Zanzibar Michael F. Lofchie, 1965-11-21 The Description for this book Zanzibar Background to Revolution will be forthcoming Taarab Music in Zanzibar in the Twentieth Century Janet Topp Fargion, 2016-04-01 The musical genre of taarab is played for entertainment at weddings and other festive occasions all along the Swahili Coast in East Africa Taarab contains all the features of a typical Indian Ocean music combining influences from Egypt the Arabian Peninsula India and the West with local musical practices In Taarab Music in Zanzibar Janet Topp Fargion traces the development of the genre in Zanzibar from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth Of special interest is the role of women Although men play the main role in the composition and performance of the genre Topp Fargion argues that the modernization of the genre owes a debt to the participation of women as audiences and primary consumers but also as poets and innovators of musical concepts The book weaves together the historical social economic religious and political dynamics involved in the development of the genre and investigates how these are played out in the performance of taarab music on Zanzibar of revolutions Lessons learned from the six major revolutions of the past Preparation for a revolution Etuk maintains that change is necessary in life and that it is up to the Africans to decide what kind of revolution they should adopt in order to affect change on their continent A Model Four Semester Syllabus for Transcultural Theology Overseas Michael C.

confronted the challenges of nation building in modern Africa Constructing Tanzania out of a controversial Cold War union between Tanganyika and Zanzibar Nyerere emerged as one of independent Africa s most influential leaders He pursued his own brand of African socialism called Ujamaa with unquestioned integrity and saw it profoundly influence movements to end white minority rule in Southern Africa Yet his efforts to build a peaceful nation created a police state economic crisis and a war with Idi Amin s Uganda Eventually unlike most of his contemporaries Nyerere retired voluntarily from power paving the way for peaceful electoral transitions in Tanzania that continue today Based on multinational archival research extensive reading and interviews with Nyerere s family and colleagues as well as some who suffered under his rule Paul Bjerk provides an incisive and accessible biography of this African leader of global importance Recognizing Nyerere s commitment to participatory government and social equality while also confronting his authoritarian turns and policy failures Bjerk offers a portrait of principled leadership under the difficult circumstances of postcolonial Africa Cracks in the Dome:

Fractured Histories of Empire in the Zanzibar Museum, 1897-1964 Dr Sarah Longair,2015-08-28 As one of the most monumental and recognisable landmarks from Zanzibar s years as a British Protectorate the distinctive domed building of the Zanzibar Museum also known as the Beit al Amani or Peace Memorial Museum is widely known and familiar to Zanzibaris and visitors alike Yet the complicated and compelling history behind its construction and collection has been overlooked by historians until now Drawing on a rich and wide range of hitherto unexplored archival photographic architectural and material evidence this book is the first serious investigation of this remarkable institution Although the museum was not opened until 1925 this book traces the longer history of colonial display which culminated in the establishment of the Zanzibar Museum It reveals the complexity of colonial knowledge production in the changing political context of the twentieth century British Empire and explores the broad spectrum of people from diverse communities who shaped its existence as staff informants collectors and teachers Through vivid narratives involving people objects and exhibits this book exposes the fractures contradictions and tensions in creating and maintaining a colonial museum and casts light on the conflicted character of the colonial mission in eastern Africa *Catalog of the Melville J.
