Aldous Huxley Speaking Personally Aldous Huxley,1973 Selected Poems Aldous Huxley,2021-09-23 Selected Poems Aldous Huxley HEPHERD to yon tall poplars tune your flute Let them pierce keenly subtly shrill The slow blue rumour of the hill Let the grass cry with an anguish of evening gold And the great sky be mute Then hearken how the poplar trees unfold Their buds yet close and gummed and blind In airy leafage of the mind Rustling in silvery whispers the twin hued scales That fade not nor grow old Poplars and fountains and you cypress spires Springing in dark and rusty flame Seek you aught that hath a name Or say say Are you all an upward agony Of undefined desires Say are you happy in the golden march Of sunlight all across the day Or do you watch the uncertain way That leads the withering moon on cloudy stairs Over the heavens wide arch Is it towards sorrow or towards joy you lift The sharpness of your trembling spears Or do you seek through the grey tears That blur the sky in the heart of the triumphing blue A deeper calmer rift So I have tuned my music to the trees And there were voices dim below Their shrillness voices swelling slow In the blue murmur of hills and a golden cry And then vast silences The Defeat of Youth, and Other Poems Aldous Huxley,2022-09-16 Aldous Huxley's The Defeat of Youth and Other Poems presents a poignant exploration into the perennial themes of time change and disillusionment Through his incisive and elegant verse Huxley delves into the intricate workings of the human spirit juxtaposing youthful idealism against the sobering forces of maturity As much a product of the literary zeitgeist of the early 20th century as it is a personal artistic journey this compilation is reflective of the Modernist framework embodying a deft blend of rich imagery and sharp intellectual vigor which animates the delicate structure of his poetry The collection's literary style is distinct in its precision and resonant in the larger mosaic of English literature nAldous Huxley best known for his dystopian novel Brave New World started his literary career as a poet His philosophical inquiries and sharp social commentary find their genesis within these early poetic writings Huxley's background in literature and science alongside his personal grappling with vision impairment informs much of his perspective in these works The Defeat of Youth and Other Poems provides a window into the writer's evolving psyche and sheds light on the preoccupations that would shape his celebrated prose n The Defeat of Youth and Other Poems will appease both the literary aficionado and the casual reader searching for introspective musings on the cusp of modernity Recommended to those who wish to experience Huxley's eloquence beyond his dystopian visions this collection offers a different facet of his rich oeuvre It stands as an essential volume for anyone seeking to understand the broad canvas of Huxley's intellectual pursuits or simply to enjoy the timeless art of poetry that resonates with the human experience across all ages The Collected Poetry of Aldous Huxley Aldous Huxley,1971 Aldous Huxley ,1962 The Burning Wheel Aldous Huxley,2021-02-16 The Burning Wheel 1916 is a collection of poems by English author Aldous

Huxley Published when the poet was only twenty two The Burning Wheel captures the mind of an artist at its earliest fertile stage enthralled with a world either blooming with change or wilting with all out war Although Huxley is known foremost as a novelist his poetry exhibits a mastery of language and an uncommon sense of the music inherent to words The Burning Wheel opens the collection with a kaleidoscopic vision of life and creation illuminating the poet s debt to the French Symbolists Weary of its own turning the burning wheel slows for a moment s rest This wheel both machine and pure wild flame is the poet compelled to create the mind that w akes from the sleep of its quiet brightness And burns with a darkening passion and pain In Quotidian Vision Huxley returns to earth to remark There is a sadness in the street And sullenly the folk I meet Droop their heads as they walk along In these simple rhyming couplets the poet channels the verse and vision of William Blake to see despite the mist of cold and muffling grey a dead world move for him once more With beauty for its living core The Burning Wheel is a compelling collection from an artist whose poetry is no less remarkable for having gone mostly unnoticed With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Aldous Huxley s The Burning Wheel is a classic of English literature reimagined for modern readers
