Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff,2012-08-01 This classic critique of Christian education is revised expanded and includes Westerhoff s overview on the state Christian education over the past forty years According to Westerhoff instead of guiding faith formation within the family the church and the school we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes There children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts

Transmitting the Spirit in Missions Amos Jimmy Markin,2019-02-05 Transmitting the Spirit in Missions The History and Growth of the Church of Pentecost discourses on how Pentecostalism in general has been involved in the current growth mission and changing face of global Christianity It argues that African Pentecostals particularly are an integral part of the global expansion of Christianity in this century Specifically this book engages the history and growth of the Church of Pentecost an African Pentecostal denomination from Ghana to demonstrate how African Pentecostals have taken their spirituality into their own hands and planted churches in their home country as well as other parts of the globe The focus of this book is that African Pentecostals have achieved this feat through the experiential power and reliance of the Holy Spirit and the indigenous factor The specific highlight is that this book is an updated analysis of the history growth and missions of the Church of Pentecost Although this work is transformed from a PhD thesis the content is presented accessibly to both the
