to Talk About It is a groundbreaking and hopeful guide to understanding and destigmatizing male depression essential not only for men who may be suffering but for the people who love them Twenty years of experience treating men and their families has convinced psychotherapist Terrence Real that depression is a silent epidemic in men that men hide their condition from family friends and themselves to avoid the stigma of depression s un manliness Problems that we think of as typically male difficulty with intimacy workaholism alcoholism abusive behavior and rage are really attempts to escape depression And these escape attempts only hurt the people men love and pass their condition on to their children This groundbreaking book is the pathway out of darkness that these men and their families seek Real reveals how men can the language of girls and boys and the relationship between gender and genre Training the Translator Paul Kusmaul,1995-03-16 This book begins by investigating through the use of think aloud protocols the mental processes of students when they translate The creative and successful processes observed can be used directly for teaching purposes while the unsuccessful ones can serve to find out where remedial training is needed The book then goes on to discuss methods for improving a translator s competence The strategies offered are based on the pragmatic and semantic analysis of texts from a functional point of view and they include such practical matters as the use of dictionaries and the evaluation of translations and error analysis The book is intended for teachers in translator training institutions but it can also be used by students for self training Masculinity, Power and Technology Ulf Mellström,2017-03-02 Drawing on fieldwork carried out among male motor mechanics in the Chinese diaspora of Penang Malaysia this informative volume explores the links between technology and the masculinization of power Malaysia shares an obsession with modernity by way of technological development and a can do entrepreneurial spirit where technology is held in high esteem Technology holds such positive connotations in Malaysian society that it is therefore a source of individual and national empowerment Technology and modernity are therefore important factors when understanding contemporary Malaysian society Just as there is very much a masculine ethos pervading Malaysia's spirit and belief in modernity and progress this insightful and rewarding book focuses on technology and machines in relation to masculinity to provide an innovative anthropological perspective of Malaysian society and the Chinese diaspora
