Zarina Paper Like Skin:

Zarina Allegra Pesenti,2012 Zarina Hashmi's main working medium is paper which she employs in woodcuts etchings drawings rubbings and casts made from paper pulp This volume places Zarina's work within a tradition of the use and fabrication of paper on the Indian subcontinent The Oxford Handbook of American Islam Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,Jane I. Smith,2014 In this volume 30 of the field's top scholars examine historical and contemporary aspects of American Islam and explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics American Art in Asia Michelle Lim,Kyunghee Pyun,2022-05-05 This book challenges existing notions of what is American and or Asian art moving beyond the identity issues that have dominated art world conversations of the 1980s and the 1990s and aligning with new trends and issues in contemporary art today e.g the Global South labor environment and gender identity Contributors examine both historical and contemporary instances in art practices and exhibition making under the rubric of American art in Asia The book complicates existing notions of what constitutes American art Asian American and American Asian art As today's production and display of contemporary art takes place across diffused borders under the fluid conditions of a globalized art world since transformed by the COVID 19 pandemic new contexts and art historical narratives are forming that upend traditional Euro American mappings of center margins migratory patterns and community engagement The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history American studies Asian studies and visual culture Radio for the Millions Isabel Huacuja Alonso,2023-01-03 Co winner 2023 AIPS Book Prize American Institute of Pakistan Studies Finalist 2023 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association From news about World War II to the broadcasting of music from popular movies radio played a crucial role in an increasingly divided South Asia for more than half a century Radio for the Millions examines the history of Hindi Urdu radio during the height of its popularity from the 1930s to the 1980s showing how it created transnational communities of listeners Isabel Huacuja Alonso argues that despite British Indian and Pakistani politicians efforts to usurp the medium for state purposes radio largely escaped their grasp She demonstrates that the medium enabled listeners and broadcasters to resist the cultural linguistic and political agendas of the British colonial administration and the subsequent independent Indian and Pakistani governments Rather than being merely a tool of nation building in South Asia radio created affective links that defied state agendas policies and borders It forged an enduring transnational soundscape even after the 1947 Partition had made a united India a political impossibility Huacuja Alonso traces how people engaged with radio across news music and drama broadcasts arguing for a more expansive definition of what it means to listen She develops the concept of radio resonance to understand how radio relied on circuits of oral communication such as rumor and gossip and to account for the affective bonds this talk created By analyzing Hindi film song radio programs she demonstrates how radio spurred new ways of listening to cinema Drawing on a rich collection of sources including newly recovered recordings listeners letters to radio stations original interviews with broadcasters and archival documents from across three continents Radio for the Millions rethinks assumptions about how the medium connects with audiences Film, Media and Representation in Postcolonial South Asia Nukhbah Taj Langah, Roshni Sengupta, 2021-07-28 This volume brings together new studies and interdisciplinary research on the changing mediascapes in South Asia Focusing on India Pakistan and Bangladesh it explores the transformations in the sphere of cinema television performing arts visual cultures cyber space and digital media beyond the traumas of the partitions of 1947 and 1971 Through wide ranging essays on soft power performance film and television art and visual culture and cyber space social media and digital texts the book bridges the gap in the study of the postcolonial and post Partition developments to reimagine South Asia through a critical understanding of popular culture and media The volume includes scholars and practitioners from the subcontinent to foster dialogue across the borders and presents diverse and in depth studies on film media and representation in the region This book will be useful to scholars and researchers of media and film studies postcolonial studies visual cultures political studies partition history cultural studies mass media popular culture history sociology and South Asian studies as well as to media practitioners journalists writers and activists Eurasian Encounters Carolien Stolte, Yoshiyuki Kikuchi, 2025-10-01 The essays in this volume explore crucial intellectual and cultural exchanges between Asia and Europe in the first half of the twentieth century Examining the increased mobility of people and information scientific advances global crises and the unravelling of empires Eurasian Encounters demonstrates that this time period saw an unprecedented increase in a transnational flow of politically and socially influential ideas Together the contributors show how the two ends of Eurasia interacted in artistic academic and religious spheres using new international and cosmopolitan approaches Between the Tides Susannah Marren, 2024-03-26 Lainie Smith Morris is perfectly content with her life in New York City she has four children a handsome surgeon husband and good friends This life she has built is shattered however when her husband Charles announces he has accepted a job in Elliot New Jersey and that the family must relocate Lainie is forced to give up the things she knows and loves Though Charles easily adapts to the intricacies of suburban life even thriving in it Lainie finds herself increasingly troubled and bored by her new limited responsibilities and she remains desperate for the inspiration comfort and safety of the city she called home She is hopelessly lost until serendipitously she reconnects with an old friend rival turned current Elliot resident Jess Pleased to demonstrate her social superiority to Lainie Jess helps her find a footing even encouraging Lainie to develop as an artist but what looks like friendship is quickly supplanted by a betrayal with earth shattering impact and a move to the suburbs becomes a metaphor for a woman who must search to find a new home ground in the shifting winds of marriage family career and friendship Between the Tides is an engrossing commanding debut from tremendous new talent Susannah Marren Marisa Merz Cornelia H. Butler, 2017 Bringing together five decades of painting sculpture and installations from the celebrated Italian artist Marisa Merz this monograph accompanies a major US retrospective of her work This generously illustrated book offers readers the chance to appreciate the full range of works by Marisa Merz winner of the 2013 Golden Lion lifetime achievement award at the Venice Biennale This volume traces Merz s artistic evolution from early experiments with non traditional materials and processes to intricately constructed installations of the 1970s and the enigmatic ceramic heads of the 1980s and 90s Authoritative essays explore the rise of international women s art in the 1960s and 70s and Merz s own place in Italy s postwar art history As the sole female protagonist of Arte Povera she is one of the few Italian women to exhibit in major venues internationally Merz s challenging and evocative body of work is deeply personal and resistant to the categories of art history including Arte Povera and international feminist art with which she was associated Previously unpublished texts and poetry by the artist and an illustrated chronology complement this comprehensive look at an enormously influential artist Smithsonian Asian
