Principles of Zen Training for Educational Settings Hugh Schuckman, 2024-10-31 This book provides insights into new developments and persistent traditions in Zen teacher training and education through the use of historical archival research and original interviews with living Zen Masters It argues that some contemporary Euro American social values of gender equality non discrimination rationality ecumenicism and democracy permeate not only the organizational aspects of the Kwan Um School of Zen case study but soteriological processes and goals of the training more widely Each chapter showcases the ways important facets of Zen education from meditation to curriculum development to school management have absorbed Euro American cultural and social ideals in both community and educational practices Giving dedicated scholarly attention and conceptualising new adaptations in transnational Zen communities it constitutes an important and timely addition to the literature and will appeal to researchers and scholars of religion and education Asian pedagogies contemporary Buddhism transnational Zen and Zen education

Buddhist Responses to Globalization

Leah Kalmanson, James Mark Shields, 2014-07-22 This interdisciplinary collection of essays highlights the relevance of Buddhist doctrine and practice to issues of globalization From various philosophical religious historical and political perspectives the authors show that Buddhism arguably the world s first transnational religion is a rich resource for navigating today s interconnected world Buddhist Responses to Globalization addresses globalization as a contemporary phenomenon marked by economic cultural and political deterritorialization and also proposes concrete strategies for improving global conditions in light of these facts Topics include Buddhist analyses of both capitalist and materialist economies Buddhist religious syncretism in highly multicultural areas such as Honolulu the changing face of Buddhism through the work of public intellectuals such as Alice Walker and Buddhist responses to a range of issues including reparations and restorative justice economic inequality spirituality and political activism cultural homogenization and nihilism and feminist critique In short the book looks to bring Buddhist ideas and practices into direct and meaningful yet critical engagement with both the facts and theories of globalization

Zen Echoes Zishou Miaocong, 2017-05-09 Zen echoes is a collection of classic koans from Zen s Chinese history that were first collected and commented on by Miaocong a twelfth century nun so adept that her teacher the legendary Dahui Zonggao used to tell other students male and female that perhaps if they practiced hard enough they might become as realized as her Nearly five hundred years later the seventeenth century nuns Baochi and Zukui added their own commentaries to the collection The three voices distinct yet harmonious remind us that enlightenment is at once universal and individual Page 4 of cover

Dōgen's texts Ralf Müller, George Wrisley, 2023-12-07 This book addresses the question of how to properly handle D gen s texts a core issue that became critical during the Meiji period in which the philosophical appropriation of D gen became apparent inside and outside of the monastery In present day D gen studies most scholarship is informed by a number of factions representing D gen The chapters herein address the Zennist j zenj ka emphasising practice the Genz nians j genz ka shifting the attention to the close reading of D gen s texts the laity movement opening up both the texts and the practice to people in modern society and the Genz researchers j genz kenky ka searching for the authenticity and truth of Dogen's writings The book aims to clarify the rightful place of Dogen in the monastery in denominational studies or in modern academic philosophy It brings forth various viewpoints on Dogen and analyzes the relations of these viewpoints from the premodern to modern times The collected volume appeals to students and researchers in the field while establishing hermeneutic standards of reading and proposing new original and critical interpretations of Dogen's texts Chapter From Uji to Being time and Back Translating Dogen into Philosophy is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

The Hidden Lamp Zenshin Florence Caplow, Reigetsu Susan Moon, 2013-10-21 The Hidden Lamp is a collection of one hundred koans and stories of Buddhist women from the time of the Buddha to the present day This revolutionary book brings together many teaching stories that were hidden for centuries unknown until this volume These stories are extraordinary expressions of freedom and fearlessness relevant for men and women of any time or place In these pages we meet nuns laywomen practicing with their families famous teachers honored by emperors and old women selling tea on the side of the road Each story is accompanied by a reflection by a contemporary woman teacher personal responses that help bring the old stories alive for readers today and concluded by a final meditation for the reader a question from the editors meant to spark further rumination and inquiry These are the voices of the women ancestors of every contemporary Buddhist

Storehouse of Treasures Nelson Foster, 2024-09-10 Storehouse of Treasures unearths wise and beautiful elements of Chan and Zen still little known in the West revealing unexpected aspects of the tradition and new implications for practice Since the dawn of Chan and Zen in medieval China and Japan members of these schools have enlivened their teaching by creatively adopting and adapting terms images principles poetry and lore native to their societies Unfortunately so much of that cultural wealth has been lost in translation that Western practitioners have barely begun to discover and appreciate this extraordinarily rich legacy In Storehouse of Treasures second generation American Zen teacher Nelson Foster makes a series of adventuresome forays into the trove of material laid up by the Dharma ancestors bringing to light Masters delight in playing with words stories and inherited Buddhist concepts bending them to express the Dharma in inspired ways The powerful influence that Taoist and Confucian thought exerted in the formation of Chan and Zen The emphasis the two schools have laid on excellence of character as well as on profound awakening The experiential meaning and enduring importance to the tradition of ideals little associated with it today like integrity shame and contentment How knowing the tune of a fellow student a mentor or a teacher of old lies at the heart of transmitting the Dharma Lifting to attention a diverse set of ancient yet still luminous Dharma gems Foster urges their relevance and value to us as students of the Buddha Way and as citizens of a world increasingly fractious and imperiled
