Zen And The Art Of Postmodern Philosophy:

Zen and the Art of Postmodern Philosophy Carl Olson, 2000-08-24 This book examines and compares the philosophical positions of various postmodern thinkers and Zen Buddhist philosophers on language and play modes of thinking skepticism and doubt self and other time and death nihilism and metaphysics and the conception of the end of philosophy The Zen thinkers dealt with are Dogen and Nishitani and the Western thinkers are Derrida Lacan Heidegger Lyotard Foucault Deleuze and Guatarri Kristeva and Levinas Although each share similar notions concerning the shortcomings of representational thinking major differences still exist By clarifying these differences Olson counters the tendency to overtly assert or covertly imply that postmodern and Zen philosophies are moving in the same direction Some postmodern thinkers and Zen Buddhist philosophers share common philosophical ground with regard to a mutual philosophical attack and attempt to overcome the perceived shortcomings of the representational mode of thinking that conceives of the mind like a mirror and assumes a correspondence between appearance and reality that is supported by a metaphysical structure

The Unharnessed World Cindy Gabrielle, 2015-06-18 Though New Zealand author Janet Frame 1924 2004 lived at a time of growing dissatisfaction with European cultural models and though her auto biography fiction and letters all testify to the fact that a direct encounter between herself and Buddhism occurred her work has so far never been examined from the vantage point of its indebtedness to Buddhism It is of the utmost significance however that a Buddhist navigation of Frame s texts should shed fresh light on large segments of the Framean corpus which have tended to remain obdurately mysterious This includes passages centering on such themes as the existence of a non dual world or a character s sudden embrace of a non ego like self Of equal significance is the conclusion one then draws that this unharnessed world which human beings are often unable to embrace has always been right under their nose for whenever the aspect of the intellect that filters perceptions into mutually excluding categories fails to function he or she finds a place of subjective arrival in and sees this supposedly unknowable beyond Thus possibly against the grain of mainstream criticism this study argues that Janet Frame constantly seeks ways through which the infinite and the Other can be approached though not corrupted by the perceiving self and that she found in the Buddhist epistemology a pathway towards evoking such alterity

Postmodern Ethics, Emptiness, and Literature Jae-seong Lee, 2015-12-24 This study advances contemporary postmodern poststructural critical theory literary criticism in particular with the help of Mahayana especially Ch an Seon Chinese and Korean Zen Buddhist thought The quest for the infinity of the Other West and Emptiness or the true I East contributes to the exploration of the contemporary critical issues of ethics and infinity Such an approach will awaken our sense of unrepresented genuine transcendence and immanence The Buddhist Emptiness shows us the absolute Other illuminated on a vaster scale The theory section explores and links Eastern and Western philosophies switching between the two While discussing in depth Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida Levinas Lacan Deleuze and Nancy this study gradually guides the reader from the contemporary Western thought on the Other and infinity to the Buddhist vision of Emptiness the ultimate reality To overcome the dualistic mode of thought inherent in tradition of Western metaphysics this exploration follows the line that observes Nagarjuna and the imprint of Ch'an teachings that are most prevalent in South Korean Buddhism The last three chapters demonstrate a Levinasian and Seon Buddhist approach to the book of Job part of the Judeo Christian Bible as being a more literary than religious text and the excess of the Gothic mood in the two most distinguished and widely celebrated novels Bram Stoker's Dracula and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein The three texts compel readers to confront the infinity of the absolute Other or Emptiness The Grand Prize Winner of the 7th Wonhyo Academic Awards from the Korean Buddhism Promotion Foundation Postmodernism and the Revolution in Religious Theory Carl Raschke,2012-10-04 While the academic study of religion has increased almost exponentially in the past fifty years general theories of religion have been in significant decline In his new book Carl Raschke offers the first systematic exploration of how the postmodern philosophical theories of Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Alain Badiou and Slavoj Žižek have contributed significantly to the development of a theory of religion as a whole The bold paradigm he uses to articulate the framework for a revolution in religious theory comes from semiotics namely the problem of the sign and the singularity or event horizon from which a sign is generated Nishida Kitaro's Chiasmatic Chorology John W. M. Krummel,2015-09-01 Nishida Kitaro 1870-1945 is considered Japan's first and greatest modern philosopher As founder of the Kyoto School he began a rigorous philosophical engagement and dialogue with Western philosophical traditions especially the work of G. W. F. Hegel John W. M. Krummel explores the Buddhist roots of Nishida's thought and places him in connection with Hegel and other philosophers of the Continental tradition Krummel develops notions of self-awareness will being place the environment religion and politics in Nishida's thought and shows how his ethics of humility may best serve us in our complex world Buddhism and Postmodernity Jin Y. Park,2010-10-28 Buddhism and Postmodernity is a response to some of the questions that have emerged in the process of Buddhism's encounters with modernity and the West Jin Y. Park broadly outlines these questions as follows first why are the interpretations and evaluations of Buddhism so different in Europe in the nineteenth century in the United States in the twentieth century and in traditional Asia second why does Zen Buddhism which offers a radically egalitarian vision maintain a strongly authoritarian leadership and third what ethical paradigm can be drawn from the Buddhist postmodern form of philosophy Park argues that as unrelated as these questions may seem the issues that have generated them are related to perennial philosophical themes of identity institutional power and ethics respectively Each of these themes constitutes one section of Buddhism and Postmodernity Park discusses the three issues in the book through the exploration of the Buddhist concepts of self and others language and thinking and universality and particularities Most of this discussion is drawn from the East Asian Buddhist traditions of Zen and Huayan Buddhism in connection with the Continental philosophies of postmodernism hermeneutics and deconstruction Self-critical from both the Buddhist and Western philosophical perspectives Buddhism and Postmodernity points the reader toward a new understanding of Buddhist philosophy and offers a Buddhist postmodern ethical paradigm that challenges normative ethics of metaphysical traditions

Buddhisms and Deconstructions Jin Y. Park, 2006-03-10 Buddhisms and Deconstructions considers the connection between Buddhism and Derridean deconstruction focusing on the work of Robert Magliola Fourteen distinguished contributors discuss deconstruction and various Buddhisms Indian Tibetan and Chinese Chan followed by an afterword in which Magliola responds directly to his critics

The Many Colors of Hinduism Carl Olson, 2007 The Many Colors of Hinduism is the first introductory text to provide a balanced view of this rich religious tradition acknowledging the full range of its many competing and even contradictory aspects Utilizing a thematic historical approach Carl Olson draws on a wide array of textual evidence the fieldwork of anthropologists in close contact with insiders and voices of thinkers ranging from Indologist Alf Hiltebeitel to Cambridge scholar Julius Lipner The result is a narrative approach that offers a view of Hinduism that emulates the storytelling nature of the religion itself

Indian and Western Philosophical Concepts in Religion Pankaj Jain, Jeffery D. Long, 2022-12-19 Philosophical concepts are influential in the theories and methods to study the world religions Even though the disciplines of anthropology and religious studies now encompass communities and cultures across the world the theories and methods used to study world religions and cultures continue to be rooted in Western philosophies For instance one of the most widely used textbooks used in introductory courses on religious studies introduces major theoreticians such as Edward Burnett Tylor James Frazer Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber Mircea Eliade William James E E Evans Pritchard and Clifford Geertz Their theories are based on Western philosophy In contrast in Indic philosophical systems such as Buddhism Hinduism and Jainism one of the common views on reality is that the world both within one self and outside is a flow with nothing permanent both the observer and the observed undergoing constant transformation This volume is based on such innovative ideas coming from different Indic philosophies and how they can enrich the theory and methods in religious studies

Animals Erased Arran Stibbe, 2012-01-01 Amazingly clear and incisive readings of a wide range of discourses related to animals and ecology from the author of Ecolinguistics Karla Armbruster coeditor of Beyond Nature Writing Animals are disappearing vanishing and dying out not just in the physical sense of becoming extinct but in the sense of being erased from our consciousness Increasingly interactions with animals happen at a remove mediated by nature programs books and cartoons framed by the enclosures of zoos and aquariums distanced by the museum cases that display lifeless bodies In this thought provoking book Arran Stibbe takes us on a journey of discovery revealing the many ways in which language affects our relationships with animals and the natural world Animal product industry manuals school textbooks ecological reports media coverage of environmental issues and animal rights polemics all commonly portray animals as inanimate objects or passive victims In his search for an alternative to these negative forms of discourse Stibbe turns to the traditional culture of Japan Within Zen philosophy haiku poetry and even contemporary children's animated films animals appear as active agents leading their own lives for their own purposes and of value in themselves Those of us of cultures of the land both working with and yes consuming animals will applaud Arran Stibbe's analysis of the loss of soul when right relationship is discarded Alastair McIntosh author of Soil and Soul

Civilisation and Fear Wojciech Kalaga, Agnieszka Kliś, 2012-03-15. Paradoxically, if nature has always been a source of fear, civilisation, its other, and at the same time the epitome of progress and order, has not only doubled fear itself but also added its new sister, anxiety. In effect, the notions of civilisation, fear, and anxiety can hardly be separated. Fear, either linked with anxiety or distinct from it, lies at the foundation of civilisation, which, as much as it promises to shelter us from these afflictions, as it does proliferate them. Confronted no longer with the adversary powers of nature, humans have to face now the adversary powers produced by their own endeavours and ideologies. Each effort aimed at attaining an equilibrium results in new, unexpected rifts and breaches into which fear and anxiety grow. Out of the games played between fear and civilisation, there emerge new versions of the human subject: homo anxious, homo civilis, homo rationalis. This volume represents a collection of papers devoted to the many various relations between fear and society, culture, and civilisation, both Western and Eastern, contemporary and past. The articles collected here approach the relationship of civilisation, fear, anxiety, and the subject from multiple perspectives, relating to modern critical thought, including that of Kant, Freud, Derrida, Kierkegaard, and Heidegger; they investigate the objects, causes, and effects of fear, reality, nature, reason, libidinal excess, atheism, critical discourse, technological advances, conspiracy, terrorism, capital punishment, the diversity of cultures, and the breakdown of civilisation as a whole. Most of all, however, they explore the various shades of fear itself.
