oversimplistic Stereotypes by societies that do not eat these animals overshadow the various ways in which South Korean citizens interact with them including companionship In fact many dogs and cats go from companion to livestock and from livestock to companion demonstrating that the relationships with these creatures are not only complex but also fluid The trajectories of the lives of dogs and cats are never linear In that sense individual dogs and cats in South Korea are itinerant animals navigating an exchange system based on culture economics and politics With nuance and cultural understanding Dugnoille tells the complicated stories of these animals in South Korea as well as the humans who commoditize and singularize them
