Dear [Employee],

I am writing to you to inform you that your employment with our company is no longer properly due to your continued violation of our company's policies and the law regarding the handling of money from the company.

Despite previous warnings, it has been reported to me that this behavior has not stopped. This is a serious offense that can harm our company, including legal action.

Please be advised that this behavior will result in the termination of your employment and legal action.

I encourage you to seek help if you are struggling with any personal issues that may be leading you to engage in this behavior. Our company has resources available to support employees in these situations.

I hope that this letter serves as a final warning and that you will take the necessary steps to correct your behavior before it is too late.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 2013

Bullied to Death? Judith A. Yates, 2018-04-10 A teenage girl's suicide raises questions of culpability for internet bullies in this investigation by the criminologist and true crime author On September 5 2015 in a public park in LaVergne Tennessee fourteen year old Sherokee Harriman drove a kitchen knife into her stomach as other teens watched in horror The coroner ruled it a suicide But was it Or was it a crime perpetuated by other teens who had bullied her Sherokee's tragic death created a media frenzy focused more on sensationalism than finding the truth Meanwhile the community of LaVerge sought answers to questions about who if anyone should be held criminally responsible for bullying Criminologist Judith A Yates peels back the distorting layers of social media and news coverage to examine a timely question with far reaching implications was Sherokee Harriman bullied to death
