Dr. Bicksford Cindy Kelley, 2011-02 Dr. Bicksford is a well-known inventor whose current project deals with DNA manipulation in plants. He is reputed to be the wealthiest person in the world. And no one has ever seen him. So imagine their surprise when college students Rachel Zachary, Chris, Liz, and Sam are hired to do top secret research for the invisible man. The students are flown to his private estate and immediately given their assignments: Liz and Sam excavating an ancient Egyptian temple, Zachary cataloguing greenhouse contents, and Rachel and Chris analyzing the mysterious bloodweed plant. Upon the students' much anticipated first meeting with Dr. Bicksford, Rachel is taken aback by his resemblance to the man she has been seeing in her dreams. But there's just one thing: the man in her dreams isn't a man at all, but an alien-like creature with paper-thin skin and razor-sharp fingernails. After several more dreams of and meetings with the mysterious man, Rachel comes to know, understand, and love the misunderstood creature that is Dr. Bicksford. Things quickly become even stranger when Zachary suddenly comes up missing and it looks suspiciously as though he has purposely gone into hiding. Rachel is completely unprepared for the truth about Dr. Bicksford's past and the reason for her presence at his home, but in order to stay alive and remain with the one she loves, she must face the truth about her beloved Dr. Bicksford.

Novels and Romances, Viz George Payne Rainsford James, 1848 Culture-on-Demand James Lull, 2008-04-30 This highly original, thought-provoking book, written by a pioneer of communication studies, is the first to analyze the post-9/11 world in terms of global media and popular culture. Written in an engaging and candid manner by a leading expert in this field, it argues that cross-cultural understanding can only be achieved by harnessing the power of global media, popular culture, information technology, and personal communications technologies. Examines the global trend of using film, video, music, and TV on demand as the framework through which we experience all cultural activity. Draws inspiration from the work of a range of theorists from Charles Darwin to Anthony Giddens. Candidly interrogates the very latest developments in world affairs, especially the roles of fundamentalist religious ideology, media globalization, and individualism, whose complex relationships have yet to be explained by social scientists.
