Beatrice Paolozzi Strozzi, Marc Bormand, 2013 The Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior, 1400-1700 Erin J.

Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, Elizabeth Carroll Consavari, 2016-03-23 Emphasizing on the one hand the reconstruction of the material culture of specific residences and on the other the way in which particular domestic objects reflect shape and mediate family values and relationships within the home this volume offers a distinct contribution to research on the early modern Italian domestic interior Though the essays mainly take an art historical approach the book is interdisciplinary in that it considers the social implications of domestic objects for family members of different genders age and rank as well as for visitors to the home By adopting a broad chronological framework that encompasses both Renaissance and Baroque Italy and by expanding the regional scope beyond Florence and Venice to include domestic interiors from less studied centers such as Urbino Ferrara and Bologna this collection offers genuinely new perspectives on the home in early modern Italy

Scholten, 2025-06-30 In these days the most famous modeller this is how the Dutch sculptor Adriaen de Vries 1556-1626 was characterised in 1621 A virtuoso modeller De Vries explored new ways to enliven his art His bronze sculptures were made in a radically new sketchy style with free figure compositions and a vigorous treatment of human anatomy often balancing on the border between realism and distortion This book explores how and why a Late Renaissance sculptor broke so drastically with the prevailing stylistic paradigm of his time in search of vivezza natural liveliness and the viva figura the statue on the brink of coming to life Adriaen de Vries aimed to create sculptures that move in the metaphorical no man's land between death and life back and forth from inert bronze to apparent vitality as this study will argue The Renaissance Nude
