feeling Governor General's Award for Fiction Citation 1994 A powerful major work of non fiction beautifully written from the twice winner of the Governor General's Award for Fiction and the great great granddaughter of Big Bear This is a story about justice and terrible injustices a story about a murder and a courtroom drama as compelling as any thriller as it unravels the events that put Yvonne Johnson behind bars for life first in Kingston's Federal Prison for Women until the riot that closed it and presently in the Okimaw Ochi Healing Lodge in the Cypress Hills But above all it is the unforgettable true story of the life of a Native woman who has decided to speak out and break the silence written with the redeeming compassion that marks all Rudy Wiebe's writing and informed throughout by Yvonne Johnson's own intelligence and poetic eloquence Characters and events spring to life with the vividness of fiction The story is told sometimes in the first person by Rudy Wiebe sometimes by Yvonne herself He tracks down the details of Yvonne's early life in Butte Montana as a child with a double cleft palate unable to speak until the kindness of one man provided the necessary operations the murder of her beloved brother while in police custody her life of sexual abuse at the hands of another brother grandfather and others her escape to Canada to Winnipeg and Wetaskiwin the traumas of her life that led to alcoholism and her slow descent into hell despite the love she found with her husband and three children He reveals how she participated with three others in the murder of the man she believed to be a child abuser he unravels the police story taking us step by step with jail taped transcripts through the police attempts to set one member of the group against the others in their search for a conviction and the courtroom drama that followed And Yvonne openly examines her life and through her grandmother comes to understand the legacy she has inherited from her ancestor Big Bear having been led through pain to wisdom she brings us with her to the point where she finds spiritual strength in passing on the lessons and understandings of her life How the great great granddaughter of Big Bear reached out to the author of The Temptations of Big Bear to help her tell her story is itself an extraordinary tale The co authorship between one of Canada's foremost writers and the only Native woman in Canada serving life imprisonment for murder has produced a deeply moving raw and honest book that speaks to all of us and gives us new insight into the society we live in while offering a deeply moving affirmation of spiritual healing O'Neill Louis Scheaffer, 2002-08-19 The most lauded playwright in American history Eugene O'Neill 1888 1953 won four Pulitzer Prizes and a Nobel Prize for a body of work that includes The Iceman Cometh Mourning Becomes Electra Desire Under the Elms and Long Day's Journey into Night His life the direct source for so much of his art was one of personal tumult from the very beginning The son of a famous actor and a quiet morphine addicted mother O'Neill had experienced alcoholism a collapse of his health and bouts of mania while still a young man Based on years of extensive research and access to previously untapped sources Sheaffer's authoritative biography examines how the pain of O'Neill's childhood fed his desire to write dramas and affected his artistically successful and emotionally disastrous life The Sphere, 1903 The Beartown Trilogy Ebook Collection Fredrik Backman, 2022-12-27 Rediscover this lyrical look at how a community heals how families recover and how
