Crazy Tales of Blood and Guts Teresa Solana, 2013-04-07 Fascinating short stories that include a rather bloody satire on installation art including the Edgar Award nominated story Still Life No 41 a wonderful story of gruesome revenge involving a wayward son in law a surprising and hilarious tale of a pre historic serial killer who invents God and psychoanalysis and inevitably a vampire story told with venom and humor These stories remind one of the best short stories by Stephen King such as those in the Just after Sunset compilation They can be horrific but are never without a devastating sense of humor As in the adult short stories of Roald Dahl the Kiss Kiss collection in particular with its tales of family and other violence there is great ingenuity surprising and satisfying endings and since it's Solana deep cutting satire of contemporary fads and mores
