Disabled USA. ,1987 I've Been through Hell Trying to Make It Up to Heaven Alida Jai Rogers, 2023-09-19 How would you like to have your funeral at any place you wanted Well in this book you will see what my uncle did He was a major coach What is a major coach Well that is where you coach literally everything basketball baseball track football martial arts swimming golf and dancing lessons He tutored adults and children and worked a regular job Lazy wasn t a word he knew What better way than to go out the way you lived your life I personally thought it was very cool My uncle s funeral was on the track and football field where over three hundred people attended to celebrate and paid their respects It made my father feel like he was putting on a gospel celebrity concert that he waited for all his life Lord Jesus help us If only Erica from Mary Mary would have just given my father a solo at their church My beautiful great aunt had us join a procession at the funeral as if it was a wedding We sat in white chairs on the football field as if we were holding a presidential election He was just that special My uncle s only daughter s wedding colors were purple and white And she wanted to honor him by the family wearing those colors since he would not be here to walk her down the aisle My father felt like this was his time to shine He didn't have to shine that much to make us go viral We were embarrassed We had just seen Kobe and his daughter buried the day before I was grateful for the tribute they gave to all nine lives that were lost Everyone was watching at the airport We were delayed due to the fog After watching the funeral no one complained about the fog again I flew all the way from St Louis I couldn't miss my uncle's funeral Who would have thought the world would shut down five weeks later I say God is trying to tell us all something With me being six months pregnant and bleeding for five of those six months I believed it would be a double funeral God said You both shall live yet the devil was trying to take me out I believe in my heart that this book will show you that no matter your skin color we are the same Even if your faith is paper thin this book is for you Religion shouldn't be anyone's cup of tea Even in the COVID pandemic Jesus has never left us nor forsaken us His blood is why we breathe Now that's love That should be our cup of tea Not religion

Home, Uprooted Devika Chawla, 2014-06-27 The Indian Independence Act of 1947 granted India freedom from British rule signaling the formal end of the British Raj in the subcontinent This freedom though came at a price partition the division of the country into India and Pakistan and the communal riots that followed These riots resulted in the deaths of an estimated 1 million Hindus and Muslims and the displacement of about 20 million persons on both sides of the border This watershed socioeconomic geopolitical moment cast an enduring shadow on India's relationship with neighboring Pakistan Presenting a perspective of the middle class refugees who were forced from their homes jobs and lives with the withdrawal of British rule in India Home Uprooted delves into the lives of forty five Partition refugees and their descendants to show how this epochal event continues to shape their lives Exploring the oral histories of three generations of refugees from India's Partition ten Hindu and Sikh families in Delhi Home Uprooted melds oral histories with a fresh perspective on current literature to unravel the emergent conceptual nexus of home travel and identity in the stories of the participants Author Devika Chawla argues that the ways in which her participants imagine recollect memorialize or abandon home in their everyday narratives give us unique insights into how refugee identities are constituted These stories reveal how migrations are enacted and what home in its sense absence and presence can mean for displaced populations Written in an accessible and experimental style that blends biography autobiography essay and performative writing Home Uprooted folds in field narratives with Chawla's own family history which was also shaped by the Partition event and her self propelled migration to North America In contemplating and living their stories of home she attempts to show how her own ancestral legacies of Partition displacement bear relief Home how we experience it and what it says about the selves we come to occupy is a crucial question of our contemporary moment Home Uprooted delivers a unique and poignant perspective on this timely question This compilation of stories offers an iteration of how diasporic migrations might be enacted and what home means to displaced populations
